these notes of one who has studied war for close on fifty years That is my only excuse for re enlisting these old soldiers of my pen Some of them may be thought old fashioned and out of date with little more to tell the modern student of war than would a visit to the pensioners of Chelsea Hospital But passing down their ranks and looking them over with I admit an indulgent eye I still believe that there may be something in each of these veterans or at least in some of them to induce thought and perhaps to sow the germ of a fresh idea If I can claim to any merit as a soldier it is that I have always tried to keep my mind receptive to fresh ideas and that I have striven to present these ideas in as simple and practical a form as possible in battle dress rather than in review order If these old soldiers of mine can in any way help a young soldier to learn his trade the training and handling of men in circumstances of great complexity and difficulty they will not have come back from the Reserve in vain Author s Preface 1946
