

Mog was tired. She was dead tired.
Her head was dead tired.
Her paws were dead tired.
Even her tail was dead tired.
Mog thought, "I want to sleep for ever."
And so she did.
But a little bit of her stayed awake
to see what would happen next.

I Will Blossom Anyway Disha Bose, 2025-05-06 A romantic coming of age story about one woman's inspiring journey to find self love reconnect with family and forge a new path for her future from the author of the Good Morning America Book Club pick Dirty Laundry Durga is named after the Bengali goddess pure of heart filled with goodness But the goddess has an alter ego fearless Kali of fire and crackling with energy The third of four children born to a middle class Calcutta family quiet Durga is surprisingly the first to leave the nest of her loving overbearing family She is not as charming as her older sister Tia as lighthearted as her brother Arjun or as clever as her younger sister Parul But when she arrives in Ireland to work at a tech company she finds that for the first time ever she is free to have fun to stay out to sample everything that life has to offer Suddenly Durga can be whoever she wants to be And she wants it all But freedom comes at a price Durga falls in love with handsome charismatic Jacob and grows close with his sister Joy now Durga's flatmate and best friend But when Jacob breaks up with Durga she's unmoored Will she stay in Ireland with her newfound identity and livelihood or will she return to India where she is comfortable Perhaps neither option is enough Durga must summon her inner Kali the brave and fearless warrior and fight for the life she truly desires Modern thought provoking and mirthful I Will Blossom Anyway is a story about what it means to be caught between opposing worlds and the pressures and freedoms of millennial life and what it really means to be a modern woman today anywhere

Broken Heart, Shared Heart, Healing Heart Barbara Allen, 2024 Written by Australia's first animal hospital chaplain this book shares cultural expressions of pet loss spiritual beliefs on the afterlife for animals and rituals of memorialization With tools for self care as well as emotional and spiritual comfort this book is the perfect companion for those grieving after a pet dies

Death, Loss, and Grief in Literature for Youth Alice Crosetto, Rajinder Garcha, 2012-11-21 All human beings encounter loss and death as well as the grief associated with these experiences It is therefore important for children and adolescents to understand that such events are inevitable and to learn how to accept loss and cope with their emotions In order to help children through their pain parents and caregivers need access to the proper resources that will help them discuss these topics and educational professionals need reliable resources for creating courses of study on these subjects In Death Loss and Grief in Literature for Youth Alice Crosetto and Rajinder Garcha identify hundreds of resources that will help educators professionals parents siblings guardians and students learn about coping with the loss of a loved one and the grief process

These resources include books Internet sites and media titles aimed at students and those helping them through the grieving process Chapters in this volume include fiction and non fiction titles about the loss of a family member a friend and a pet as well as general reference resources curricular resources and websites Annotations provide complete bibliographical descriptions of the entries and each entry is identified with the grade levels for which it is best suited Reviews from recognized publications are also included wherever possible Anyone interested in locating helpful resources regarding death and grieving will find much of value in this essential tool Children's Literature and the Posthuman Zoe Jaques,2015-02-11 An investigation of identity formation in children s literature this book brings together children s literature and recent critical concerns with posthuman identity to argue that children s fiction offers sophisticated interventions into debates about what it means to be human and in particular about humanity s relationship to animals and the natural world In complicating questions of human identity ecology gender and technology Jaques engages with a multifaceted posthumanism to understand how philosophy can emerge from children s fantasy disclosing how such fantasy can build upon earlier traditions to represent complex issues of humanness to younger audiences Interrogating the place of the human through the non human whether animal or mechanical leads this book to have interpretations that radically depart from the critical tradition which in its concerns with the socialization and representation of the child has ignored larger epistemologies of humanness The book considers canonical texts of children s literature alongside recent bestsellers and films locating texts such as Gulliver s Travels 1726 Pinocchio 1883 and the Alice books 1865 1871 as important works in the evolution of posthuman ideas This study provides radical new readings of children s literature and demonstrates that the genre offers sophisticated interventions into the nature boundaries and dominion of humanity Get Started in Writing an Illustrated Children's Book Lucy Courtenay,2016-11-03 Do you have an irresistible idea for a children s book with pictures Are you inspired by writers like Julia Donaldson and Lauren Child Get Started in Writing and Illustrating A Children s Book is designed for anyone who wants to write in this genre of fiction whatever the category or age range Designed to build confidence and help fire up creativity it is also an essential guide to mastering the practicalities of working with illustrators and illustrated concepts from creating ideas for toddler board books to writing high concept middle grade projects It carries the distinctive learning features of the flagship Teach Yourself Creative Writing series with Snapshots designed to get you writing quickly Key Idea to help crystallize thought and a wealth of supplementary material including insights into the publishing world and the role of the agent Into The Unknown Andy Murray,2017-06-08 Since the earliest days of British television drama scriptwriter Nigel Kneale has been a seminal figure His Quatermass serials for the BBC were a seismic event in the 1950s before finding international success when adapted by Hammer Films for the big screen Later TV plays such as The Road The Stone Tape and The Year of the Sex Olympics skilfully blend elements of science fiction and the ghost story They remain classics and Kneale himself a great influence on popular culture Revised and updated this new edition of Into the Unknown charts Nigel

Kneale's extraordinary career from his childhood on the Isle of Man to his fraught days at the BBC strange adventures in Hollywood and his status as legend to legions of fans It draws on a wealth of research and many hours of interviews with Kneale himself as well as prominent admirers These include John Carpenter Ramsey Campbell Grant Morrison Russell T Davies and Mark Gatiss and Jeremy Dyson of the League of Gentlemen
