Defining Love Rod Charles,1901 Recently I was thinking of a way to define love I will use a visual illustration to look at love There are many different inaccurate uses of the word love as it applies to the material world From the heartfelt love I see that there are two ways to define love One To fill a void in our lonely lives we find a kind of love that I refer to as a superficial love To illustrate this I will use a glass of water Once the water is consumed the glass is empty as is life and the lonely heart returns to find another glass of water That is why the divorce rate in the world is so high This kind of love is very definable as you can see Two Again I will use the same glass of water to illustrate this second kind of love The glass is full of water as before however when the water is consumed the glass is still full It does not matter how much water is consumed the glass remains full there is no way to explain or define the reason why this phenomenon exists It is a kind of meaningful everlasting love You can live this love through the deep feelings from an unknown source within our hearts and our inner beauty Inner beauty is defined as living life from the heart These deep feelings of love remain undefinable We feel this love but we will never know why and we really do not need to know why This love is just there and all the relationships last until death do us part For centuries philosophers sages and countless other individuals have tried to define these inner unknowing feelings of love All efforts have failed and will continue to fail for as long as time exists These words I have written here I hope will inspire the readers to look at life a little differently
