Goodnight Sweet Marilyn:

The Immortal Marilyn John De Vito, Frank Tropea, 2006-12-07 From the late 1940s to the early 60s Marilyn Monroe appeared in barely thirty movies beginning with bit parts and moving on into supporting roles for such films as The Asphalt Jungle All About Eve and Clash by Night She soon shot to international fame and gained prominent roles in a number of classics like The Seven Year Itch Gentlemen Prefer Blondes and Some Like It Hot By the time of her early death in 1962 she had already become established as one of the great icons of the silver screen Even early in her career Monroe had been a source of inspiration for playwrights filmmakers and others looking to cash in on her tremendous impact In The Immortal Marilyn The Depiction of an Icon authors John DeVito and Frank Tropea chronicle the many representations of Marilyn Monroe in the performing arts from the 1950s to the present day In a decade by decade review the authors examine how Marilyn is portrayed in four distinct modes as herself as a Roman Clef character as a referent and as a documentary subject By looking closely at these individual works the authors reveal the ways in which her persona her history and most of all her image have been appropriated for both fact and fiction From an episode of I Love Lucy to Arthur Miller's play The Fall from adaptations of works by Norman Mailer and Joyce Carol Oates to an ever growing list of documentaries Monroe has been the subject of countless depictions on stage screen radio and television Monroe is adored imitated and idolized and the enormous amount of material written about her either directly or indirectly proves that she will continue to be a source of interest and speculation The first real analysis of all the many complex meanings that Marilyn Monroe has come to assume this book attempts to encapsulate and understand the enormous influence the actress had on the public and the wide range of creative talents who found her such an intriguing subject

The Films of Larry Buchanan Rob Craig, 2007-04-30 Films such as The Naked Witch Zontar The Thing From Venus and Mars Needs Women have gained large cult followings and movies like A Bullet For Pretty Boy Free White and 21 and Goodbye Norma Jean became box office hits Still no other independent filmmaker of the latter 20th century may elicit such a disparity of response from general movie audiences and cult film buffs alike as the late legendary Larry Buchanan This study the first serious examination of Buchanan's body of work addresses consistent themes such as the end of suburbia the rebel outsider the oppressive establishment the curse of fame and creatures of destruction The highly political subtext found in virtually every one of the filmmaker's projects is also explored Chapters are devoted to more than 20 of Buchanan's films information on some of the unfinished unreleased and in at least one case deliberately destroyed projects is offered as well Photographs illustrating nearly all the films are included

The DD Group David Marshall, 2005-03-16 I am told that the first two names I recognized as a child were President Eisenhower and Marilyn Monroe Hopefully for my parents sake this was after I understood who Mama and Daddy were To be truthful I'm not at all certain By the time the newsman interrupted my cartoons on Sunday morning August 5 1962 to tell me that Marilyn Monroe had been found dead of an overdose at the age of 36 she had become such a natural part of my daily life that I could not quite grasp the concept of a world where she was not still out there going about her surely incredible life To even begin to attempt to understand that someone as big as Marilyn Monroe could actually die threw my seven year old brain into serious philosophical doubt I kept a close watch on my parents my teachers even my close friends The way I saw it if Marilyn Monroe could die everyone was up for grabs author David Marshall from the introduction to The DD Group An Online Investigation Into the Death of Marilyn Monroe The Biography Book Daniel S. Buchanan wrote produced and directed some of the best B movies ever and maybe even a few Cs or Ds on shoestring budgets Buchanan grew up in a Dallas orphanage with but one dream to make picture shows He shot his first full length movie Apache Gold aka Grubstake in 1952 it featured Jack Klugman in his first film role In one hit and run he got permission to film Naughty Dallas aka A Stripper Is Born at Jack Ruby s Carousel Club in 1958 by promising Ruby a walk on role then dropped him and his club on the cutting room floor Buchanan discovered Misty Rowe the star of his most successful work Goodbye Norma Jean while gazing out the window of his office These stories and more tell what it s really like to be an independent filmmaker in Hollywood

Hollywood by Hollywood Steven Cohan,2019 The backstudio picture or the movie about movie making is a staple of Hollywood film production harking back to the silent era and extending to the present day What gives backstudios their coherence as a distinctive genre Steven Cohan argues in Hollywood by Hollywood is their fascination with the mystique of Hollywood as a geographic place a self contained industry and a fantasy of fame leisure sexual freedom and modernity Yet by the same token if backstudio pictures have rarely achieved blockbuster box office success what accounts for the film industry s interest in continuing to produce them The backstudio picture has been an enduring genre because aside from offering a director or writer a chance to settle old scores in branding filmmaking with the Hollywood mystique the genre solicits consumers strong investment in the movies Whether inspiring the movie crazy fan girls of the early teens and twenties or the wannabe filmmakers of this century heading to the West Coast after their college graduations backstudios have given emotional weight and cultural heft to filmmaking as the quintessential American success story But more than that a backstudio picture is concerned with shaping perceptions of how the film industry works with masking how its product depends upon an industrial labor force including stardom and with determining how that work s value accrues from the Hollywood brand stamped onto the product Cohan supports his well theorized and well researched claims with nuanced discussions of over fifty backstudios some canonical and well known and others obscure and rarely seen Covering the hundred year timespan of feature length film production Hollywood by Hollywood offers an illuminating perspective for considering anew the history of American movies
