Good Bye Son And Other Stories:

Good-bye, Son and Other Stories Janet Lewis, 2019-08-27 Good bye Son and Other Stories Janet Lewis's only collection of short fiction was first published in 1946 but remains as quietly haunting today as it was then. Set in small communities of the upper Midwest and northern California in the 30s and 40s, these midcentury gems focus on the quiet cycles connecting youth and age, despair and hope, life and death. A mother's encounters with her deceased son, an aging woman sitting with the new knowledge of her troubled older sister's death, and a teenager disillusioned by her own mortality are among the characters, mostly women and girls, whom Lewis delivers. Her understated style and knack for unadorned observation embed us with them as they reckon with the disquieting forces, incomprehensible and destructive to some, enlightening to others, that move us from birth through life to death. In the process, Lewis has crafted a paean to the living.

Great California Stories Arthur Grove Day, 1991-01-01 In 1510 a Spanish romancer described an island called California very close to the side of the Terrestrial Paradise. It was inhabited by Amazons and even the harnesses of the beasts they rode were gold. Thus began the rich literature of California. In a place that boasts so many claims to one's attention, short fiction has flourished. Great California Stories trumpets the immense short story tradition developed by visitors like Mark Twain and Ambrose Bierce but mostly by natives like Jack London and John Steinbeck. The twenty-one stories in this anthology go back to the oral tradition of the American Indians and recall the Hispanic settlement, the gold rush of the 1850s, the agricultural epoch, the growth of cities like San Francisco and Los Angeles, the foibles of early Hollywood, and the rise of ghettos. The ethnic diversity of California is reflected in a cast of story characters including Indians, mission fathers, Asians, Mexican Americans, African Americans, and forty-niners and landseekers from the eastern states. California's varied scenery is drawn on in stories with a strong sense of place, whether Steinbeck's Salinas Valley or Raymond Chandler's Los Angeles. Besides Steinbeck and Chandler, authors represented are Theodora Kroeber, Bret Harte, Gertrude Atherton, Mark Twain, Ambrose Bierce, Edwin Cone, Jack London, Idwal Jones, Walter Van Tilburg Clark, Dashiell Hammett, Eugene Burdick, Janet Lewis, Wallace Stegner, and Danny Santiago. For them, California is a memorable background, sometimes a fabulous character, always a distinctive quality.

original The Cup of Trembling and Other Stories by Mary Hallock Foote South of Tradition Trudier Harris,2002 With characteristic originality and insight Trudier Harris Lopez offers a new and challenging approach to the work of African American writers in these twelve previously unpublished essays Collectively the essays show the vibrancy of African American literary creation across several decades of the twentieth century But Harris Lopez's readings of the various texts deliberately diverge from traditional ways of viewing traditional topics South of Tradition focuses not only on well known writers such as Zora Neale Hurston Ralph Ellison James Baldwin and Richard Wright but also on up and coming writers such as Randall Kenan and less known writers such as Brent Wade and Henry Dumas Harris Lopez addresses themes of sexual and racial identity reconceptualizations of and transcendence of Christianity analyses of African American folk and cultural traditions and issues of racial justice Many of her subjects argue that geography shapes identity whether that geography is the European territory many blacks escaped to from the oppressive South or the South itself where generations of African Americans have had to come to grips with their relationship to the land and its history For Harris Lopez south of tradition refers both to geography and to readings of texts that are not in keeping with expected responses to the works She explains her point of departure for the essays as a slant an angle or a jolt below the line of what would be considered the norm for usual responses to African American literature The scope of Harris Lopez's work is tremendous From her coverage of noncanonical writers to her analysis of humor in the best selling The Color Purple she provides essential material that should inform all future readings of African American literature
