Often theological colleges are the site of tension between the aspirations of the overall institution of the church and the goals of the particular college itself While they are usually the first called upon to solve the numerous problems facing the modern church yet just as likely they are criticized for being too academic too out of touch with contemporary society and too expensive A fair reading of the ten essays in Things That Matter will refute or at the very least question these criticisms The authors of this inspiring collection although far from uncritical clearly show that since 1999 when United Theological College the Uniting Church's premier college in New South Wales became part of Charles Sturt University's School of Theology there have been great benefits for students faculty the church and the broader community      Gordon Moyes Goldie M.

Conceiving The Inconceivable David H. Johnston, 2023-03-29 Inconceivable not pronounced with a lithp in con theeve able as in The Princess Bride nor does it have to do with the immaculate conception but a story of a man who dared to dream an impossible dream and experience a power beyond his own to see that dream fulfilled A poignant story of one man s determination struggles and triumphs in following God s vision and purpose for his life It s one of courage in uprooting his family and moving to the Land Down Under There was a guarantee of financial support and commitment for two years At the end of the second year the vision was beginning to flourish with astonishing growth at which time David and his wife Marianna said We can t leave now The baby will die They agreed to stay just one more year Follow the unfolding journey and discover why it took him not just one more year but almost thirty years to leave David taught generations of students about the richness of the Scriptures the building of Christian character stick to it iv ness and achieving excellence in life by demanding nothing less than the best from his students Christian artists need to try harder be the best they can be never accept mediocrity or being average but always work to advance and aspire to excellence If what we do is to bring delight to the heart of God who is most excellent then what we offer Him must also be excellent Wesley Institute only exists because God gifted David captivated his heart and gave him a vision so big it would take the rest of his life to fulfill
