Literary Journalism and Social Justice Robert Alexander,Willa McDonald,2022-08-04 This book examines the prominent place a commitment to social justice and equity has occupied in the global history of literary journalism With international case studies it explores and theorizes the way literary journalists have addressed inequality and its consequences in their practice In the process this volume focuses on the critical attitude the writers of this genre bring to their stories the immersive reporting they use to gain detailed and intimate knowledge of their subjects and the array of innovative rhetorical strategies through which they represent those encounters The contributors explain how these strategies encourage readers to respond to injustices of class race indigeneity gender mobility and access to knowledge Together they make the case that throughout its history literary journalism has proven uniquely well adapted to fusing facts with feeling in a way which makes it a compelling force for social change

Landscape, Place and Culture Deb Narayan Bandyopadhyay,Paul Brown,2011-01-18 This collection of essays takes an interdisciplinary approach to the ecological social economic and in particular the cultural dimensions of the Australia India relationship The essays provide many levels of focus on environment place and culture Some evoke appreciation of particular places either in India or Australia Many explore how literature has treated landscape while some are comparative studies of cultural historical and political development The essays arise from a particular gathering of scholars The East India chapter of the Indian Association for the Study of Australia IASA held its inaugural international conference in Kolkata on 22 23 January 2009 Much of the work is comparative exploring common Indian and Australian themes of colonial and postcolonial experience implications of migration and diaspora and shared language and literature The work also explores shared environmental crisis manifest in landscapes such as the Mouths of the Ganges and Australia s Murray Darling Basin Such comparisons indicate our shared experience of the crisis of ecological social economic and cultural sustainability As human future is colonized through environmental degradation and determined by human migration and shared culture and values

our relationship to place is revitalized and reassessed We seek simultaneously a reconciliation between humans and a realignment of the human nature relationship This is the most basic meaning of social and ecological sustainability
