Women and Gay Men in the Postwar Period John Portmann, 2016-07-14 Friendships between women and gay men captivated the American media in the opening decade of the 21st century John Portmann places this curious phenomenon in its historical context examining the changing social attitudes towards gay men in the postwar period and how their relationships with women have been portrayed in the media As women and gay men both struggled toward social equality in the late 20th century some women understood that defending gay men who were often accused of effeminacy was in their best interest Joining forces carried both political and personal implications Straight women used their influence with men to prevent bullying and combat homophobia Beyond the bureaucratic fray women found themselves in transformed roles with respect to gay men as their mothers sisters daughters caregivers spouses voters employers and best friends In the midst of social hostility to gay men during the AIDS crisis of the 1980s and 1990s a significant number of gay women volunteered to comfort the afflicted and fight reigning sexual values Famous women such as Elizabeth Taylor and Barbra Streisand threw their support behind a detested minority while countless ordinary women did the same across America Portmann celebrates not only women who made the headlines but also those who did not Looking at the links between the women s liberation and gay rights movements and filled with concrete examples of personal and political relationships between straight women and gay men Women and Gay Men in the Postwar Period is an engaging and accessible study which will be of interest to students and scholars of 20th and 21st century social and gender history Reproductive Losses Christa Craven,2019-05-30 Although there are far more opportunities for LGBTQ people to become parents than there were before the 1990s attention to the reproductive challenges LGBTQ families face has not kept pace Reproductive Losses considers LGBTQ people s experiences with miscarriage stillbirth failed adoptions infertility and sterility Drawing on Craven s training as a feminist anthropologist and her experiences as a queer parent who has experienced loss Reproductive Losses includes detailed stories drawn from over fifty interviews with LGBTQ people including those who carried pregnancies non gestational and adoptive parents and families from a broad range of racial ethnic socio economic and religious backgrounds to consider how they experience loss grief and mourning The book includes productive suggestions and personal narratives of resiliency commemorative strategies and communal support while also acknowledging the adversity many LGBTQ people face as they attempt to form families and the heteronormativity of support resources for those who have experienced reproductive loss This is essential reading for scholars and professionals interested in LGBTQ health and family and for individuals in LGBTQ communities who have experienced loss and those who support them See additional material on the companion website www.lgbtqreproductiveloss.org
