Waymarking Italy's Influence on the American Environmental Imagination While on Pilgrimage to Assisi

Robert Lawrence France, 2020-09-10 Undertaking a peripatetic pilgrimage that is equal parts a daily description of a 200 kilometre walk from the wounded mountain of La Verna to the tortured river in Assisi and an examination of the debt owed to Italy in terms of ecocultural and environmental scholarship this book provides an innovative addition to the nascent field of ecocritical narrative scholarship Through a process that has been referred to as deep travel or mind walking the text fulsomely reviews how time spent in Italy influenced the writings of notable North American environmental historians geographers scientists nature writers landscape architects and restoration theorists about the conception and manipulation of the natural world This literary field study highlights how the phenomenological co traversing of texts and trails can be a valued methodology for undertaking environmental criticism

Drawing Down the Sun Stephanie Woodfield, 2014-05-08 Discover the hidden mysteries of the sun goddesses and reclaim the all but lost archetype of the solar feminine While today the sun is often seen as a masculine divinity for many cultures throughout history it was the ultimate symbol of feminine power and creation Join author Stephanie Woodfield as she explores solar goddess mythology from around the world and shows you how to work with this forgotten side of the Goddess in a modern spiritual system Drawing Down the Sun features fourteen different goddesses and provides practical guidance for embracing their divine spirit through pathworking rituals and spellcraft Learn how to bring abundance into your life with the Baltic goddess Saule Call upon the Egyptian goddess Sekhmet for strength and courage Draw upon the sun's healing energy with the Celtic Brigid With invocations spells and incense recipes as well as instructions for solar magick meditations and more this comprehensive guide is perfect for connecting with the solar feminine Landscapes with Figures Robert L. Root, 2007-04-01 For some a sense of place is about travel about plunging oneself into new settings For others it is about being and knowing home This book is a collection of essays memoirs nature writing and travel narratives that document the impact this sense of place has on writing In locations as familiar as Cape Cod or Mesa Verde and as exotic as Krakow or Kyrgyzstan thirteen accomplished writers of contemporary creative nonfiction share some of their most memorable work disclosing how place alters our perception and influences our insight Taking readers to deserts and forests islands and mountains Landscapes with Figures is an encounter not only with places but also with writers themselves Each contribution is accompanied by an author's commentary that discusses the relationship to place in his or her writing The authors reveal the connections they feel to the places they write about the role that place plays in the choices they make in relating their experiences and the strategies and work habits that produce such writing This compilation is at once a wide ranging anthology of the nonfiction of place for the armchair traveler and a book about writing for those who aspire to understand and practice the craft carrying with it the invitation to reflect on one's own special places

The Paradise of All These Parts John Mitchell, 2009-06-01 How much does the current landscape of Boston Massachusetts resemble the place that Captain John Smith referred to in 1614 as the Paradise of all these parts John Hanson Mitchell explores a variety of habitats as he ranges outward from the core of the peninsula where the Puritans first settled to the ancient rim of the Boston Basin within which the modern city now lies Endlessly readable and full of personality The Paradise of All These Parts offers Boston visitors and residents alike a whole new perspective on one of America's oldest cities
