Pauketat, Kenneth E. Sassaman, 2020-02-27 Unlike extant texts this textbook treats pre Columbian Native Americans as history makers who yet matter in our contemporary world History of the Native People of Canada James Vallière Wright, 1996-01-01 Covering the history of First Peoples in Canada from 10 000 to 1000 BC this volume explores a period which includes the original settlement of the Americas cultural diversification technological advances expanding trade networks and the development of complex belief systems A useful reference work for scholars and laypersons alike Published in English Bones for Barnum Brown Roland T. Bird, 2013-05-31 Roland Thaxter Bird universally and affectionately known to friends and associates as R T achieved a kind of Horatio Alger success in the scientific world of dinosaur studies Forced to drop out of school at a young age by ill health he was a cowboy who traveled from job to job by motorcycle until he met Barnum Brown Curator of Vertebrae Paleontology at the American Museum of Natural History in New York and a leader in the study of dinosaurs Beginning in 1934 Bird spent many years as an employee of the museum and as Brown s right hand man in the field His chart of the Howe Quarry in Wyoming a massive sauropod boneyard is one of the most complex paleontological charts ever produced and a work of art in its own right His crowning achievement was the discovery collection and interpretation of gigantic Cretaceous dinosaur trackways along the Paluxy River near Glen Rose and at Bandera Texas A trackway from Glen Rose is on exhibit at the American Museum and at the Texas Memorial Museum in Austin His interpretation of these trackways demonstrated that a large carnosaur had pursued and attacked a sauropod that sauropods migrated in herds and that contrary to then current belief sauropods were able to support their own weight out of deep water These behavioral interpretations anticipated later dinosaur studies by at least two decades From his first meeting with Barnum Brown to his discoveries at Glen Rose and Bandera this very human account tells the story of Bird s remarkable work on dinosaurs In a vibrantly descriptive style Bird recorded both the intensity and excitement of field work and the careful and painstaking detail of laboratory reconstruction His memoir presents a vivid picture of camp life with Brown and the inner workings of the famous American Museum of Natural History and it offers a new and humanizing account of Brown himself one of the giants of his field Bird s memoir has been supplemented with a clear and concise introduction to the field of dinosaur study and with generous illustrations which delineate the various types of dinosaurs

Contemporary Lithic Analysis in the Southeast Philip J. Carr, Andrew P. Bradbury, Sarah E. Frison, Lawrence C. Todd, 2014-06-28 The Horner Site Prehistoric Life on the Mississippi Floodplain Richard W. Yerkes, 1987 At the confluence of the Illinois the Missouri and the Mississippi Rivers lies the American Bottom a broad floodplain that prehistoric peoples inhabited for millennia Precisely how did they live What were their ties to the natural world around them In this study based upon some six years of intensive archeological and geological research at Labras Lake in St Clair County Illinois Richard W Yerkes interprets a wealth of important new data in a stimulating and original fashion With a fine tuned control of the data Yerkes challenges prevailing theories based on simple classifications of stone tools according to shape or on simple models of diffuse and focal economies He views environment as a dynamic factor in economic and cultural life rather than as merely a backdrop to it Using incident light microscopy he examines wear patterns on stone tools to determine what activities were performed during each period the site was inhabited the Late Archaic the Late Woodland and the Mississippian As he documents environmental change at Labras Lake he analyzes plant and animal remains in context to explore diet and seasonal patterns of subsistence and settlement The result is a more accurate and detailed picture than ever before what prehistoric life on the Mississippi floodplain was like Yerkes shows how to assess the duration and size of occupations and how to determine where and when true permanent settlements arose What others call sedentary encampments he reveals as sequences of small residential occupations for a narrow range of activities during shorter seasonal periods His contribution to the study of the development of sedentism is potentially far reaching and will interest many North American anthropologists and archeologists The Oxford Handbook of the Archaeology and Anthropology of Hunter-gatherers Vicki Cummings, Peter Jordan, Marek Zvelebil, 2014 This book provides a comprehensive review of hunter gatherer studies undertaking detailed regional and thematic case studies that span the archaeology history and anthropology of hunter gatherers concluding with an in depth review of the main opportunities research questions and moral obligations that lie ahead Aurignacian Lithic Economy Brooke S. Blades, 2005-12-08 Drawing data from a classic region for Paleolithic research in Europe this book explores how early modern humans obtained lithic raw materials and analyzes the different utilization patterns for locally available materials compared with those from a greater distance The author locates these patterns within an ecological context and argues that early modern humans selected specific mobility strategies to accommodate changes in subsistence environments North American Projectile Points Wm Jack Hranicky, 2014-06-28 Jack Hranicky is a retired U S Government contractor but he has been involved with archaeology as a full time passion for over 40 years His main interest is the Paleo Indian period however he has worked in all facets of American archaeology He has published over 250 papers and over 35 books in archaeology with his most recent being a two volume 800 page 10 000 artifact book on the material culture of Virginia In Virginia he is considered an expert on prehistoric stone tools and rock art The prehistoric Spout Run Observatory site was investigated by him which dated 10 470 YBP He has served as president of the Archeological Society of Virginia ASV and Eastern States Archeological Federation ESAF and been past chairman of the Alexandria Archaeology Commission in Virginia He is a charter member of the Registry of Professional Archaeologists RPA And since he joined the Archeological Society of Virginia ASV in 1966 he is its senior member And finally his major publication is Points Before Clovis
