growing spatial crisis accompanied by the danger of a general virtuality of all relationships. Others view the digitalization of the world as opening up a grassroots democratic space that allows everyone access to culture. Against this backdrop, this anthology examines the spatial characteristics of the museum between physical place and virtual space. The chapters collected here approach the museum space from various disciplinary perspectives such as philosophy, history, art history, architecture, scenography, museum education, and curatorial studies. At the same time, the contributions by international museum experts are assigned to different literary genres: fundamental considerations alternate with think pieces, case studies, and interviews Renzo Piano Edgar Stach, 2021-03-08 The Pritzker laureate Renzo Piano is recognized worldwide as one of the most renowned architects of our time. Central elements of his aesthetics include the playful use of natural light, the transparency of his buildings, and their fine detailing. This publication documents nine museum buildings by Renzo Piano: Building Workshop Pierre Bonnard Ulf Küster, 2012 This publication is devoted to a retrospective of the work of Pierre Bonnard (1867–1947), one of the most fascinating painters of the modern era. An outstanding colorist, he aimed to express all kinds of sensory impressions through color. He found his favorite subjects in his personal environment, whereby his homes in Normandy and on the Côte d'Azur played a special role, supplying him with the constellations and inspiration he needed for his colorful paintings. The catalogue features a veritable maison imaginaire de Bonnard, presenting the themes to which he remained faithful throughout his life. Containing about sixty paintings from international museums and private collections, with the famous scenes of bathers, views of his garden, depictions of everyday life, and the gay hustle and bustle on the streets of Paris, the catalogue provides a new overview of Bonnard's work and his development as an artist.
