Precious

Cargo David Dewitt, 2014-05-26 Precious Cargo tells the fascinating story of how western hemisphere foods conquered the globe and saved it from not only mass starvation but culinary as well. Focusing heavily on American foods specifically the lowly crops that became commodities plus one gobbling protein source the turkey Dewitt describes how these foreign and often suspect temptations were transported around the world transforming cuisines and the very fabric of life on the planet. Organized thematically by foodstuff Precious Cargo delves into the botany, zoology and anthropology connected to new world foods often uncovering those surprising individuals who were responsible for their spread and influence including same traders, brutish conquerors, a Scottish millionaire obsessed with a single fruit and a British lord and colonial governor with a passion for peppers to name a few. Precious Cargo is a must read for foodies and historians alike. The Metamorphosis of Greek Cuisine Nafsika Papacharalampous, 2023-11-10 This book is an ethnography of the metamorphosis of rural foods and traditional dishes and of the making of cuisine and identity in contemporary Athens. In the wake of the financial crisis in Athens in the mid 2010s forgotten rural foods of the past are transformed into luxurious artisanal foods while traditional dishes appear reinvented in fine dining restaurants after decades of darkness. How and why is this all happening in a city of poverty, hardship and economic crisis? Through sensory descriptions and thick ethnographic material it follows the Athenian affluent middle class in upscale delis and goes inside fine dining restaurant kitchens discussing the complex combination of cuisine, tradition, memory and identity, revealing the cultural logic and social aspects of cuisine. It demonstrates how cuisine emerges from very different, often contradictory social spaces not only as an intellectual and aesthetic endeavour of chefs or as a revival of foods and foodways that link the country and the city but also as interlinked with embodied memories and embedded in social relations and commensality. This book will be of great interest to scholars and students in Anthropology and Food Studies. Flavors of the Motherland Steve Monas, From the ancient grain fields of Ethiopia to the bustling street food markets of Lagos from traditional clay pot cooking to modern fusion cuisine Flavors of the Motherland takes readers on an extraordinary culinary journey through the rich and diverse world of African cuisine. Drawing from decades of research across the continent this groundbreaking work reveals how Africa's culinary traditions have profoundly shaped global food culture. In this comprehensive exploration of how African food has influenced global culinary trends Dr Alexandra Thornton masterfully weaves together history, culture and gastronomy to illuminate the remarkable impact of African ingredients, techniques and flavors on the world's food landscape. Through meticulous research and vivid storytelling she uncovers how traditional African cooking methods and ingredients have not only survived centuries of change but have evolved to influence contemporary cuisine worldwide. Discover how the humble grain of paradise from West Africa transformed medieval European cooking how African superfoods like moringa and baobab are revolutionizing modern nutrition and how ancient fermentation techniques from the continent are inspiring today's most innovative chefs. From the surprising origins of soul food in America to the explosion of African fusion cuisine in global capitals this book illuminates the remarkable journey of
