Re-hybridizing Transnational Domesticity and Femininity Stacey Weber-Fève, 2010-01-05 Re hybridizing Transnational Domesticity and Femininity examines the problems of voicing the personal when considering the role and place of women in the home Analyzing a collection of first person cinematic and literary narratives by Assia Djebar Annie Ernaux Simone de Beauvoir Raja Amari Coline Serreau Leïla Sebbar and Yamina Benguigui Weber Fève explores the transnational processes of identity formation gender performance and construction of culture and society Through a closer look at contemporary representations of French Algerian and Tunisian women on the page and on the screen this study discusses the ways in which homemaking nation and gender are intricately bound to one another and situated in personal history Working within as well as beyond so called national systems of visual and written representation these women artists challenge inherited and monolithic performances definitions and discourses of femininity In doing so they create re hybridized subjects that begin to recognize and embrace the differences within themselves The authors and filmmakers in this study through their female protagonists the protagonists homes and homemaking acts and the investigative lens of the interrogation of the personal are interested in exploring how the process of uncovering or articulating new and other identities and subjectivities ushers in new and re hybridized ways of seeing knowing and being female

Liminality and the Short Story Jochen Achilles, Ina Bergmann, 2014-12-05 This book is a study of the short story one of the widest taught genres in English literature from an innovative methodological perspective Both liminality and the short story are well researched phenomena but the combination of both is not frequent This book discusses the relevance of the concept of liminality for the short story genre and for short story cycles emphasizing theoretical perspectives methodological relevance and applicability Liminality as a concept of demarcation and mediation between different processual stages spatial complexes and inner states is of obvious importance in an age of global mobility digital networking and interethnic transnationality Over the last decade many symposia exhibitions art and publications have been produced which thematize liminality covering a wide range of disciplines including literary geographical psychological and ethnicity studies Liminal structuring is an essential aspect of the aesthetic composition of short stories and the cultural messages they convey On account of its very brevity and episodic structure the generic liminality of the short story privileges the depiction of transitional situations and fleeting moments of crisis or decision It also addresses the moral transgressions heterotopic orders and forms of ambivalent self reflection negotiated within the short story's confines This innovative collection focuses on both the liminality of the short story and on liminality in the short story Pleasant Journeys and Good Eats Along the Way John Baeder, 2007 Pleasant Journeys and Good Eats along the Way surveys John Baeder's thirty five year obsession with roadside architecture especially America's diners and complements Baeder's Morris Museum of Art exhibit of the same name Originally attracted to classic postcard images of mom and pop businesses and old black and white photos of downtowns Baeder b 1938 has spent most of his art career depicting these beloved but unpretentious restaurants Often classified as a photorealist Baeder has always resisted being labeled He sees his paintings as a plea for preservation and a way to reveal the psychology behind diners Before the era of corporate fast food Americans on the road looked to diners to provide meals like mother makes a descriptive phrase found in Baeder's very first diner painting Home cooking was especially appealing to weary tourists who took to the American highway in increasing numbers between the 1920s and the 1960s By the late 1970s Baeder's paintings had become wildly popular Baeder's paintings resonate in melodies of color and line and exhibit their personalities through hand lettered placards and neon signs They invite the viewer to absorb the everyday simplicity of roadside architecture in new ways and to discover the values of hearth and home in unexpected places John Baeder of Nashville is a well known realist painter His work is in the permanent collections of the Whitney Museum of American Art High Museum of Art and many others Jay Williams is curator at the Morris Museum of Art in Augusta Georgia His previous publications include Illuminated Literature The Art of Jerry and Brian Pinkney and What Dogs Dream Paintings and Works on Paper by William Dunlap Kevin Grogan is the director of the Morris Museum of Art Donald Kuspit is professor of art history and philosophy at the State University of New York at Stony Brook

Jung's Technique of Active Imagination and Desoille's Directed Waking Dream Method Laner Cassar, 2020-06-07 Jung's Technique of Active Imagination and Desoille's Directed Waking Dream Method brings together Carl Jung's active imagination and Robert Desoille's re ve veill dirig directed waking dream method RED It studies the historical development of these approaches in Central Europe in the first half of the 20th century and explores their theoretical similarities and differences proposing an integrated framework of clinical practice The book aims to study the wider European context of the 1900s which influenced the development of both Jung's and Desoille's methods This work compares the spatial metaphors of interiority used by both Jung and Desoille to describe the traditional concept of inner psychic space in the waking dreams of Jung's active imagination and Desoille's RED It also attempts a broader theoretical comparison between the procedural aspects of both RED and active imagination by identifying commonalities and divergences between the two approaches This book is a unique contribution to analytical psychology and will be of great interest for academics researchers and post graduate students interested in the use of imagination and mental imagery in analysis psychotherapy and counselling The book's historical focus will be of particular relevance to Jungian and Desoillan scholars since it is the first of its kind to trace the connections between the two schools and it gives a detailed account of Desoille's early life and his first written works This book was a Grady Award nominee for 2021

Using Art Therapy with Diverse Populations Sangeeta Prasad, Paula Howie, Jennie Kristel, 2013-08-28 With contributions from experienced art therapists who have worked in diverse environments around the world this book provides readers with a better understanding of how to adapt art therapy training and approaches to suit the settings and meet the needs of distinct populations

Symbols in Arts, Religion and Culture Farrin Chwalkowski, 2016-12-14 We are a product of nature Every single cell of our body is made of and depends on nature Our inner soul is heavily influenced by nature We feel sad if the sun is not shining for a few days and feel pleasure when drawn to the wonder of flowers and uplifted by the song of birds We came from nature we are part of nature In short we are nature Nature has been an intimate part of the human experience from the earliest times Different religions and cultures from all corners of the world have honoured and worshipped nature in art ritual and literature in their own unique ways This book shows how we learn about our own human nature our own sense of identity and how we fit into the larger scheme of life and spirit when we come to better understand how our human ancestors through art symbol and myth expressed their relationship with the natural world

Carver Across the Curriculum Katherine Ashley, Paul Benedict Grant, 2020-05-15 Raymond Carver's canonical status is secure his short stories appear regularly in all of the major literary anthologies and his fiction and poetry are taught at universities around the world Despite this there are few instructional aids to teaching Carver's work at university level and none that take into account the interdisciplinary nature of many modern university courses Carver Across the Curriculum addresses these needs Drawing on the experiences and expertise of a group of international scholars it presents a variety of innovative interdisciplinary approaches to teaching Carver's work at the undergraduate and postgraduate levels The chapters cover a wide range of disciplines including music creative writing translation humor studies food studies the medical humanities and the visual and performing arts As such the collection serves as a guide and a source of inspiration to instructors and offers readers new insights into Carver's fiction and poetry

Gathering at the Table Elizabeth Hoffman Reed, 1999 This wonderful book is a simple praise of dining Brief essays and reflections about food and dining are interspersed with quotations from a variety of sources

From Ancient Myth to Modern Healing Pamela Donleavy, Ann Shearer, 2008-06-30 This book is about the energy personified by the classical Greek goddess Themis who brought her divine and natural right order to gods and humans and who still presides over law courts as the figure of Justice In many Western countries today the growing dis ease in minds and bodies of individuals is often echoed in whole communities Rather than coming together they seem to split apart in anger and distress But themis energy is equally powerful and can work to bring together and to heal From the battle of the Titans and Olympians to the oracle at Delphi and the banquet of the gods the stories of the goddess weave through these chapters to illuminate how themis energy is at work today The authors explore psychological healing in individuals and relate this to new research in neurocardiology on the subtle interactions of body and mind They show how the international movement for restorative justice is drawing on the same healing tools to benefit victims and offenders alike And they evoke the extraordinary story of the South African Truth and Reconciliation Commission which shows the world how themis energy can help transform a ravaged society This book deepens understanding of the psychological urge towards healing and wholeness which is as much a part of human beings as the urge to destroy It offers exciting new insights into Jung s unique approach to the relationship between individual and collective psychology It will appeal to psychologists who work with individuals and groups to lawyers and others concerned with the failure of current criminal justice systems and to people involved in religious political and other groups that seek to build communities which can encompass and even celebrate diversity rather than rejecting it in fear

Ariadne's Clue Anthony Stevens,2001-04-22 Symbolism is the most powerful and ancient means of communication available to humankind For centuries people have expressed their preoccupations and concerns through symbolism in the form of myths stories religions and dreams The meaning of symbols has long been debated among philosophers antiquarians theologians and more recently anthropologists and psychologists In Ariadne s Clue distinguished analyst and psychiatrist Anthony Stevens explores the nature of symbols and explains how and why we create the symbols we do The book is divided into two parts an interpretive section that concerns symbols in general and a dictionary that lists hundreds of symbols and explains their origins their resemblances to other symbols and the belief systems behind them In the first section Stevens takes the ideas of C G Jung a stage further asserting not only that we possess an innate symbol forming propensity that exists as a creative and integral part of our psychic make up but also that the human mind evolved this capacity as a result of selection pressures encountered by our species in the course of its evolutionary history Stevens argues that symbol formation has an adaptive function it promotes our grasp on reality and in dreams often corrects deficient modes of psychological functioning In the second section Stevens examines symbols under four headings The Physical Environment Culture and Psyche People Animals and Plants and The Body Many of the symbols are illustrated in the book s rich variety of woodcuts From the ancient symbol of the serpent to the archetypal masculine and feminine from the earth to the stars from the primordial landscape of the savannah to the mysterious depths of the sea Stevens traces a host of common symbols back through time to reveal their psychodynamic functioning and looks at their deep rooted effects on the lives of modern men women and children

The Hungry Cowboy Karla A. Erickson,2010-07-07 At a Tex Mex restaurant in a Minneapolis suburb customers send Christmas and Hanukkah cards to the restaurant bring in home baked treats for the staff and attend the annual employee party One customer even posts in the entryway a sign commemorating the life of his dog Diners and servers alike use the Hungry Cowboy as a place to gather celebrate relax and even mourn Moments such as these fascinate Karla A Erickson who worked for the restaurant and they make up her new book The Hungry Cowboy Weaving together narratives from servers customers and managers Erickson explores a type of service work that is deeply embedded in personal relationships and community Feelings play and emotions are inseparable from the market transactions within the restaurant Based on extensive interviews and two years of working as a waitress Erickson provides insights into the ways that people make contact in our society and how they build on the fleeting connections in the service exchange to form more intimate relationships Written for readers scholars and students interested in American culture consumerism and community The Hungry Cowboy offers a case study in how consumers and producers in the marketplace perform and how dignity meaning and community can all be built at work

When the Soul Remembers Itself Thomas Singer, Jules Cashford, Craig San Roque, 2019-04-24 Do the ancient Greek poets playwrights philosophers and mythologies have anything to say to modern human beings Is their time finished or do their insights have as much relevance to the human condition as they did 2 500 years ago When the Soul Remembers Itself continues the exploration of the connections between ancient and modern psyche with a resounding affirmation of its ongoing relevance Uniquely combining poetry drama and storytelling in a pioneering collection an international selection of contributors each explore a character myth or theme from ancient Greece in the context of its relevance to the modern psyche Each author enters an imaginative dialogue that pieces and bridges together fragments of the past with the present exploring themes such as initiation war love paranoia tragedy and the soul's journey through the vicissitudes of life on earth through characters such as Ajax Persephone Orpheus Electra the Apostle Paul Perpetua and Jocasta Understanding myth is crucial in Jungian analysis and by connecting the modern person with the age old questions of life and death the contributors bring truly archetypal narratives to life and speak to the human condition throughout the ages When the Soul Remembers Itself will be of great interest to academics and students of Jungian and post Jungian studies classics ancient religion archetypal studies and mythology As the contributors conclusions apply to both contemporary theory and clinical practice it will also appeal to Jungian analysts and psychotherapists in practice and training

Innocence, Heterosexuality, and the Queerness of Children's Literature Tison Pugh, 2010-12-14 Innocence Heterosexuality and the Queerness of Children's Literature examines distinguished classics of children's literature both old and new including L Frank Baum's Oz books Laura Ingalls Wilder's Little House series J K Rowling's Harry Potter novels Lemony Snicket's A Series of Unfortunate Events and Stephenie Meyer's Twilight series to explore the queer tensions between innocence and heterosexuality within their pages Pugh argues that children cannot retain their innocence of sexuality while learning about normative heterosexuality yet this inherent paradox runs throughout many classic narratives of literature for young readers Children's literature typically endorses heterosexuality through its invisible presence as the de facto sexual identity of countless protagonists and their families yet heterosexuality's ubiquity is counterbalanced by its occlusion when authors shield their readers from forthright considerations of one of humanity's most basic and primal instincts The book demonstrates that tensions between innocence and sexuality render much of children's literature queer especially when these texts disavow sexuality through celebrations of innocence In this original study Pugh develops interpretations of sexuality that few critics have yet ventured paving the way for future scholarly engagement with larger questions about the ideological role of children's literature and representations of children's sexuality Tison Pugh is Associate Professor in the Department of English at the University of Central Florida He is the author of Queering Medieval Genres and Sexuality and Its Queer Discontents in Middle English Literature and has published on children's literature in such journals as Children's Literature The Lion and the Unicorn and Marvels and Tales The Cinema of Terry Gilliam Jeff Birkenstein, Anna Froula, Karen Randell, 2013-04-09 Terry Gilliam has been making movies for more than forty years and this volume analyses a selection of his thrilling directorial work from his early films with Monty Python to The Imaginarium of Doctor Parnassus 2009 This collection argues that when Gilliam makes a movie he goes to war against Hollywood caution and convention The Illness that We are John P. Dourley, 1984 Dr Dourley Catholic priest and professor of religion explores Jung's assessment of Christianity questioning its essentially masculine orientation and its emphasis on perfection rather than wholeness as the goal Paranormal Encounters in Iceland 1150-1400 Ármann Jakobsson, Mariusz Mayburd, 2020-03-23 This anthology of international scholarship offers new critical approaches to the study of the many manifestations of the paranormal in the Middle Ages The guiding principle of the collection is to depart from symbolic or reductionist readings of the subject matter in favor of focusing on the paranormal as human experience and essentially on how these experiences are defined by the sources The authors work with a variety of medieval Icelandic textual sources including family sagas legendary sagas romances poetry hagiography and miracles exploring the diversity of paranormal activity in the medieval North This volume questions all previous definitions of the subject matter most decisively the idea of saga realism and opens up new avenues in saga research Not the Big Sleep Daryl Sharp, 2005 In this volume the author and the redoubtable Professor Adam Brillig collaborate to create a sparkling love story salted with balls and ball games contained lust and the unpredictable world of the psyche grounded at all times in the classical precepts of Jungian psychology individuation typology complexes projection active imagination conflict enantiodromia the tension of opposites and the transcendent function
