For All Seasons Lifestories With A Guide To Their Writing

Maureen O'Connor

For All Seasons Lifestories With A Guide To Their Writing:

Convivial Worlds Tina Steiner, 2021-07-29 This book discovers everyday forms of conviviality in fiction and life writing from Eastern and Southern Africa. It focuses on ordinary moments of recognition of hospitality of humour and kindness in everyday life to illuminate the significance of repertoires of repair in a world broken by relations of power. Through close readings of specific capacities of living with difference, the book excavates ideas of world making, personhood, and the possibilities of alternative social imaginaries from African perspectives. It highlights evanescent and more durable attempts at building solidarity across local and translocal settings by focussing on modes of address that invite reciprocity in contexts of injustice which include Apartheid, colonialism, racism, patriarchy, and xenophobia. Putting current research on conviviality in conversation with the literary texts, the book demonstrates how conviviality emerges as an enabling ethical practice as critique and survival strategy and as embodied lived experience. The volume will be of great interest to scholars and researchers of Literary and Cultural Studies, especially Postcolonial Literature, African Studies, and Indian Ocean Studies.

Life Stories Maureen O'Connor, 2011-08-23 Memoirs, autobiographies, and diaries represent the most personal and most intimate of genres, as well as one of the most abundant and popular. Gain new understanding and better serve your readers with this detailed genre guide to nearly 700 titles that also includes notes on more than 2,800 read-alike and other related titles. The popularity of this body of literature has grown in recent years, and it has also diversified in terms of the types of stories being told and persons telling them. In the past, readers' advisors have depended on access by names or Dewey classifications and subjects to help readers find autobiographies they will enjoy. This guide offers an alternative organizing the literature according to popular genres, subgenres, and themes that reflect common reading interests. Describing titles that range from travel and adventure classics and celebrity autobiographies to foodie memoirs and environmental reads, Life Stories: A Guide to Reading Interests in Memoirs, Autobiographies, and Diaries presents a unique overview of the genre that specifically addresses the needs of readers' advisors and others who work with readers in finding books.

A Cry for Help John Duffield, 2009-07 A Cry For Help provides the solution to a very old puzzle Namely why is it that millions of people desperate for happiness can't find it in thousands of self help books Every one of these books has tools in it that can help you and I make our dreams come true So what on earth can be wrong The answer is unbelievably simple but very difficult to believe It's this By far most of us have no idea what our own dreams are To make our dreams come true after all we must know what those dreams are first A Cry For Help reveals that a single sinister fear of being judged is keeping our dreams from us and how to take it away Once this fear is removed our dreams flow back into our lives like water and every single self help book can help make them real John Duffield Outers' Book-recreation, 1921
