Food And Loathing:

Food and Loathing Betsy Lerner, 2003-02-04 Never before Food and Loathing has the intimate relationship between mood swings and food swings been so honestly chronicled As a bright but chubby girl Betsy Lerner believed that thinness was the key to success with friends and boys By junior high she had precisely divided the world of food into two camps the dietetic and the forbidden Becoming a member of the then fledgling Overeaters Anonymous she formed a cult like devotion to the program and lost fifty pounds in a matter of months only to gain it all back and more I am powerless over Hostess cakes she writes and my life has become unmanageable Her twenties are marked by yo yo dieting depressive episodes and a sadistic shrink who dubs her the boy who cried wolf Then just as Lerner begins to realize her dream of becoming a writer entering Columbia s prestigious MFA program she spirals into a suicidal depression and lands at New York State Psychiatric Institute There a young doctor helps her take her first steps toward selfhood and unraveling the dual legacy of compulsion and depression A powerfully rendered story for anyone who has every wielded a fork in despair or calculated her worth on the morning scale

Food and Loathing Betsy Lerner, 2003 In FOOD AND LOATHING a bright chubby girl believes that thinness is next to godliness and so attends one of the first meetings of Overeaters Anonymous in 1975 Her twenties are marked by yo yo dieting depressive episodes and a sadistic shrink Then just as her dream of being a writer is within reach entering Columbia s prestigious MFA program she spirals into a suicidal depression and lands for a six month stay at New York State Psychiatric Institute There a young resident helps her take her first steps towards selfhood unravelling the self loathing of an eating disorder coupled with a paralysing mood disorder He also helps her confront a tragic family secret whose silence had enveloped an otherwise average Jewish middle class family FOOD AND LOATHING is a book about how people use food to narcotise to love and to escape It s about therapy the good the bad and the down right destructive and about every woman who spends too much of her life thinking about her weight and how she can forgive herself for living and even learn to love

Speaking Two Languages Allen J. Frantzen, 1991-01-01 This book is designed for the medievalist interested in contemporary criticism but cautious about its limits The volume s essays are not designed to offer rereadings of familiar texts but to address the problems of articulating tradition and contemporary theory Each contributor interprets critical methods as consciously chosen and spoken languages and explores the consequences of combining a traditional and a contemporary method and hence speaking two languages Each essay includes a critical bibliographical note pointing to further reading in the languages it employs Embodied Shame J. Brooks Bouson, 2010-07-02 How does physical emotional and sexual abuse shape women s perceptions of their bodies and identities How are women s psyches affected by the sexual racial and cultural denigration that occurs when women s bodies are represented as defective spoiled damaged or dirtied Embodied Shame skillfully explores these questions in the context of recent writings by North American women contributing to work in shame theory and to feminist analyses of the intersections of theories of the body affect emotions narrative and trauma By examining popular contemporary fictional and nonfictional texts including Alice Munro's Lives of Girls and Women Dorothy Allison's Bastard Out of Carolina Toni Morrison's The Bluest Eye Edwidge Danticat's Breath Eyes Memory and Lucy Grealy's Autobiography of a Face J Brooks Bouson illuminates how deeply entrenched bodily shame continues to operate in contemporary culture even as we celebrate the supposed freeing of the female body from the social and cultural constraints that have long bound it

Food and Culture in Contemporary American Fiction Lorna Piatti-Farnell, 2011-07-13 Establishing an interdisciplinary connection between Food Studies and American literary scholarship Piatti Farnell investigates the significances of food and eating in American fiction from 1980 to the present day She argues that culturally coded representations of the culinary illuminate contemporary American anxieties about class gender race tradition immigration nationhood and history As she offers a critical analysis of major works of contemporary fiction Piatti Farnell unveils contrasting modes of culinary nostalgia disillusionment and progress that pervasively address the cultural disintegration of local and familiar culinary values in favor of globalized economies of consumption In identifying different incarnations of the American culinary Piatti Farnell covers the depiction of food in specific categories of American fiction and explores how the cultural separation that molds food preferences inevitably challenges the existence of a homogenous American identity The study treads on new grounds since it not only provides the first comprehensive study of food and consumption in contemporary American fiction but also aims to expose interrelated politics of consumption in a variety of authors from different ethnic cultural racial and social backgrounds within the United States

Food, the Body and the Self Deborah Lupton, 1996-04-25 In this wide ranging and thought provoking analysis of the sociocultural and personal meanings of food and eating Deborah Lupton explores the relationship between food and embodiment the emotions and subjectivity She includes discussion of the intertwining of food meaning and culture in the context of childhood and the family as well as the gendered social construction of foodstuffs food tastes dislikes and preferences the dining out experience spirituality and the civilized body She draws on diverse sources including representations of food and eating in film literature advertising gourmet magazines news reports and public health literature and her own empirical research into people's preferences memories experiences

Eating Identities Wenying Xu,2018-03-31 The French epicure and gastronome Brillat Savarin declared Tell me what you eat and I will tell you who you are Wenying Xu infuses this notion with cultural political energy by extending it to an ethnic group known for its cuisines Asian Americans She begins with the general argument that eating is a means of becoming not simply in the sense of nourishment but more importantly of what we choose to eat what we can afford to eat what we secretly crave but are ashamed to eat in front of others and how we eat Food as the most significant medium of traffic between the inside and outside of our bodies organizes signifies and legitimates our sense of self and distinguishes us from others who practice different foodways Narrowing her scope Xu reveals how cooking eating and food fashion Asian American identities in terms of race ethnicity gender class diaspora and sexuality She provides lucid and informed interpretations of seven Asian American writers John Okada Joy Kogawa Frank Chin Li Young Lee David Wong Louie Mei Ng and Monique Truong and places these identity issues in the fascinating spaces of food hunger consumption appetite desire and orality Asian American literature abounds in culinary metaphors and references but few scholars have made sense of them in a meaningful way Most literary critics perceive alimentary references as narrative strategies or part of the background Xu takes food as the central site of cultural and political struggles waged in the seemingly private domain of desire in the lives of Asian Americans Eating Identities is the first book to link food to a wide range of Asian American concerns such as race and sexuality Unlike most sociological studies which center on empirical analyses of the relationship between food and society it focuses on how food practices influence psychological and ontological formations and thus contributes significantly to the growing field of food studies For students of literature this tantalizing work offers an illuminating lesson on how to read the multivalent meanings of food and eating in literary texts

Affect Theory, Genre, and the Example of Tragedy Duncan A. Lucas,2018-09-08 Affect Theory Genre and the Example of Tragedy employs Silvan Tomkins Affect Script theory of human psychology to explore the largely unacknowledged emotions of disgust and shame in tragedy The book begins with an overview of Tomkins relationship to both traditional psychoanalysis and theories of human motivation and emotion before considering tragedy via case studies of Oedipus Hamlet and Death of a Salesman Aligning Affect Script theory with literary genre studies this text explores what motivates fictional characters within the closed conditions of their imagined worlds and how we as an audience relate to and understand fictional characters as motivated humans The Chronic Diseases; Their Specific Nature and Homoeopathic Treatment Samuel Hahnemann, 1846 Voracious Children Carolyn Daniel, 2006 First Published in 2006 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company The Muse of Abandonment Lee Upton, 1998 The Muse of Abandonment examines personal and cultural forms of abandonment in the poetry of Charles Wright Russell Edson Jean Valentine James Tate and Louise Gluck These poets register the tremors of the post modern exhaustion of universals and a conflicted desire for authenticating presences The first book to study these poets as members of a generation The Muse of Abandonment analyses the poets recasting of confessional and surrealistic legacies and discusses their reflections on coercion of thought and behavior and an atmosphere in contemporary culture that would trivialize private sensibility
