Budgie John Burridge,2011-04-04 John Budgie Burridge is a true journeyman pro and a hero to football fans up and down the country In a unique career spanning 30 years Budgie played 771 league games for 29 teams including Crystal Palace nad QPR under Terry Venables at both clubs Southampton alongside a young Alan Shearer Manchester City Aston Villa where he would play against Barcelona in the European Super Cup Wolves and in Scotland with Hibernian where he was a hero in their League Cup win of 1991 That happy sojourn to Edinburgh would end in acrimony however as he ended up in a dressing room fight with the manager Highly respected as a goalkeeper but denounced by many as an oddball he admitted that he often slept wearing only his goalkeeper's gloves Budgie was famous for his madcap antics and his pre match stretching routines He would also make a point of going on a lap of honour to salute his club's fans at the end of every game win lose or draw a gesture that endeared him to legions of supporters as a man of the people The Burridge story was far from over when he finally retired in 1997 at the age of 47 He lapsed into depression and spent months at the Priory Clinic as he struggled badly to cope with the void in his life He became player manager at non league Blyth Spartans only to later be convicted for dealing in counterfeit leisurewear The prosecution case was significantly strengthened by the fact that there was video evidence of half the team wearing Burridge's sportswear before an FA Cup match Together with his wife of more than 30 years Budgie moved to Oman in the Middle East to take up a coaching post with the national team He sustained serious injuries when he was knocked down by a car in 1999 but is back in rude health He is still employed with the Oman FA lives there and acts as a TV pundit and newspaper columnist in Singapore Burridge is still fascinating and funny to this day and in this tell all autobiography he reveals the truth behind his astonishing football career Gerrard Steven Gerrard, 2012-09-30 Steven Gerrard is a hero to millions not only as the inspirational captain of Liverpool FC but as a key member of the England team Here for the first time he tells the story of his lifelong obsession with football in an honest and revealing book which captures the extraordinary camaraderie the soul destroying tensions and the high octane thrills of the modern game as never before Born in the Liverpool suburb of Huyton in 1980 Steven first joined Liverpool as a YTS trainee and played his first game for the first team aged just 18 His career has gone from strength to strength ever since and he is now the team's captain and its lynchpin Liverpool's incredible comeback in the Champions League final in Istanbul in May 2005 recovering from a 3 goal deficit against AC Milan to win on penalties is testament to the amazing power Gerrard has over his team His presence on the pitch is a force to be reckoned with and places him amongst the very first rank of players in the world A relatively private figure Steven has rarely spoken out in public Now his legions of fans will be allowed an intimate glimpse of what makes their hero tick He speaks for the first time about the torturous will he won't he Chelsea rumours and his undying passion for Liverpool We experience first hand the highs of winning in Istanbul and elsewhere as well as the occasional lows of being parted from his much loved family and friends And of course the book contains a full blow by blow account of England's world cup campaign in Germany 2006 Steven Gerrard's book is the definitive football autobiography Like its subject it's honest passionate and exhilarating If Steven Gerrard isn't your hero yet by the time you've read this he will be
