

THE FOOTHILLS OF PARNASSUS

There is humor in this collection of poems—what would a John Kendrick Bangs book be without that?—but there is also a note of seriousness. Mr. Bangs has put into this volume many a verse with a big thought in it as well as the kind that leaves the reader chuckling. If you have sometimes felt that poetry is so far removed from life that its appeal is little to you, The Foothills of Parnassus will prove a delightful discovery. Here is an author whose themes are as human as they are interesting.
