A Thematic Exploration of "For Colored Girls who Have Considered Suicide/ when the Rainbow is Enuf," by Ntozake Shange Jocelyn M. Richard, 2001      For Colored Girls who Have Considered Suicide when the Rainbow is Enuf ,2004      Sam Shepard and the American Theatre Les A. Wade, 1997-08-26

No dramatist in the recent history of the American theatre has gained more celebrity than Sam Shepard Exploring a career that includes fifty stage and screen plays four books of nondramatic writings and over a dozen appearances in feature films this work traces Shepard s rise from an Off Off Broadway renegade to a Hollywood leading man and explores his evolution from counterculture to cultural icon The study situates Shepard s career within the shifting production modes and economic contexts of the American entertainment industry and views his popularity against the identity politics of postwar American culture Through an analysis of his life plays and screen roles this book investigates how Shepard s dramatic voice and film persona address issues of American consensus and community The study argues that Shepard s popularity in an era of cultural diversification and dissent owes much to nationalism and nostalgia and begs important questions concerning American myths media representations and the construction of an American audience

Reworking English in Rhetoric and Composition Bruce Horner, Karen Kopelson, 2014-07-25 In Reworking English in Rhetoric and Composition editors Bruce Horner and Karen Kopelson gather leading scholars and new voices in the field of rhetoric and composition to offer a dynamic new perspective on English as it is used today This provocative volume explores the myriad ways in which English is constantly redefined revised and redirected through specific located acts of writing rhetoric teaching and learning Contributors provide insightful contributions to the study of English from both national and international perspectives revealing the language as a fluid and constantly changing manner of expression that challenges established notions In part one Reworking Language writers call into question the idea of language as a static stable entity In part two Locations and Migrations Global Local Interrogations contributors explore the impact of writing and teaching English in both in the United States and abroad from Arkansas and Oklahoma to China Jamaica and Lebanon Part three Pedagogical Institutional Interventions addresses English in institutional settings and the implications for future pedagogical work Each essay in this revolutionary volume substantiates two key premises for the rethinking of English first that languages are susceptible to constant change through the very acts of writing teaching and learning and second that this reworking occurs as it moves between various temporal and spatial locations Throughout the volume the variety and flexibility of English across the globe are both advocated and revealed rejecting dominant Anglophone perspectives and instead placing language in cross cultural contexts Brimming with informative and thought provoking insights Reworking English in Rhetoric and Composition breathes new life into the field and provides direction for scholars and teachers looking to the future of English      Otros escenarios Bárbara Ozieblo, 2005

How Capitalism Underdeveloped Black America Manning Marable,2015-11-02 How Capitalism Underdeveloped Black America is one of those paradigm shifting life changing texts that has not lost its currency or relevance even after three decades Its provocative treatise on the ravages of late capitalism state violence incarceration and patriarchy on the life chances and struggles of black working class men and women shaped an entire generation directing our energies to the terrain of the prison industrial complex anti racist work labor organizing alternatives to racial capitalism and challenging patriarchy personally and politically Robin D G Kelley In this new edition of his classic text Marable can challenge a new generation to find solutions to the problems that constrain the present but not our potential to seek and define a better future Henry Louis Gates Jr A prescient analysis Michael Eric Dyson How Capitalism

Underdeveloped Black America is a classic study of the intersection of racism and class in the United States. It has become a standard text for courses in American politics and history and has been central to the education of thousands of political activists since the 1980s. This edition is presented with a new foreword by Leith Mullings. New York Magazine, 1995-07-17

New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country. With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion, the magazine's consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea. The Common Wind Julius S. Scott, 2018-11-27

The Common Wind is a gripping and colorful account of the intercontinental networks that tied together the free and enslaved masses of the New World. Having delved deep into the gray obscurity of official eighteenth century records in Spanish, English, and French, Julius S. Scott has written a powerful history from below. Scott follows the spread of rumors of emancipation and the people behind them, bringing to life the protagonists in the slave revolution. By tracking the colliding worlds of buccaneers, military deserters, and maroon communards from Venezuela to Virginia, Scott records the transmission of contagious mutinies and insurrections in unparalleled detail, providing readers with an intellectual history of the enslaved. Though The Common Wind is credited with having opened up the Black Atlantic with a rigor and a commitment to the power of written words, the manuscript remained unpublished for thirty-two years. Now, after receiving wide acclaim from leading historians of slavery and the New World, it has been published by Verso for the first time with a foreword by the academic and author Marcus Rediker. La igualdad como compromiso. Estudios de género en homenaje a la profesora Ana Díaz Medina Ana Díaz Medina, María Esther Martínez Quinteiro, 2007-01-01 Left Politics and the Literary Profession Lennard J. Davis, M. Bella Mirabella, 1990

Leftist feminist, lesbian, African American, Chicano, Palestinian, and other literary criticism present viewpoints that provide an illuminating link between the radical politics of the 1960s and the intellectual activities of radicals who study literature now or will study it in the future. Este trabajo interroga el concepto de identidad a partir del análisis de seis obras de teatro afroestadounidense: Trouble in Mind de Alice Childress, Funnyhouse of a Negro de Adrienne Kennedy, The America Play de Suzan-Lori Parks, The Brothers Size de Tarell Alvin McCraney, For colored girls who have considered suicide when the rainbow is enuf de Ntozake Shange, and I Was Looking at the Ceiling and then I Saw the Sky de June Jordan. En el análisis se movilizan dos conceptos que permiten comprender a la identidad como acción y al texto dramático como medio refractivo de experiencia, ipseidad y refracción estética. Respecto a cada obra se problematizan lecturas esencialistas de la identidad grupal y se revela cómo las interacciones de los personajes en relación con la estructura de las obras y la perspectiva de los autores se convierten en espacios de identidad personal. El trabajo concluye con una discusión de las posibles aplicaciones de la ipseidad y la refracción estética más allá de la crítica dramática.
