Georgian George Hewitt,2005 Georgian A Learner s Grammar is a completely revised and updated guide to the fascinating and most widely spoken language of the Caucasus Georgian B. G. Hewitt,1995 The Caucasus for its size can boast more languages than any other region on earth Of the 40 or so native tongues Georgian is the most widely spoken by up to 5 million of whom 3 million are ethnic Georgians With its own unique script Georgian has been written since the 4th century and has a rich literature of all genres Outside Georgia however it has remained virtually unknown and unstudied its grammatical intricacies being discussed by a small but ever growing succession of foreign specialists The present work represents the first Reference Grammar of this challenging language to appear in English and is the summation of 20 years of intensive study by its author Language, Logic, and Computation Alexandra Silva,Sam Staton,Peter Sutton,Carla Umbach,2019-07-03 This book constitutes the refereed proceedings of the 12th International Tbilisi Symposium on Logic Language and Computation TbiLLC 2017 held in Lagodekhi Georgia in September 2017 The volume contains 17 full revised papers presented at the conference from 22 submissions The aim of this conference series is to bring together researchers from a wide variety of fields in Natural language syntax Linguistic typology Language evolution Logics for artificial intelligence and much more Language, Logic, and Computation Aybüke Özgün,Yulia Zinova,2022-03-30 This book constitutes the refereed proceedings of the 13th International Tbilisi Symposium on Logic Language and Computation TbiLLC 2019 held in Batumi Georgia in September 2019 The volume contains 17 full revised papers presented at the conference from 17 submissions The scientific program consisted of tutorials invited lectures contributed talks and two workshops The symposium offered two tutorials in language and logic and aimed at students as well as researchers working in the other areas Language Sign language linguistics State of the art by Fabian Bross University of Stuttgart Germany Logic Axiomatic Semantics by Graham E Leigh University of Gothenburg Sweden Typology of Pluractional Constructions in the Languages of the World Simone Mattiola,2019-04-24 The aim of this book is to give the first large scale typological investigation of pluractionality in the languages of the world Pluractionality is defined as the morphological modification of the verb to express a plurality of situations that can additionally involve a plurality of participants and or spaces Based on a 246 language sample the main characteristics of pluractionality are described and discussed throughout the book Firstly a description of the functions that pluractional markers cross linguistically express is presented and the relationships occurring among them are explained through the semantic map model Then the marking strategies that languages display to express such functions are illustrated and some issues concerning the formal identification are briefly discussed as well The typological generalizations are corroborated showing how pluractional markers work in three specific languages Akawaio Beja Maa In conclusion the theoretical conceptualization of pluractionality is discussed referring to the Radical Construction Grammar approach Fillers, Pauses and Placeholders Nino Amiridze,Boyd H. Davis,Margaret Maclagan,2010 Fillers are items that speakers insert in spontaneous speech as a repair strategy Types of fillers include hesitation markers and placeholders Both are used to fill pauses that arise during planning problems or in lexical retrieval failure However while hesitation markers may not bear any resemblance to lexical items they replace placeholders typically share some morphosyntactic properties with the target form Additionally fillers can function as a pragmatic tool in order to replace lexical items that the speaker wants to avoid mentioning for some reason The present volume is the first collection on the topic of fillers and will be a useful reference work for future investigations on the topic It consists of typological surveys and in depth studies exploring the form and use of fillers across languages and sections of different populations including cognitively impaired speakers The volume will be interesting to typologists and linguists working in discourse studies

Typology of Verbal Categories Leonid Kulikov,Heinz Vater,2013-03-01 The typological studies of this volume are oriented towards the areas of interests of the Russian typologist Vladimir P Nedjalkov to whom the volume is dedicated They deal with the typology of verbal categories The book is divided into three parts 1 Ergativity and transitivity 2 Voice causative and valency 3 Tense and mood In all three parts of the volume instances of grammaticalization are pointed out and investigated The studies concern various languages e g English French German Russian Hungarian Dutch Tariana a North Arawak language from North West Amazonia Dumi a Tibeto Burman language and Lak a Daghestanian language   Parts of Speech Umberto Ansaldo,Jan Don,Roland Pfau,2010-09-15 Parts of Speech are a central aspect of linguistic theory and analysis Though a long established tradition in Western linguistics and philosophy has assumed the validity of Parts of Speech in the study of language there are still many questions left unanswered For example should Parts of Speech be treated as descriptive tools or are they to be considered universal constructs Is it possible to come up with cross linguistically valid formal categories or are categories of language structure ultimately language specific Should they be defined semantically syntactically or otherwise Do non Indo European languages reveal novel aspects of categorical assignment This volume attempts to answer these and other fundamental questions for linguistic theory and its methodology by offering a range of contributions that spans diverse theoretical persuasions and contributes to our understanding of Parts of Speech with analyses of new data sets These articles were originally published in Studies in Language 32 3 2008   The Syntax of the Be-possessive Hakyung Jung,2011 This book is the first attempt to provide a unified account of the be possessive syntax and its extension to the modal and the perfect constructions in Russian North Russian within a generative framework Apparently diverse constructions are construed as deriving from the have be parameter which depends on the utilization of the prepositional complementizer with a Case feature The be perfect structure provides an adequate environment where ergativity is encoded via verbal nominalization The relevance of the be perfect structure for a split ergative pattern shows that the ergative system is a syntactically conditioned phenomenon rather than a purely morphological diversity This volume also offers the diachronic study of the be syntax investigating the evolution of the be perfect and be modal constructions

which has rarely been explored within a formal framework Concrete scenarios are proposed for the developmental paths of the be perfect and the be modal constructions based on textual evidence in old North Russian The ^AOxford Handbook of Languages of the Caucasus Maria Polinsky,2020-11-21 This book is an introduction to and overview of the languages of the Caucasus including those of southern Russia Georgia Azerbaijan and Armenia This region of the world exhibits extremely high linguistic diversity and many of the languages spoken in the Caucasus have cross linguistically rare features that are found in few or no other languages This handbook serves as a comprehensive overview with detailed descriptions of languages as well as theoretically oriented chapters The Syntax of the Be-Possessive Hakyung Jung,2011-05-18 This book is the first attempt to provide a unified account of the be possessive syntax and its extension to the modal and the perfect constructions in Russian North Russian within a generative framework Apparently diverse constructions are construed as deriving from the have be parameter which depends on the utilization of the prepositional complementizer with a Case feature The be perfect structure provides an adequate environment where ergativity is encoded via verbal nominalization The relevance of the be perfect structure for a split ergative pattern shows that the ergative system is a syntactically conditioned phenomenon rather than a purely morphological diversity This volume also offers the diachronic study of the be syntax investigating the evolution of the be perfect and be modal constructions which has rarely been explored within a formal framework Concrete scenarios are proposed for the developmental paths of the be perfect and the be modal constructions based on textual evidence in old North Russian Reflexivization Strategies in Georgian Nino Amiridze,2006 New Trends in Grammaticalization and Language Change Sylvie Hancil,Tine Breban,José Vicente Lozano,2018-12-06 The chapters in this volume present a state of the art of grammaticalization research in the 2010s They are concerned with the application of new models such as constructionalization the ongoing debate about the status and modelling of the development of discourse markers and reveal a renewed interest in the typological application of grammaticalization and in the cognitive motivations for unidirectionality The contributors consider data from a wide range of languages including several that have not or marginally been looked at in terms of grammaticalization Chinese Dutch varieties of English French German Japanese Maltese Old Saxon Spanish and languages of the South Caucasian and Zhuang Tai Kadai families The chapters range from theoretical discussions to fine grained analyses of new historical and comparative language data This volume will be of interest to linguists studying morphosyntactic changes in a range of languages and in particular to those interested in models for grammatical change Standard Negation Matti Miestamo,2008-08-22 This book is the first cross linguistic study of clausal negation based on an extensive and systematic language sample Methodological issues especially sampling are discussed at length Standard negation the basic structural means languages have for negating declarative verbal main clauses is typologized from a new perspective paying attention to structural differences between affirmatives and negatives In symmetric negation affirmative and negative structures show no differences except for the presence of the negative marker s whereas in asymmetric negation there are further structural differences i e asymmetries A distinction is made between constructional and paradigmatic asymmetry in the former the addition of the negative marker s is accompanied by further structural differences in comparison to the corresponding affirmative and in the latter the correspondences between the members of verbal etc paradigms used in affirmatives and negatives are not one to one Cross cutting the constructional paradigmatic distinction asymmetric negation can be further divided into subtypes according to the nature of the asymmetry Standard negation structures found in the 297 sample languages are exemplified and discussed in detail The frequencies of the different types and some typological correlations are also examined Functional motivations are proposed for the structural types symmetric negatives are language internally analogous to the linguistic structure of the affirmative and asymmetric negatives are language externally analogous to different asymmetries between affirmation and negation on the functional level Relevant diachronic issues are also discussed The book is of interest to language typologists descriptive linguists and to all linguists interested in negation

Reciprocals and Reflexives Ekkehard König,Volker Gast,2008-11-06 This collection of original papers is a representative survey of recent theoretical and cross linguistic work on reciprocity and reflexivity Its most remarkable feature is its combination of formal approaches case studies on individual languages and broad typological surveys in one volume showing that the interaction of formal approaches to grammar and typology may lead to new insights and results for both fields Among the major issues addressed in this volume are the following How can our current knowledge about the space and limits of variation in the relevant domain be captured in a structural typology of reciprocity What light can such a typology shed on the facts of particular languages or groups of languages e g Austronesian How can recent descriptive and typological insights be incorporated into a revised and more adequate version of the Binding Theory How do verbal semantics argument structure and reciprocal markers interact How can we explain the pervasive patterns of ambiguity observable in these two domains especially the use of the same forms both as reflexive and reciprocal markers What are the major sources in the historical development of reciprocal markers This combination of large scale typological surveys with in depth studies of particular languages provides new answers to old questions and raises important new questions for future research Handbook of Descriptive Language Knowledge Harald Hammarström,2007 International Bibliography of Book Reviews of Scholarly Literature Chiefly in the Fields of Arts and Humanities and the Social Sciences ,1996

Études de linguistique générale Gilbert Lazard,2001 La typologie des langues est aujourd hui une dicipline en plein essor Ce volume reunit les articles les plus importants produits par l auteur au cours de quelque vingt cinq ans d exploration des langues les plus diverses Ces etudes abordent quelques questions fondamentales nature des categories grammaticales classes de mots syntaxe de la proposition definition du sujet et de l objet temps aspect et mode articulation theme rheme quete des universaux problemes methodologiques et terminologiques L option theorique se situe resolument dans la tradition
