HomeBaking Jeffrey Alford, Naomi Duguid, 2016-10-21 Home baking may be a humble art but its roots are deeply planted. On an island in Sweden a grandmother teaches her granddaughter how to make slagbrot a velvety rye bread just as she was taught to make it by her grandmother many years before. In Portugal village women meet once each week to bake at a community oven while the large stone oven heats up children come running for sweet sugary flatbreads made specially for them. In Toronto Naomi makes her grandmother's recipe for treacle tart and Jeffrey makes the truck stop cinnamon buns he and his father loved. From savory pies to sweet buns from crusty loaves to birthday cake from old world apple pie to peanut cookies to custard tarts these recipes capture the age old rhythm of turning simple ingredients into something wonderful to eat. HomeBaking rekindles the simple pleasure of working with your hands to feed your family. And it ratchets down the competitive demands we place on ourselves as home cooks. Because in striving for professional results we lose touch with the pleasures of the process with the homey and imperfect with the satisfaction of knowing that you can as a matter of course prepare something lovely and delicious and always have a full cookie jar or some homemade cake on hand to offer. Jeffrey Alford and Naomi Duguid collected the recipes in HomeBaking at their source from farmhouse kitchens in northern France to bazaars in Fez. They traveled tens of thousands of miles to six continents in search of everyday gems such as Taipei Coconut Buns Welsh Cakes Moroccan Biscotti and Tibetan Overnight Skillet Breads. They tasted interpreted photographed and captured not just the recipes but the people who made them as well. Then they took these spot on flavors of far away and put them side by side with cherished recipes from friends and family closer to home. The result is a collection of treasures cherry strudel from Hungary stollen from Germany bread pudding from Vietnam anise crackers from Barcelona. More than two hundred recipes that resonate with the joys and flavors of everyday baking at home and around the world. Inexperienced home bakers can confidently pass through the kitchen doors armed with Naomi and Jeffrey's calming and easy to follow recipes. A relaxed easy handed approach to baking is they insist as much a part of home baking traditions as are the recipes themselves. In fact it's often the last minute recipes semolina crackers a free form fruit galette or a banana coconut loaf that offer the most unexpected delights. Although many of the sweets and savories included here are the products of age old oral traditions the recipes themselves have been carefully developed and tested designed for the home baker in a home kitchen. Like the authors previous books HomeBaking offers a glorious combination of travel and great tastes with recipes rich in anecdote insightful photographs and an inviting text that explores the diverse baking traditions of the people who share our world. This is a book to have in the kitchen and then again by your bed at night to revisit over and over. Bulletin, 1928

Information on the Metric System and Related Fields Ernst Lange, Valerie Antoine, 1974     The Northwestern Miller, 1925     NASA Technical Memorandum, 1976     General Bulletin, 1928     Finding Home Frank Oberle, 2004 Franz Frank Oberle was nine years old when his family was relocated from Germany to Poland. Once there he was taken from his parents to an isolated school where adolescents were being indoctrinated into the Hitler Youth. As the tide of war changed he became a refugee fleeing the Russian advance arriving in Dresden as the city became the target of the most horrific Allied bombing of the war. Surviving on grass and stolen eggs Franz and a friend walked 800 kilometres to his ancestral village on the edge of the Black Forest only to find that his parents had not returned and to face rejection from his remaining family. But the indomitable Franz survived amid the disillusioned populace of Germany and with his youthful sweetheart dreamed of a new life in a new land. With the blessing of his beloved Hanna Joan he set off for Canada promising to send for her when he was able to provide for her. Their subsequent life together in BC has encompassed tragedy and pure joy, hard work and hard times, failure and triumph as Frank Oberle rose from self-educated immigrant to acclaimed federal politician. Set against the backdrops of the Second World War and the raw British Columbia frontier Finding Home covers Frank's fascinating life story up until the time he visited Germany after a decade in Canada. Rich in detail, drama and humour this is a love story, an inspirational saga and a book that sings the song of the Canadian immigrant.     The Habit of Labor Stef

Wertheimer, 2015-10-20 There's no better way to explain the miracle of Israel than to examine the life of Stef Wertheimer. A story to be read by everyone. Warren Buffett forced to flee Nazi Germany with his family at age ten Stef Wertheimer came to British Palestine in the late 1930s. He promptly dropped out of school, learned a trade through apprenticeship and played a meaningful role in Israel's War of Independence. He also started a company ISCAR that began in a shed and ultimately made him one of the world's great self-made industrialists. In The Habit of Labor Wertheimer shares the lessons he learned from a life of hardship and struggle in one of the world's newest industrial powers. Both a pragmatist and a visionary Wertheimer has devoted much of his life to promoting Jewish and Arab economic development through innovative educational and vocational programs along with the establishment of a series of thriving industrial parks in Israel and in Turkey. The future of Israel he believes is not in military might or diplomatic alliances but in its growing economic clout.     The Home, 1857

Food Cultures of the United States Bruce Kraig, 2020-01-23 This comprehensive volume examines the history of American food culture and cuisine today from staple ingredients to dietary concerns. Everyday without realizing it Americans plan their days around food: what to make for dinner, where to meet for brunch, what to bring to a party. As a nation of immigrants the U.S. has food and foodways that few countries in the world have. This addition to the Global Kitchen series examines all aspects of food culture in the United States from the early Colonial period and Native American influences on the new immigrants' food to the modern era. The volume opens with a Chronology that looks at United States history and significant food events. Coverage then dives deep into the history of food in the U.S. and is followed by a chapter on influential ingredients in American cooking Chapters break down American cuisine into appetizers and side dishes main dishes and desserts looking at typical meals and flavors that characterize it Additional chapters examine food eaten during holidays and on special occasions street food and snacks and restaurants A final chapter looks at issues and dietary concerns Recipes round out each chapter     Dr. Oetker German Home Baking Dr. Oetker (Firm),19??
