German Cooking Made Easy:

The Classic German Cookbook Patricia Moore, 2021-02-23 German food is diverse. It is comfort food with high quality ingredients locally sourced. The recipe of Germany has been handed not only by the country's agricultural traditions but by the many generations that have made the unique culture. It definitely makes a nice mix of both sauerkraut and ginger. Today Germany is well prepared with a wide range of food markets and gardens with a variety of food and high end restaurants. Mention that in Germany, people tend to think of ginger but German food is more than that. Germany has a long history reflecting its rural roots and geography. Over the years, German food has developed a national cuisine through centuries of evolution. Each region has its own distinct flavor. For instance, the area around Hamburg is known for its fish dishes while the South is known for its food of pork. But what they all have in common is the German heartiness and the wonderful
