German Ideology Part One:

The German ideology : parts 1 & 3 Karl Marx, Friedrich Engels, 1940 The German Ideology, Parts I & III Karl Marx, Friedrich Engels, 1947 In Brussels in 1845 46 Marx and Engels labored on this detailed criticism of post Hegelian thought The manuscript was not published during their lifetime being abandoned as Marx once said to the gnawing criticism of the mice Almost ninety years after it was written the manuscript was recovered and published This work was Marx and Engels first comprehensive statement on historical materialism The product of a period of undisturbed cooperation it is a systematic account of their theory of the relationship between the economic political and intellectual activities of man It has become one of the classics of Marxist philosophy Back cover The German Ideology Karl Marx, 2024-05-09 Written across the years 1845 46 this collection of writings by Marx and Engels were published in the early 20th century from his estate The bulk of these were written by Marx but some parts by Engels Moses Hess Joseph Weydemeyer and Roland Daniels Die deutsche Ideologie is considered a key work in the development of historical materialism Engels noted that this work contained his first sketch of Historical Dialectical Materialism although you see elements of this in his 1841 Differenz der demokritischen und epikureischen Naturphilosophie his doctoral thesis and his early criticisms of Hegel's Philosophy of Right his 1844 Zur Kritik der Hegelschen Rechtsphilosophie Written in 1845 1846 but unpublished during Marx and Engels lifetimes The German Ideology Die deutsche Ideologie was conceived as a comprehensive polemic against the dominant philosophical currents of post Hegelian Germany particularly those espoused by Bruno Bauer Ludwig Feuerbach and Max Stirner Intended as a full theoretical break from the abstractions of German idealism the manuscript was composed in a fragmentary often repetitious manner and left abandoned when no publisher accepted it later unearthed and printed in part in the 1930s It was in these pages that Marx and Engels first articulated in clear and systematic form their theory of historical materialism asserting that the mode of material production in any society shapes its institutions culture and consciousness The text rejects the idea that ideas or consciousness determine social life arguing instead that it is social being shaped by labor and economic organization that gives rise to thought It openly mocks the lofty metaphysical preoccupations of the Young Hegelians and positions them as trapped in a self referential illusion detached from the real conditions of existence The book also includes a sharp critique of Stirner's individualism and idealist egoism casting it as another symptom of the German philosophical retreat from history and practice Although the manuscript was never revised into a final form its theoretical content introduced the decisive materialist standpoint that would underpin Marx's later writings marking the emergence of a philosophy not of contemplation but of transformation This modern Critical Reader's Edition includes an illuminating afterword tracing Marx's intellectual relationships with revolutionary thinkers and philosophers including Hegel Feuerbach Engels and Ricardo containing unique research into his ideological development and economic metaphysical theories a comprehensive timeline of his life and works a glossary of Marxist terminology and a detailed index of all of Marx's

Hoffman, 2012-12-06 In its attempt to come to grips with the nature of the human mind idealism employs such terms as pure self transcendental apperception pure consciousness and so on What do these terms mean What do they refer to Provisionally at least the following answer could be satisfying such and similar expressions are purported to capture a very special quality of human mind a quality due to which man is not simply a part of nature but a being capable of knowing and acting according to principles governing the spiritual realm In the first chapter of the present study the author attempts to bring the idea of pure Ego down to earth By analyzing Kant's concept of pure apperception the ancestor of all similar notions in the history of modern and contemporary idealism the author concludes that certain functions and capacities attributed to pure apperception by Kant himself imply the rejection of the idealistic framework and the necessity to naturalize the idea of pure self In other words and Kant's claims to the contrary notwithstanding pure apperception cannot be conceived as superimposed upon man viewed as a part of nature as a feeling and a sensing being The referent as it were of the expression pure self turns out to be something much more familiar to us a human organism with all its needs drives and dispositions

Karl Marx's Theory of Revolution Vol. II Hal Draper, 1978 This is the second installment of Hal Draper's incomparable treatment of Marx's political theory policy and practice In forceful and readable language Draper ranges through the development of the thought of Marx and Engels on the role of classes in society This series Karl Marx's Theory of Revolution represents an exhaustive and definitive treatment of Marx's political theory policy and practice Marx and Engels paid continuing attention to a host of problems of revolution in addition to constructing their grand theory All these political and social analyses are brought together in these volumes as the author draws not only on the original writings of Marx and

Engels but also on the sources that they used in formulating their ideas and the many commentaries on their published work Draper's series is a massive and immensely valuable scholarly undertaking The bibliography alone will stand as a rich resource for years to come Yet despite the scholarly treatment the writing is direct forceful and unpedantic throughout and will appeal to the beginning student as much as the advanced reader
