the Holy Spirit to meet God and receive the Scripture that God wants His people to read that day The servant of Jesus also asks that Jesus calls the Holy Spirit to send Spirit taught words through the servant that gives Spirit guidance of the very Word of God This prayer and surrender process is done by the servant of Jesus each day so that every single day of Scripture is from God and every single day of guidance to the Word of God is from the Holy Spirit The Word and the guidance of God s Word is not from the servant of Jesus but is delivered through the servant of Jesus This is the work that Jesus has called this servant to do Amen Today s Scripture Guidance is from the very Word of God It is spoken boldly with Spirit taught words The guidance is there each day to help the readers of God s Word understand the mystery of His Word through words delivered by the Holy Spirit Today s Scripture Guidance delivers daily reading and guidance to strengthen your understanding of the Word of God and to guide you through living your life in a way that pleases God This Guidance will help you to truly understand the Word of God Each day the Word was selected by God and the guidance was delivered with Spirit taught Words from the Holy Spirit Hallelujah     If You Were God Would You Choose You Rick Renner,     The New Chosen People, Revised and Expanded Edition William W. Klein, 2015-11-25 Controversy rages on about God s choosing people for salvation Are only the few elect Rather than typically beginning with the preconceptions of systematic theologies Dr William Klein takes up this question by searching for a biblical theology of election He surveys the OT contexts of God s choosing individuals prophets priests kings to serve divine purposes and considers God s election of the nation of Israel as his special people This OT study proposes that God s election is both individual and corporate but not always determinative Individuals entered the people of God by birth but not all the people found salvation Faith in Yahweh was required This book traces these elective understandings through the intertestamental literature identifying continuities and shifts The bulk of the study and the heart of the argument focus on the New Testament Klein identifies concepts of election and relationships between writers in the gospels the Lucan material Paul s writings and the rest The new covenant God choosing the church in Christ emphasizes election as corporate while the individual election of Jesus disciples and of Paul raises the question whether such chosenness is necessarily salvific In closing Klein discusses the most engaging and divisive questions around God s election and offers a real challenge to today s church     Morning and Evening Meditations from the Word of God Michael J. Akers, 2014-03-18 There are many devotional books available containing brief daily inspirations that benefit all who read them This book is different in two respects The first is obvious it contains two readings per day 732 in all The second more important difference is that the author wanted to do more than offer inspiration this would make this book no different than so many others The messages in the book are study sketches in that the content is not only inspirational but also educational challenging and encouraging Most of these writings were based on author Michael J Akers s teaching of adult Bible studies for more than thirty years and learning what really brought adults to want to deepen their knowledge and application of the Word of God     Jose Vargas, 2010-02     Dare to Believe His Promises: You Win Jackie Trammell, 2015-10-09 I believe the
