God's Gift to Humanity: Relationship Between Phinehas and Consecration to the Father Marcelle

Bartolo-Abela, 2011-05-11 The relationship between Old Testament high priest Phinehas grandson of Aaron and consecration to God the Father in the 21st century is explored Consecration results in the Father's Seal together with the covenants of peace everlasting priesthood and right to expiate acceptably for self and others in His sight These gifts are analogous to what Yahweh had originally granted Phinehas during the Israelites stay in the desert after slaying the heresy of Pe or thus enabling the people to enter the promised land The Seal of the Father supersedes the mark of the beast in the Book of Revelation hence it can effectively end the heresy of the 21st century Consecration to the Father in our times is also one of the entryways into the New Israel

Common Word Between Us Muslims and You Christians Joseph Nnabugwu, 2011-04-26 In recent peace initiative a common word in Muslim Christian relations emphasis on the way forward between Islam and Christianity has been a frantic call to love of God and love of neighbor This call argued in this book provokes rival and parallel logic in the concepts of monotheism between Christian religious leaders and scholars on the one hand and Islamic religious leaders and scholars on the other Using in places the framework of critical discourse analysis CDA the author analyzes some text extracts from a common word in order to expose the underlying problems of ideologies dichotomies identity constructions and orthodoxy claims that are associated with the Islamic Tawhid and Christian Trinity Drawing from various conferences and workshops convened by both religious communities as well as some social scientist insights this book finds authentic communication in Muslim Christian relations grounded in recognition and acceptance of the differences between Islam and Christianity Recognizing the ideological issues in the usage of the appositional pronouns us Muslims and you Christians as suggesting dichotomy the author suggests rather the education of both Muslims and Christians starting from the kindergarten on the religion and beliefs of the other and to re interpret and revise conflicting Qur'anic and biblical issues pertaining to Muslim Christian relations The God Between Charles E. Halverson, 1981 An Introduction to Natural Theology Maurice R. Holloway, 2018-06-21 What is the God of the philosopher Can the philosopher that is to say can human reason unenlightened by the revealed word come to a true and secure understanding of He Who Is Is it possible for mere man without the impact of a personal experience intimate and intuitive to arrive by means of an objective demonstration at an absolute affirmation that the Being we call God exists or that He is Pure Act Existence Itself because without him the world of our experience is unintelligible a complete contradiction And even if we admit as all Christian philosophers must that unaided reason is able by its own power to reach an objectively true and secure assent that God exists is there any evidence in the recorded history of our world that man without the directive knowledge of revelation ever did secure by a metaphysical effort this absolute truth that the Ipsum Esse exists Whatever be the answer to this difficult problem and we do not pretend to know it it is obvious that Father Holloway in composing his philosophical approach to God allowed himself to be guided by the knowledge of faith Indeed he must have prayed often for the enlightenment which the supernatural motion of divine grace brings even to the limited and imperfect intellect of a philosopher From the Foreword by Henri Renard S J Mission Between the Times C.
