God Is New Each Moment Conversations With Huub Oosterhuis And Piet Hoogeveen:

God is New Each Moment Edward Schillebeeckx, Huub Oosterhuis, Piet Hoogeveen, 2004-12-30 Edward Schillebeeckx 1914 is a prominent Catholic theologian remarkable for having survived three inquiries into his possible heresy by the Vatican He explores traditional Catholic concepts in the light of twentieth century understanding and is committed to working out a satisfactory statement of the relationship between the Church and the world God is New Each Moment presents a series of interviews at once inspiring provocative and illuminating between Schillebeeckx and fellow theologians Huub Oosterhuis and Piet Hoogeveen

God is New Each Moment Edward Schillebeeckx (o.p.), 1983 The Dialectics of Creation Martin G. Poulson, 2014-03-13 This book investigates the philosophical components of Christian faith in creation by analyzing the distinction and the relation between creation and its Creator The writings of Edward Schillebeeckx and David Burrell supply a terminology of distinction and relation that shapes the discourse following in the footsteps of Aquinas Poulson elucidates the relational dialectic in the thought of Schillebeeckx as a way of thinking about the Creation and offers a helpful comparison with the thought of David Burrell Relational dialectic is an organizing principle not only of Schillebeeckx's account of creation but of his philosophical theology more generally It can operate as a hermeneutic for his material on praxis and humanism in a way that resolves some problems noted by other Schillebeeckx scholars Poulson's interpretation of Schillebeeckx enriches current approaches to this thinker and offers a significant contribution to thinking on the doctrine of Creation and issues surrounding the ontological distinction which is of major concern in philosophical theology today

Metaphysics of Mystery Marijn de Jong, 2020-02-06 How can we theologically reflect on universality in a world that increasingly focuses on particularities and differences Marijn de Jong argues that the question of universality calls for a reconceptualized form of metaphysical theology which he finds in the work of Karl Rahner and Edward Schillebeeckx Casting a new light on these theologians de Jong demonstrates that their methods contain a dialectical interrelation of hermeneutics and metaphysics an interrelation which seemingly has been lost in more recent hermeneutical theology Rahner and Schillebeeckx carefully balance particularity and universality without falling prey to relativist or absolutist ways of reasoning By analyzing fundamental themes such as experience and interpretation nature and grace faith and reason and intelligibility and mystery de Jong reveals the modest theological metaphysics that lies at the heart of their methods This critical retrieval demonstrates the enduring relevance of these thinkers and opens up new avenues of thought for theologians that do not want to shy away from the difficult question of the universality of God

For You Alone Terry A. Veling, 2014-04-18 The works of Emmanuel Levinas a survivor of the Nazi horror are striking in the constancy of their thought and the strength of their appeal We are not condemned to evil and hatred rather we are called to be for each other For You Alone explores the relational and religious quality of Levinas work Our lives are always twofold rather than one and the same A relational life is dependent on encounters that are revelatory Revelation means that life is no mere sameness but is tied to the revelation of the other to you Here is transcendence par excellence Here is what the name of God signifies the relational and ethical bond that takes us outside ourselves toward the other in our midst What could be more natural more human or more divine than to speak of the relational quality of life An answerable life means that we are asked after called required Here I am under your gaze Levinas writes obliged to you your servant In the name of God Edward

Schillebeeckx and Interreligious Dialogue Edmund Kee-Fook Chia,2012-01-23 If Schillebeeckx had been Asian how would he have responded to the phenomenon of religious pluralism This book attempts to answer that question beginning with a dialogue with the Vatican Declaration Dominus Iesus and discerning how Schillebeeckx s methodology has been applied in Asian theology Employing the hermeneutical critical method Schillebeeckx asserts that the Word of God did not come down to us as it were vertically in a purely divine statement it must be interpreted In today s context of so many religions so many cultures and so many poor God s Word invites the church to be a sacrament of dialogue Through dialogue the church will be challenged by other religions and challenge them in return Christianity will then be put in its place as well as given the place which is its due Salvation in the World Stephan van Erp,Christiane Alpers,Christopher

Cimorelli,2017-09-07 What happens when Edward Schillebeeckx s theology crosses paths with contemporary public theology This volume examines the theological heritage that Schillebeeckx has left behind as well as it critically assesses its relevance for temporary theological scene In tracing the way s in which Schillebeeckx observed and examined his own context s increasing secularization and concomitant development toward atheism the contributors to this volume indicate the potential directions for a contemporary public theology that pursues the path which Schillebeeckx has trodden The essays in the first part of this volume indicate a different theological self critique undertaken in response to developments in the public sphere This is followed by a thorough examination of the degree to which Schillebeeckx succeeded in leading Christian theology ahead without merely accommodating the Christian tradition to current societal trends The third part of the volume discusses the issues of climate change social conceptions of progress as well as the evolutionary understandings of the origins and purpose of religions The final part examines Schillebeeckx s soteriology to contemporary discussions about wholeness Salvation for the Sinned-Against Kevin P. Considine,2015-01-22 The problem of the barbarous excess of human suffering is becoming the main question of global Christianity In an intercultural globalizing world how do we envision the wounds of sin and God s saving work of healing liberation and redemption Salvation for the Sinned Against attempts to address these questions and to suggest a renewed understanding of God s salvation for the victims of sin within the intercultural and globalizing context of the twenty first century It offers a thorough treatment of Edward Schillebeeckx intercultural hermeneutics and the Korean concept of han and brings them into dialogue with the Pastoral Constitution on the Church in the Modern World Gaudium et spes This book is the first in depth study of han from a Roman Catholic perspective and the first to attempt to integrate han into Roman Catholic theology in order to begin to envision salvation for the sinned against creature Its insights into the experience and message of salvation for the sinned against as well as the perpetrators speak not only to the ecclesial sphere but to the public sphere and beyond Although written from a Western North American social location this is a book that can be useful far beyond this context T&T Clark Handbook of Theological Anthropology Mary Ann Hinsdale, Stephen Okey, 2021-01-28 Including classical modern and postmodern approaches to theological anthropology this volume covers the entire spectrum of thought on the doctrines of creation the human person as imago Dei sin and grace The editors have gathered an exceptionally diverse range of voices ensuring ecumenical balance Protestant Roman Catholic and Orthodox and the inclusion of previously neglected perspectives women African American Asian Latinx and LGBTQ The contributors revisit authors from the Great Tradition early church medieval and modern and discuss them alongside critical and liberationist approaches ranging from feminist decolonial and intersectional theory to critical race theory and queer performance theory This is a much needed overview of a rapidly evolving field Edward Schillebeeckx and Contemporary Theology Lieven Boeve, Frederiek Depoortere, Stephan van Erp, 2010-12-09 Concentrated Creation Rhona Lewis, 2023-01-26 This book widens the understanding of salvation from a narrow focus on the crucifixion of Jesus Christ to one which is inseparable from creation theology In this analysis of the Thomist and Irenaean sources of Edward Schillebeeckx s creation faith God s absolute saving presence to humanity is found to be intrinsic to his creative action This becomes most explicit in God s humanity in the life death and resurrection of Jesus Christ Lewis argues that Jesus is both God s invitation to humanity and is himself the perfect human response to God Because of this Jesus followers are called to be engaged in God s saving action by working to remove suffering from people and to build a better world in which all may flourish Schillebeeckx s theology is sometimes thought to divide into two disconnected halves a pre and post Vatican II version The way in which Schillebeeckx s Christological soteriology has developed over his theological career before and after Vatican II is here examined using the Annales model of continuity and change This book finds that Schillebeeckx both breaks with the language of Chalcedon while remaining adamantly faithful to the truth which it expresses The final chapters discover how Schillebeeckx s ideas and methods are crucially relevant in an analysis of contemporary social suffering in Ciudad Ju rez by Nancy Pineda Madrid and in the project of the Catholic Dialogue School in Flanders by Lieven Boeve Incarnating Grace Julia Feder, 2023-11-07 Prioritizes survivors of abuse by reexamining Christian ideals about suffering and salvation More than half of women and almost one in three of men in the United States have experienced sexual violence at some time in their lives Yet our Christian tradition has failed survivors of sexual violence who have been taught to believe that traumatic suffering brings us closer to God Incarnating Grace attempts to save our broken ways of talking about God s grace by unearthing liberating resources buried in the Christian tradition Christian ideas about salvation have historically contributed to sexual violence in our communities by reinforcing the idea that suffering is salvific But a God worth worshiping does not want human beings to suffer Drawing on the sixteenth century

Spanish mystic Teresa of Avila as well as contemporary political and feminist theologians philosophers and legal scholars author and Associate Professor of theology Julia Feder offers an account of Christian salvation as mystical political Feder begins by describing the breadth of traumatic wounding and the shape of traumatic recovery as articulated by psychologists Since the fullness of post traumatic healing requires reserves deeper than those which can be articulated by the secular field of psychology alone the book then introduces the Spanish Carmelite Saint Teresa of Avila and her theological insights which are most helpful for constructing a post traumatic theology of healing Arguing that God stands against violence and suffering the book also examines the notion of senseless suffering a technical term that comes from Edward Schillebeeckx a Catholic twentieth century Flemish priest and theologian The suffering of sexual violence serves no higher purpose or greater human value and pushes against all ways of making sense of the world as good and orderly In the following chapters Feder turns to two Christian virtues that animate post traumatic recovery courage and hope and explores how Christian hope can provide a language to empower courageous activity undertaken toward healing Incarnating Grace opens a new dialogue about salvation and violence that does not allow evil to have the last word

Religious Epistemology through Schillebeeckx and Tibetan Buddhism Jason M. VonWachenfeldt, 2021-02-11 This study investigates how a comparison between the Catholic theologian Edward Schillebeeckx's controversial reading of Thomist philosophy and the Tibetan Buddhist Gendun Chopel's challenge to the standard Geluk teaching of Tsongkhapa's Madhyamaka philosophy might assist in rethinking conceptions of religious knowledge Utilizing a wide variety of methodical approaches to establish an imaginary dialogue between these two thinkers this comparison remains embodied in the thought and praxis of actual individuals and yet still firmly embedded within the conversations and trajectories of their broader religious traditions The Praxis of the Reign of God Mary Catherine Hilkert, Robert J.
