"All Authority Has Been Given To Me" Tim Lehman, 2019-11-20 For much of Christian history greater focus has been paid to Jesus death than to his three years of ministry and his crucifixion has often been understood primarily as a means to salvation in heaven But retired pastor Tim Lehman contends that we ve drastically missed the point by not looking closely at and learning from Jesus words and actions before his death As a result we lose out on the joy and freedom of living fully as his disciples and experiencing salvation already in this life on earth In this broad study of Matthew s Gospel Lehman challenges readers to view Jesus death in light of his life He urges us not just to believe in Jesus but to believe Jesus to take seriously all that he taught and how he lived As Lehman leads readers along a carefully laid path Christians and non Christians alike will have to rethink long held assumptions the place of violence in the Christian life the givenness of division in our modern world the meaning of atonement salvation and the kingdom of heaven and more But along the way we are sure to learn grow and hopefully come to know more deeply God s unconditional love for all      Practical Theology Peter Kreeft,2014-11-20 Saint Thomas Aquinas has been admired throughout the ages for his philosophical brilliance and his theological sanity but author and professor Peter Kreeft thinks the practical spiritual wisdom of Aquinas is just as amazing In this book Kreeft brings together 358 useful everyday insights from Aquinas masterpiece the Summa Theologiae He pairs these easily digestible quotes from the Summa with his own delightfully written commentary in order to answer the kinds of questions real people ask their spiritual directors These 358 passages from the Summa have helped Kreeft in his own struggles to grow closer to the Lord His practical personal and livable advice is the fruit of his labors to apply the insights of Aquinas to his own quest for sanctity happiness and union with God      Disputed Questions on Virtue Thomas Aquinas,2012-09-15 The third volume of The Hackett Aquinas a series of central philosophical treatises of Aquinas in new state of the art translations accompanied by a thorough commentary on the text      Compassionate Love and Ebony Grace Kortright Davis,2012-03-22 Why is the Golden Rule so central in almost every culture and religion What is it that drives human beings to do good to others Are altruism compassion and forgiveness natural forms of human behavior or do they have to be learned and practiced in the neural context of our primal instincts for survival and self defense These are some of the questions that lie behind the study of Compassionate Love amongst people of color Davis explores the patterns and contours of other love which he defines as a selfless regard for the well being of others He also examines the basis for distinctive modes of compassionate behavior enriched by ebony grace a theological attribution for people of African descent This text focuses especially on the historical cultural and religious heritage that inspires and empowers such attitudes in spite of constant encounters with systemic negation social alienation and unrelenting racism How is it that Black families in the home school and church still support sustain and succeed in the practice of unyielding love in compassion That is the magic and mystery within contemporary Black cultural norms and moral values This text is a powerful attempt to contribute to the debate on Christian altruism      Discipleship Dietrich Bonhoeffer,2001 Freshly translated from the German critical edition Discipleship provides a more accurate rendering of the text and extensive aids and commentary to clarify the

Integrating Work in Theological Education Kathleen A. Cahalan, Edward Foley, Gordon S. Mikoski, 2017-03-09 If only we could do a better job of helping students at connecting the dots theological educators commonly lament Integration often proposed as a solution to the woes of professional education for ministry would help students integrate knowledge skills spirituality and integrity When these remain disconnected incompetence ensues and the cost runs high for churches denominations and ministers themselves However we fail in thinking that integrating work is for students alone It is a multifaceted constructive process of learning that is contextual reflective and dialogical It aims toward important ends competent leaders who can guide Christian communities today It entails rhythms not stages and dynamic movement including disintegration Integrating work is learning in motion across domains and among and between persons It is social and communal born of a life of learning together for faculty staff administrators and students It is work that bridges the long standing gaps between school ministry practice and life It s a verb not a noun Here a diverse group of theological educators through descriptive case studies theological reflection and theory building offer a distinctive contribution to understanding integrating work and how best to achieve it across three domains in community curriculums and courses
