James Cordell

God In Sandals:

God in Sandals Christopher Shaw, 2010-11-05 God in Sandals leads the reader to daily encounters in the Gospels bringing a fresh approach to the Person of Jesus. The resulting adventure will allow you to enjoy Jesus as never before and will deeply stir your soul planting the seeds of a genuine and dramatic spiritual transformation. God in Sandals Margaret

Montreuil, 2003-06-01 This novel is a vivid word portrait of Jesus. Retracing his footsteps across the pages of the Gospels, this story colorfully paints his character in depth and gives insight into the social and political times in which he lived. We meet a Jewish Jesus, a human Jesus, and an irresistible divine Jesus. Besides the familiar characters of the Bible, a few fictional ones spark the imagination with new insightful perspective. Through his disciples, angels, relatives, friends, and enemies, we learn what it was like to know him, giving us a sense of being there. Forty-five devotional-like chapters unveil God's extravagant love, which was perfectly revealed through the birth, life, death, and resurrection of Jesus. This is a powerful portrayal of the man Jesus who was God eternal. The companion book God with Us: A Walk Through the Gospels is a devotional guide and Biblical resource to use with this novel. God in Sandals, The Pastor's Sandal Path Father Henry C. Schmid, 2010-04-16

The Pastor's Sandal Path relates my envisioning of God in nature. I was privileged to grow up with my sister and five brothers on a farm where our parents instilled in us the presence of God in our daily lives as well as in the majesty of God's nature. My early schooling took place in a one-room country school where our fantastic teacher incorporated the beauty of God and nature in the classroom and on field trips. In the upper grades, the Dominican sisters assisted my parents in laying a solid faith foundation. After graduation, I entered St. Mary of the Lake Seminary, Mundelein, where my faith was deepened, my love of Jesus increased, and God's presence in nature more keenly perceived. I hope my perceptions of God in nature will help the reader to encounter God in their ordinary experiences of life. What Every Human Must Know Joshua T.

Franklin, 2022-08-25 Many people have sought for the ultimate meaning of finding God in all sort of ways but are never able to find the peace of mind and satisfaction for which they are searching. They've come to realize that there is something vitally missing in their lives and despite all their efforts are unable to remove the guilt of sin that separates them from their creator. This book thoroughly explains how to be reunited with our creator. Many have come to this crossroad facing the following questions looking for answers: 1. What is God's Name? 2. How am I made righteous in God's sight? 3. How do I worship God that I might come into covenant with Him? In this book, Minister Franklin unfolds answers and shares his testimony to encourage every believer so they can understand how their faith in Jesus Christ is made complete through their obedience to God's word. This book has revelation, knowledge of God's plan and purpose for you in how to receive the blood of Jesus and the infilling of the Holy Ghost. Who Do the Ngimurok Say That They Are? Kevin P. Lines, 2018-04-12 How do missiologists describe the cosmologies of those that Christianity encounters around the world? Our descriptions often end up filtered through our own Western religious categories. Furthermore, indigenous Christians adopt these Western religious categories

This presents the problem of local Christianities described by Kwame Bediako as those that have not known how to relate to their traditional culture in terms other than those of denunciation or of separateness Kevin Lines s phenomenological study of local religious specialists in Turkana Kenya not only challenges our Western categories by revealing a more authentic complexity of the issues for local Christians and Western missionaries but also provides a model for continued use of phenomenology as a valued research method in larger missiological studies Additionally this study points to the ways that local Christians and traditional religious practitioners interpret Western missionaries through local religious categories Clearly missionaries missiologists anthropologists and religious studies scholars need to do a much more careful job of studying and describing the contextually specific phenomena of traditional religious specialists before relying on meta categories that come out of our Western theology or older overly simplified ethnographies The research from this current study of Turkana religious specialists begins that process in the Turkana context and offers a model for future studies in contexts where traditional religion and Christianity intersect

My Analogies Tracy Leon Streeter, 2005-05-18 In Jeremiah 18 2 God instructs His prophet to Arise and go down to the potter s house and there I will cause thee to hear my words Jeremiah s obedience to God allowed him to see a potter at work with clay and then hear God tell him how he wishes to be the Potter and that His people be clay in His hands This book will tell you of some of the most unlikely things and places that God has caused me to hear His word It is such a blessing to see and hear God in some of the things that we would consider ordinary But with the voice of God behind it that which was just ordinary become extraordinary

The Born Identity Phil Pringle, Many of us are living with a spiritual kind of amnesia forgetful of who we really are Negative circumstances constantly send us the message that we are far less than what the New Testament declares us to be Often theology has been twisted to conform to the defeated negative thinking of people who are interpreting life and God through their circumstances When we submit to Scripture rather than submit the Scripture to us our identity in Christ comes alive This book is intended to awaken and remind us exactly who we are and what we have in Christ When we enter our battles with clear knowledge of who we are and what we have we will win every time
