

A photograph of a church interior. In the foreground, a large group of people are seated, many holding lit candles, creating a warm, glowing atmosphere. The background shows the church's architecture, including a large window and a hanging light fixture.

"A refreshingly bold and honest effort to re-image God for our turbulent times. With intellectual integrity and courage, it says some pretty tough things, but then Jesus did too."

God In The Balance Christian Spirituality In Times Of Terror:

God in the Balance Carter Heyward, 2011-01-01 Heyward directly addresses our vulnerability to terror especially its religious and political aspects Examining six images of God God of War God of Peace God as Father God as Spirit God in us and God in all the author locates an authentic religious response in a healthy balancing of God images while religiously motivated violence stems from absolutist theories that fix on only one image of an inexhaustible deity Stressing mutuality and openness Heyward sketches a creative Christian response to violence terror and war Queering Christian Worship Bryan Cones, 2023-11-21 A groundbreaking collection of writings that place queer ritual at the center of the theological conversation In this collection of essays leading scholars in queer theology and liturgical studies explore the ways in which the distinctive theological voices of LGBTQIA Christians challenge and expand thinking and practice around worship in new directions This challenge has expanded in the past decades as obstacles to the full participation of queer Christians particularly in marriage and ordination have fallen Organized into three main parts the volume begins with an introduction to queer engagement with ritual practices continues with a series of case studies that examine queer texts and contexts and concludes with an examination of the horizons of queer liturgical theology and practice Throughout the volume Queering Christian Worship provides new imagination and tools to those who study and curate Christian worship across traditions

Jonathan's Loves, David's Laments Dirk von der Horst, 2017-03-24 Jonathan s Loves David s Laments uses early modern musical interpretations of David s Lament over Saul and Jonathan to deepen the historicist foundations of contemporary feminist and gay relational theologies After laying out how gay theologian Gary David Comstock connects the story of David and Jonathan to the theology of lesbian theologian Carter Heyward the argument interrogates both theological and exegetical problems in making those connections which include contradictory theological stances with regard to modernity and history as well as the indeterminacy of the biblical text Early modern musical interpretations of the text allow for a double move of engaging the texts through a sensual medium thus reinforcing queer possibilities for meaning making from the biblical text and staying attuned to the fact that the history of interpretation reinforces the indeterminacy of the text thus keeping queer interpretations aware of the relativizing function of historical difference Keep Your Courage Carter Heyward, 2011 Carter Heyward is one of the most influential and controversial theologians of our time Under headings Speaking Truth to Power Remembering Who We Are and Celebrating Our Friends she reflects on how movements for gender and sexual justice reverberate globally In this volume of occasional pieces the lesbian feminist theologian bears witness to the sacred struggles to topple oppressive power These pieces illustrate feminist theology s bold and transformative engagement of its cultural political social and theological contexts Now forty years later while not as naive and utopian in my politics I am still enthusiastically committed as a Christian to struggles dedicated to building a world in which every person is entitled by law to basic human rights I have come to realize as I move along into my mid sixties that what justice loving people most need in these times and in all times is courage to speak and act on behalf of this world My desire in this book is to spark such courage and stir imagination from the Foreword

The Story of the Philadelphia Eleven Darlene O'Dell, 2024-06-11 Celebrating the 50th anniversary of the ordinations of The Philadelphia Eleven this expanded and revised edition serves as the definitive account of the courageous women who shattered stained glass ceilings and sparked a global movement to revolutionize faith and society Nearly fifty years after eleven audacious women made history as the first female priests ordained in the Episcopal Church Darlene O Dell revisits their inspiring journey in a revised and expanded edition of her acclaimed The Story of the Philadelphia Eleven Through extensive interviews and tireless archival research this definitive account was the first to vividly resurrect the pivotal moment that tore down barriers and changed the Episcopal Church forever Both critics and scholars hailed the book calling it a needed history and a brilliantly told tale Mary E Hunt and enthralling reading O Dell certainly has the novelist's gift of making her story come alive and in maintaining her readers interest Bernard Palmer Now fresh interviews unveil dozens of never before told perspectives while updated chapters lend contemporary relevance to a history we can't afford to forget Additionally the author has included exclusive conversations with one of the Washington Four a chapter on the impactful Barbara Harris and insights into the wider Anglican church's role in what is now universally considered a landmark event This edition doesn't just look back it casts a critical eye on what's changed and what hasn't questioning the patriarchy that persists in faith institutions and how these ordinations echo in today's political culture Both an intimate character study and a sweeping examination The Story of the Philadelphia Eleven is a renewed call to understand our past in order to better navigate our collective future

The Just War And Jihad R. Joseph Hoffmann, 2010-05 The articles collected in this volume represent the independent and considered thinking of internationally known scholars from a variety of disciplines concerning the relationship between religion and violence with special reference to the theories of just war and jihad technical terms that arise in connection with the theology of early medieval Christianity and early Islam respectively The contributors include Hector Avalos Charles K Bellinger Bahar Davary Carol Delaney J Harold Ellens Reuven Firestone R Joseph Hoffmann Judith Lichtenberg Pauletta Otis Gabriel Palmer Fernandez Laura Purdy Joyce E Salisbury Regina M Schwartz and Robert B Tapp In the present global and political climate the significant conversation about why religions provoke conflict and whether any religion is truly harmless cannot be ignored

Wading Through Many Voices Harold Recinos, 2011-04-16 Wading through Many Voices brings together the voices of Latino a African American Asian American Native American and Euro American scholars to produce a dialogue of public theology how faith communities divided by race class ethnicity and gender can find a common ground for life together The authors articulate a multiethnic perspective on public theology that counters the divisive identity politics of U S public life with systematic thinking that strengthens the commitment to critically transform social relations in light of a shared vision of public good The contributors develop a shared public theology that addresses social divisions while offering readers a broad vision to collaborate and struggle for an improved understanding of the common good for our pluralistic society In light of emerging social issues the contributors suggest that a fundamental respect for difference is a required first value for living together in a common social and political space

The Big Black Book of Government Conspiracies Andrè RavenSkül Venås,2019-09-05 This is a compilation of Government Conspiracies from the U S and the World Handbook of U.S.

Theologies of Liberation Miguel A. De La Torre,2004-11-01 The purpose of this handbook is to introduce the reader to Christian concepts from the perspective of U S marginalized communities It explores the interrelationship between religion community and culture in the social context of different marginalized groups specifically those rooted in the African American Amerindian Asian American feminist gay lesbian and Hispanic experiences and their impact on the development of U S theologies of liberation The handbook gives attention to the history nature sources and development of these theologies and the theologians who contributed to their formation Of particular interest is how Handbook of U S Theologies of Liberation clearly distinguishes both the differences and similarities between these U S theologies and their Latin American counterparts The handbook is divided into two sections Thematic Essays that provide a general overview of a specific theological theme from the perspectives of different marginalized groups and Contextual Essays that focus on the specific contributions of scholars from various racial ethnic and gender backgrounds

Through Us, with Us, in Us Lisa Isherwood,Elaine Bellchambers,2010 Relational theologies such as feminist theology ecotheology and liberation theologies of various kinds turn our traditional starting point for theology on its head They ask what it is that we experience This book aims to explore the concept of the emerging divine within human and non human relationality

Discourses of Education in the Age of New Imperialism Jerome Satterthwaite,Elizabeth Atkinson,2005 This fourth volume in the Discourse Power Resistance series takes the theme into new territory setting educational thinking and practice firmly in its global political context Drawing on schools of thought as diverse as Marxism and eco feminist theology the contributors to Part 1 Global Imperialism and Terror The Theory and Practice of Othering led by Peter McLaren examine the possibilities for critical thinking and transformative practice in the aftermath of 9 11 and the new age of cultural and political imperialism In Part 2 Praxis Thinking and Doing contributors draw on a range of critical perspectives to examine both the theory and practice of education taking the reader from the self to the system and back again via dynamic systems theory flow theory and a multiplicity of diverse and often conflicting practices of subversion The book closes with two radical departures from the norm a seriously playful transgression into the fields of pop art and film and a searing poetic lament on the current state of educational policy and practice As educators we are all in William Pinar s words behind enemy lines in a field which despite our continued bids for autonomy is increasingly hijacked by globalizing political forces This book offers modes of resistance which are startling unsettling and challenging It will be of deep interest to students tutors and researchers in education policy studies and related fields and to those who are involved in training or becoming the educators of the future The contributors are Peter McLaren William Pinar Mike Cole Lisa Isherwood Elizabeth Atkinson Tamsin Haggis Sue Clegg Gill Boag Munroe Ros Ollin Victoria Teaching as a Sacramental Act Mary Elizabeth Moore, 2004-11-01 Moore asserts that Christian vocation and the teaching vocation in particular can be best understood as sacramental mediating the grace of God through ordinary creation for the sanctification of human life and the well being of all creation She develops her argument through three important factors a historical theological analysis of the Christian sacraments and sacramentality a phenomenological study of teaching events and a description of six sacramental movements and corresponding teaching practices informed by Jewish Christian traditions and Eucharistic practices The nine detailed chapters include Searching for the Sacred Sacred Teaching Education as Sacrament Expecting the Unexpected Remembering the Dismembered Seeking Reversals Giving Thanks Nourishing Life Reconstructing Community and Repairing the World and Mapping the Future of Sacramental Teaching Teaching as a Sacramental Act is ideal for students pastors Christian educators spiritual directors and pastoral caregivers who want to rethink and reshape the teaching ministry of the church Engaging the Bible Hee An Choi, Kathryn Pfisterer Darr, Bringing together some of the leading luminaries in feminist womanist and multicultural critical biblical studies in this book each woman describes her unique perspective and offers her reading of a particular biblical scene This is an ideal text for courses on feminist and multicultural biblical interpretation and includes discussion questions for each chapter and a list of suggested readings She Flies On Carter Heyward, 2017-04 Simultaneously theological spiritual moral political social autobiographical First person narrative of one who was at the forefront at a significant time in church and secular history Christian Social Action, 2002 Radical Otherness Lisa Isherwood, David Harris, 2014-10-20 The problem of otherness is central to debates in both the social sciences and theology To define the other by colour gender politics nationality or religion is to define the self Othering has been used through history as a justification for boundary setting for conflict and for oppression Radical Otherness presents a broad overview of otherness in both sociology and theology The book reveals how social theory can illuminate many contemporary issues in theology whilst the examination of theological methods can shed light on problematic issues in sociology The discussion of issues in Radical Otherness moves from the personal to the political to the hermeneutic to the ultimate otherness of metaphysics At each stage discussion of theory is grounded in concrete examples The book offers students of ethics theology and sociology of religion a clear and engaged assessment of otherness and opens up new ways for investigating a concept central to the study of both religion and society Christian Faith and the Truth Behind 9/11 David Ray Griffin, 2006 Probing disturbing questions that beg for a response from the Christian community a distinguished scholar of religion and popular writer analyzes the evidence about 9 11 and then explores a distinctively Christian perspective on these issues taking seriously what we know about Jesus life death and teachings Interpreting the Postmodern Rosemary Radford Ruether, Marion Grau, 2006-01-19 A collection of feminist historical liberation and constructive theological responses Radical
