God Reinvented A Theological Search In Texts And Tables:

God Reinvented? Johannes A. van der Ven, 2023-12-18 Everywhere in the western world the process of secularization leads to the decline of faith in God The concept of secularization itself however has come under attack by critics who believe that it does not adequately account for processes which may be part of a certain renascence as marginal and unrecognized as it may be of belief in God Whether these processes are actually taking place and whether this renascence if such it is will bring about a transformation of that belief are questions still waiting to be answered Are we witnessing the re creation of God images or the re discovery of God The tension between re creation and re discovery lies at the root of this book and its title which has been framed very intentionally as a question God Reinvented Empirical Theology in Texts and Tables Leslie J. Francis, Mandy Robbins, Jeff Astley, 2009 Empirical theology offers fresh and stimulating insights into the concerns of both the Church and the Academy It does this by accessing relevant empirical evidence using the tools of the social sciences and placing this evidence in the context of theological critique and contemporary debate In this pioneering collection of focused essays leading experts of empirical theology illustrate key perspectives within this rapidly expanding discipline The first section of the book explores theoretical issues underpinning the main methods of obtaining empirical data and the use of these data within theology The other two sections display the role both of qualitative studies and of the analysis of quantitative data in exploring a range of theological beliefs and religious social and educational concerns Critical Essays on Edward Schillebeeckx's Theology Corneliu C. Simut, 2010-02-18 This book presents the main teachings of Edward Schillebeeckx widely considered one of the most important Catholic thinkers of the twentieth century Schillebeeckx is known for his radical departure from traditional theology which he saw as no longer relevant to the modern world Because today s world has been shaped by a process of secularization heavily based on reason and progress in science technology economics urbanism etc modern people seek relevant answers to their deep existential guestions that can be explained rationally In his quest to foster relevant and meaningful answers for today s world Schillebeeckx changed the traditional metaphysical content of Christian theology into explanations that radically reinterpret traditional Christian doctrines Primarily the supernatural essence of Christianity is given up as irrelevant and is replaced by a natural perspective on the world In Schillebeeckx s thoroughly historical and truly immanent theology God is man s terrestrial future Christ the symbol of universal human values and the Church is identified with the world as those communities which share these universal human values Schillebeeckx is convinced that these explanations emptied of metaphysical content can help today s people understand their existence in a new relevant and meaningful way

Theology at the Crossroads of University, Church and Society Lieven Boeve, 2016-08-25 Lieven Boeve examines the place of theology in the university the church and society He emphasizes that theology certainly belongs to all of these three domains as it belongs to the nature of theology to involve itself in all three spheres especially at the crossroads where they overlap Boeve discusses the recent document Theology

Today from the International Theological Commission which circumscribes theology s place and task in the Catholic Church Boeve discusses how the difficult relation between theology and philosophy is typical for a Church which has difficulty with the dialogue in today s world as well as examines the relation between theology and religious studies Going further Boeve offers a reflection on Catholic identity today focusing more specifically on education He presents four models for considering the identity of Catholic schools in the light of the changed society and argues that dialogue in a context of plurality and difference can lead to new fruitful ways to shape even the Catholic identity Boeve concludes his discussion with a short assessment of Pope Benedict's papacy and emphasizes the need for the Catholic Church to convert itself before it can call the world to do the same Hermeneutics and Empirical Research in Practical Theology Chris Hermans, Mary Moore, 2021-09-20 There is a growing consensus among scholars in different countries about the object of practical theology Hans van der Ven has contributed much to this consensus through his writings on the foundations of practical theology the empirical paradigm within practical theology and specific subdisciplines within practical theology especially religious education moral education church development and ministry At the center of this growing consensus is an understanding of the independent hermeneutical role of religious experiences and practices of people in the process of theological theory building If contemporary religious experiences and practices have a critical role with regard to religious tradition and the ministry of this tradition then practical theology cannot just be a form of applied theology. The contributors of this volume focus on this hermeneutical core foundations of practical theology and on empirical research as a research method within practical theology in the work of Van der Ven The Human Image of God Hans-Georg Ziebertz, Friedrich Schweitzer, Hermann Häring, Don Browning, 2021-10-01 A new wave of religious energy is sweeping through the western nations Although God is disappearing from religious discourse in western culture both as a word and as a concept there is a definite undercurrent of religious ardour which is growing in strength It focuses all the more attention on the issue what or who is God in the modern era This is the question examined through systematic studies practical theology and empirical research that are presented here through anthropologically relevant theology Renowned international authors make it plain in this book the question of God is exciting again This book is published in honour of Johannes A van der Ven on the occasion of his 60th birthday Practical Theology Mark J. Cartledge, 2012-04-04 Mark Cartledge's book is unique in integrating charismatic and empirical perspectives in practical theology It exemplifies both qualitative and quantitative methods of research and suggests a way forward for the emerging field of charismatic theology In part one Cartledge offers a proposal for the development of a charismatic practical theology He surveys the different models of the interaction of practical theology and social sciences and defends one that is consistent with charismatic spirituality. The section also explores how charismatic spirituality affects theories of truth and knowledge by making testimony an integrating center before concluding with a clear explanation of the methods of research employed Part two progresses into six empirical studies on charismatic worship glossolalia and postmodernity women and prophetic activity the Toronto Blessing healing and socialization Each chapter of this important book ends with a methodological reflection and suggestions from renewed theological praxis enforcing the values of such methods of study for a clearer understanding of charismatic Christianity constructionism and theology [electronic resource] Chris A. M. Hermans, 2002 Practical theology starts its theological reflections from practices aims at analyzing empirically practices and is directed towards the transformation of these practices From this practice orientation there is a strong connection between practical theology and the social sciences Social constructionism is a growing theory within the social sciences This volume offers a theological and social scientific reflection on this emerging concept of social constructionism Participatory Learning Chris A. M. Hermans, 2003-01-01 Annotation Hermans professor of identity of Catholic schools and religious education Catholic U of Nijmegen the Netherlands analyzes religious education in the context of globalization as a cultural phenomenon a phenomenon characterized by processes of rationalization fragmentation and transformation He explores the changing nature of tradition in terms of Christian concepts of transcendence and immanence as it relates to education After attempting to define the characteristics of religion as experience language and practice he proposes a concept of religious instruction based on participation Participatory learning is defined as developmental social mediated and meaningful learning Annotation c 2003 Book News Varieties of Personal Theology David T. Gortner, 2016-02-17 Varieties of Personal Inc Portland OR booknews com Theology starts from the premise that all human beings are folk theologians active not only in constructing selves but also in constructing worlds and guiding philosophies of life Through fascinating indepth interviews and surveys David Gortner looks specifically at emerging adults aged 18 25 as young theologians who regardless of religious background wrestle with fundamental questions of place purpose ultimate cause and ultimate aims in life This book charts the subtle and significant influences of social class family school work peer relationships religion and intrinsic attitudes and dispositions on young adults personal theologies and traces the ways their personal theologies connect with choices they make in their daily lives in education jobs leisure and relationships Intentionally crossing boundaries between religious and social science fields Gortner combines perspectives from both to demonstrate how theological diversity persists in America despite some clear culturally dominant trends This book reveals how American young adults are active theologians forging diverse ways of seeing and being in the world shaped by their experiences and in turn continuing to shape their choices in life The Absence of God Piet Zuidgeest, 2021-10-01 This volume deals with the meaning of the Christian tradition to individuals particularly in a situation of mourning The author formulates the relation of the tradition with the individual as a communicative interpersonal and intrapersonal conception of tradition The meaning of the tradition is described in terms of a hermeneutic narrative interpretation of classical texts A practicum is presented as a form of guidance in mourning The empirical exploration shows that the theme of the absence of God presented in texts of the Psalms has an important meaning These texts give believers in grief the opportunity to cope with their loss The God of the Pastor Gerard Zuidberg, 2001 This publication arising from a study of the spirituality of Roman Catholic priests and pastoral workers m f provides fascinating new information regarding the personal situation lifestyle and pastoral development of pastors in Holland and Empirical Research in Theology Johannes A. van der Ven, Michael Scherer-Rath, 2004-11-01 The idea for this volume originates from the first meeting of the International Society of Empirical Research in Theology ISERT in 2002 at the Radboud University Nijmegen In this volume researchers and academics from South Africa Great Britain Switzerland Germany and the Netherlands debate about the fundamental question of the role of theological normativity in empirical research in theological fields In fourteen contributions this book would like to illuminate the significance of this central topic for the discipline of practical theology The first part of the book provides a discussion about the empirical character of practical theology and the consequences for scientific research in theological fields. The second part deals with the normative implications of empirical research It is shown with the help of concrete research projects that empirical research is possible in practical theology and that theology works normatively in empirical research Writing Methods in Theological Reflection Heather Walton, 2014-08-12 Writing Methods in Theological Reflection offers a stimulating provocative and accessible book that will be of use to students and practitioners who are seeking ways to use their own experience in the Spiritual Care in a Hospital Setting Wim Smeets, 2006-10-01 This book work of spiritual and theological reflection reports on a theoretical and empirical study of spiritual care as a profession in health care particularly from the angle of quality care Theoretically the central issues in spiritual care are analysed quality care medicalisation and contingency as its limit the function of worldviews in health care personal identity legitimacy and position in health care goals and tasks of the profession Specific attention is spent to the determinants of the goals in the interaction with patients Empirically the attitudes of Dutch spiritual caregivers towards these issues are investigated. The book provides insight into the professional discipline spiritual care and discusses some challenges for the future the intrinsic meaning of the plurality of worldviews within spiritual care the institutional aspects of this spiritual care and the educational implications of spiritual care as a professional discipline The book is particular useful for spiritual caregivers in their reflection on their practice and for The Wiley Blackwell Reader in Practical Theology Bonnie J. education of future spiritual caregivers Miller-McLemore, 2019-08-06 Contains a general introduction to the discipline featuring classic and pioneering essays that address the history methods issues and exemplary illustrations of research teaching and practice Presenting a diverse collection of landmark essays The Wiley Blackwell Reader in Practical Theology explores the turn of the century renaissance of practical theology as an academic discipline and shows how the discipline has advanced a steady epistemological insurgency in theology throughout the twentieth and twenty first century The text provides scholars students and ministerial professionals with easy access to original seminal sources that represent major milestones growing edges and useful classificatory rubrics A handy one volume primer to practical theology the book Offers an excellent bird s eye view of the discipline s essential foundational contributions Provides significant introductory overview material helpful in guiding both new and experienced readers to practical theology Includes brief overview introductions before each essay to situate the reading and highlight key contributions and occasional limitations Features essay selections that consider race gender sexuality age and other differences as a critical subtheme The Wiley Blackwell Reader in Practical Theology is an indispensable resource for students faculty and professionals in practical theology and colleagues in related cognate disciplines in theological education and religious studies Religion as a Profession Hans Schilderman, 2005-09-01 This volume offers a conceptual and empirical study of the religious profession It takes as its point of departure professionalisation theory that is discussed and applied to a profession in mainstream religion in this case Dutch Catholic ministry The book entails a well documented empirical study of attitudes of clergy and lay personnel in the Dutch Roman Catholic Church regarding the pastoral profession Their attitudes towards church authority apostolicity sacramental efficacy accession to the office and spiritual role are described extensively. The research clarifies the extent to which these religious attitudes act as a positive or negative motif to engage in policies that are aimed at a professional development of the occupation The book offers an excellent insight into basic characteristics of a religious profession Participation and Beliefs in Popular Religiosity Francesco Zaccaria, 2010 Exploring the relation between popular religious participation and beliefs about God human suffering Jesus Christ and the church this empirical theological study offers the picture of a complementary relation between popular religiosity and official religion within Italian Catholicism Human Rights or Religious Rules? Johannes A. van der Ven, 2010-03-08 The relation between religion and human rights is a contested one as they appear to compete with one another Religion is often considered to represent a tradition of heteronomy and subordination in premodern times Human rights emerged from early modern and modern times and stand for principles like human dignity autonomy equality The first question in this book is how to define religion its meaning functions and structures and how to study it The second guestion is how to understand religion from its relation with human rights in such a way that justice is done to both religion and human rights These questions are dealt with using a historical and systematic approach The third question is what the impact of religion might be on attitudes towards human rights i e human rights culture For an answer empirical research is reported among about 1000 students Christians Muslims and nonreligious at the end of secondary and the beginning of tertiary education in the Netherlands Urban Ecclesiology Pascal D. Bazzell, 2015-05-21 Pascal D Bazzell brings the marginal ecclesiology of a Filipino ecclesial community facing homelessness FECH into contemporary ecclesiological conversation in order to deepen the ecumenical understanding of today s ecclesial reality He contributes relevant data to support a theory of an ecclesial oriented paradigm that fosters ecclesial communities within homeless populations There is an extensive dialogue occurring between ecclesiologies church planting theories or urban missions and the urban poor Yet the situation with the homeless population is almost entirely overlooked The majority of urban mission textbooks do not acknowledge an ecclesial oriented state of being and suggest that the street level environment is a place where no discipleship can occur and no church should exist By presenting the FECH s case study Bazzell emphasizes that it is possible to live on the streets and to grow in the faith of God as an ecclesial community To be able to describe the FECH's ecclesial narrative Bazzell develops a local ecclesiological methodology that aims to bridge the gap between more traditional systematic and theoretical ideal ecclesiology and practical oriented ecclesiology e g congregational studies in order to hold together theological and social understandings of the church in its local reality He articulates a theological framework for the FECH to reflect on who they are the essence of identity studies who they are in relationship to God the essence of theological studies and what that means for believers in that community as they relate to God and to each other in ways that are true to who they are and to who God intends them to be the essence of ecclesial studies The research provides a seldom heard empirical tour into the FECH s social world and communal identity The theological findings from the FECH's hermeneutical work on the Gospel of Mark reveal an understanding of church being developed as gathering around Jesus that creates a space for God's presence to be embodied in their ordinary relationships and activities and to invite others to participate in that gathering Moreover it addresses ecclesial issues of the supernatural world honor shame values and further develop the neglected image of the familia Dei in classical ecclesiology that encapsulates well the FECH s nature mission and place
