God Sense Reading The Bible For Preaching:

God Sense Paul Scott Wilson, 2001 Paul Wilson draws on the practice of patristic and medieval exegesis to inform the contemporary preacher's encounter with Scripture The Four Pages of the Sermon Paul Scott Wilson, 2010-09-01 Doing justice to the complexity of the preaching task and the questions that underlie it Wilson organizes both the preparation and the content of the sermon around its four pages Each page addresses a different theological and creative component of what happens in any sermon Page One presents the trouble or conflict that takes place in or that underscores the biblical text itself Page Two looks at similar conflict sin or brokenness in our own time Page Three returns to the Bible to identify where God is at work in or behind the text in other words to discover the good news Page Four points to God at work in our world particularly in relation to the situations described in Page Two The New Interpreter's® Handbook of Preaching

, 2010-11-01 The New Interpreter's Handbook of Preaching is a major reference tool for preaching with articles on every facet of Christian sermon preparation and delivery This resource is both scholarly and practical It focuses on the most distinctive feature and greatest strength of homiletics as a discipline It is rooted in interdisciplinary scholarship and it develops theory geared to practice Its theory arises out of the study of both excellent preaching past and present and actual sermon preparation and composition When theory and practice critique each other it is possible to produce guidelines that assist greater excellence and economy in preaching the gospel Excellence in standards is an area in which homiletics needs to grow and this project will be both a means to encourage and develop it A guiding question throughout will be Will it preach The answers will be offered in the sense that here is something that works well rather than here is something to try Preachers will turn to this resource with the expectation that they will find scholarly treatment of topics brief bibliographies of relevant key books and articles along with practical methodological suggestions for preachers to employ The contributors are homileticians preachers and writers in various disciplines who are committed to the pulpit through practice

Preaching with Accuracy Randal E. Pelton, 2019-03-21 A resource to help pastors correctly identify the big idea of a passage and apply it well Preaching with Accuracy provides preachers with a method for finding the big idea in each passage of the Bible since correctly identifying the main point is key to accurately conveying the essential theology of the passage Pelton lays out a reliable well informed method for identifying the main point of a preaching passage and understanding that passage well in its context Numerous examples are given at each step of the way to show how meaning develops throughout the process of interpretation Pelton then guides the preacher through applying a Christ centered hermeneutic that will result in biblical sermons that benefit and equip believers The Four Pages of the Sermon, Revised and Updated Paul Scott Wilson, 2018-09-18 Doing justice to the complexity of the preaching task and the questions that underlie it author Paul Scott Wilson organizes both the preparation and the content of the sermon around its four pages Each page addresses a different theological and creative component of what happens in any sermon Page One presents the trouble or conflict that takes place in or that underscores the biblical text itself Page Two looks at similar conflict sin or brokenness in our own time Page Three returns to the Bible to identify where God is at work in or behind the text in other words to discover the good news Page Four points to God at work in our world particularly in relation to the situations described in Page Two This approach is about preaching the gospel in nearly any sermon form Wilson teaches the what why and how of sermon construction all rooted in a theology of the Word This completely revised edition guides readers through the sermon process step by step with the aim of composing sermons that challenge and provide hope by focusing on God more closely than on humans It has been largely rewritten to include an assessment of where preaching is today in light of propositional preaching the New Homiletic African American preaching the effect of the internet and use of technology A chapter on exegesis has been added plus new focus on the importance of preaching to a felt need the need for proclamation in addition to teaching and developing tools to ensure sermon excellence New sermon examples have been added along with a section that responds to critics and looks to the future

Preaching Must Die! Jacob D. Myers, 2017-10-18 The real question for homiletics in our increasingly postmodern post Christian contexts is not how we are going to prevent preaching from dying but how we are going to help it die a good death Preaching was not made to live At most preaching is a witness a sign a crimson X marking a demolition site The church has developed sophisticated technologies in modernity to give preaching the semblance of life belying the truth preaching was born under a death sentence It was born to die Only when preaching embraces its own death is it able to live This book then is a bold homiletical manifesto against preaching in support of preaching and beyond preaching to the entire worship experience It troubles modern homiletical theologies in light of the trouble always already at work within preaching Hereby it supports a way of preaching and teaching preaching that moves counter to the wisdom of this world It aims to join in God's self revealed counterlogic of superabundance that saturates and thereby breaks open worldly systems of thought and practice The purpose of this book is to expose preaching to its own death to help it embrace its death so that it can discover what eternal and abundant life might look and feels like

Thoughtful Proclaimer Elizabeth Wright Anderson, 2017-10-23 Thoughtful Proclaimer takes you from passage choice to proclamation This book walks with you through message preparation that transforms both your heart and the hearts of your congregation or class Aimed at those who proclaim the Word of God in a variety of church and parachurch settings the Thoughtful Proclaimer method uses a contemplative question based technique to determine the Commander's intent God's purpose for every passage of scripture God's intent for a passage becomes the point for proclamation of a redemptive and relevant message Anderson uses humor and story to teach good communication techniques so that every message brings lasting transformation to your listeners

Biblical Exegesis, Third Edition John H. Hayes, Carl R. Holladay, 2007-03-19 John Hayes and Carl Holladay have thoroughly revised and expanded this best selling textbook adding new chapters on emerging methods of interpretation and the use of computer technology for exegesis All bibliographies have been updated and Scripture has been converted to the

NRSV This new edition retains the features of the early editions a minimum of technical terms solid introductory guidelines in exegetical methods and a valuable presentation of exegetical theory and practice It is ideal for general introductory exegesis courses introductions to the Old and New Testaments and introduction to preaching as well as for pastors and lay leaders

Preaching Paul Dr. Brad R. Braxton, 2010-08-01 Helpful and insightful strategies for preaching from the writings of Paul Few biblical figures are more compelling to preachers than the apostle Paul The story of his dramatic conversion on the road to Damascus is a favorite example of the way that God turns lives around His writings contain the earliest witness we have to the Christian gospel His message of God's offer of grace in the life death and resurrection of Jesus Christ is deeply appealing So why is it that when it comes time to choose a text for this Sunday's sermon preachers so often choose something other than Paul When Brad Braxton asked himself that question he realized that preachers are often daunted by the size and complexity of the Pauline corpus Drawing on his expertise as a New Testament scholar and homiletics professor as well as on his experience as a pastor Braxton offers the reader tools with which to wrestle more effectively with the complex yet essential message of Paul Eschewing either a solely historical approach or a completely spiritual one the author brings the two together to explore the meaning of Paul's message in its original context as well as its contemporary application Written with imagination and depth of understanding this book is for anyone who wishes to know Paul better and to preach from his letters more effectively

God's Word and Our Words W. Hulitt Gloer, Shawn E. Boyd, 2019-09-18 Written by nationally and internationally known homileticians and preachers this book offers a fascinating survey of the significant developments in preaching beginning with the Old Testament moving through the history of preaching and concluding with a look into the future all while offering practical suggestions for meeting the challenges that lie ahead In a unique way it addresses both the academic issues raised during each period and the practical implications for preaching today and in the future

Setting Words on Fire Paul Scott Wilson, 2010-10-01 In the second half of the twentieth century a profound shift took place in how we think about preaching We moved away from a vertical focus on the preacher who hands down the authoritative teaching to more relational narrative and conversational models Yet common to both of these understandings says Paul Scott Wilson is the idea that preaching is primarily about teaching that it mainly conveys information about God Important as this emphasis on preaching as teaching has been Wilson believes that the time for a new approach has arrived That new approach which he names preaching as proclamation has begun to arise from a variety of Euro American and African American sources Its primary aim is not to convey information but to engender an encounter with God's grace in Christ More than guiding people to say Yes now I understand it hopes to lead them to proclaim I am redeemed we are saved More than telling the gospel story it renders the gospel's claim on human lives leading to conviction of sin repentance and transformation Pulling together the disparate strands of this new homiletical school Wilson constructs a comprehensive introduction to preaching focusing on its character as proclamation of the sovereign grace of God

Moments in Time HyeRan Kim-Cragg, 2024-11-13 This book is about preaching in The United Church of Canada Gathering together two or three sermons from each decade in the first century of the United Church's life authors HyeRan Kim Cragg and Don Schweitzer share the perspectives of diverse United Church preachers facing events from the formation of the United Church to the challenge of online ministry during a pandemic Each sermon is accompanied by historical context an analysis of homiletical techniques and the influence of each sermon and preacher From the opening chapters of Moments in Time readers will be transported across the last century to survey the landscape and legacy of this beloved institution that has played such an influential role in Canadian religious history and society

The Witness of Preaching, Second Edition Thomas G. Long, 2005-10-20 This thorough and detailed revision of The Witness of Preaching is even clearer and more helpful than the first edition Long has updated the language expanded the key chapter on biblical exegesis and included more examples of sermon forms illustrations and conclusions He continues to critically engage the best thinkers in the field of homiletics bringing into the conversation both important new voices and the latest works of those who appeared in the first edition In addition he addresses some of the new forces at work such as the use of video clips and PowerPoint presentations in sermons

A Commentary Upon the Holy Bible, from Henry and Scott; with Numerous Observations and Notes from Other Writers; Also Maps of the Countries Mentioned in Scripture, Etc, 1835

The Preacher as Liturgical Artist Trygve David Johnson, 2014-01-24 Trygve Johnson invites us to consider a new metaphor of identity of The Preacher as Liturgical Artist This identity draws on a theology of communion and the doctrine of the vicarious humanity of Christ to relocate the preacher's identity in the creative and ongoing ministry of Jesus Christ Johnson argues the metaphorical association of the preacher and artist understood within the artistic ministry of Jesus Christ frees the full range of human capacities including the imagination to bear upon the arts of Christian proclamation The Preacher as Liturgical Artist connects preachers to the person and work of Jesus Christ whose own double ministry took the raw materials of the human condition and offered them back to the Father in a redemptive and imaginative fashion through the Holy Spirit. It is in the large creative ministry of Jesus Christ that preachers find their creativity freed to proclaim the gospel bodily within the context of the liturgical work of God's people.

Alive to the Word Stephen I. Wright, 2013-01-25

In Alive to the Word, Stephen Wright offers a constructive introduction to preaching as an existing and varied practice throughout the church on which it is important to continue to reflect theologically so that it is executed with developing spirituality, understanding and skill. Alive to the Word includes discussion of the full range of key components in the understanding and practice of preaching from its basic theological rationale right through to the dynamics of live communication and its aftermath. The book begins by reflecting on the nature and the context of preaching, not least in a communications culture, and moves on to setting a constructive agenda for the development of preaching as a core practice of the Christian church for the preacher, the congregation and the wider church.

Basis of Preaching: Biblical Message: Preach the Word Rev Dr Koningthung Ngoru Moyon, 2024-11-07

Public Speaking is one of the most important tasks and challenging to human beings. It is imperative for all committed Christians to learn and live with the Biblical truths. As such, the knowledge and application of Scripture is an utmost necessity to be grounded upon the word of God. The necessity of Scripture means that the Bible is necessary for knowing the gospel for maintaining spiritual and moral life and for knowing God's will, but is not necessary for knowing that God exists or for knowing something about God's character and moral law.

Basis of Preaching: Biblical Message: Preach the Word is for the glory of God, the building up of the church and society, and the spreading of the Gospel to the ends of the earth, that is to all creation. Biblical preaching is centered around and takes its content from the inerrant Word of God. True Biblical preaching aims at life change. Biblical preaching also comes through the personality of the preacher. Some communicators or preachers are encouragers, some are confrontational, some are humorous while others use sound logic and well-reasoned content. It is not good to fall into the trap of trying to mimic your favourite preacher. Instead, learn from them and develop your own style as a good communicator.

Rev Dr Koningthung Ngoru Moyon presents Biblical Preaching in his book Basis of Preaching: Biblical Message: Preach the Word. It is both an art and a science. It is a science in the sense that there are rules and principles of communication that we are to follow. It is an art in that each person brings his own unique personality and style to the preaching experience. Preaching is truth through personality. Both are necessary. However, the very important and foremost focus in the book is that Biblical Preaching is empowered by the work of the Holy Spirit. This is the focus in the book.
