A photograph of a man and a woman sitting on a dark wooden church bench. The woman, on the left, is wearing a dark dress and black heels, with her hands resting on her lap. The man, on the right, is wearing a dark suit and black shoes, with his hands clasped in his lap. Both are looking down, and the overall mood is somber and reflective. The background is a plain, light-colored wall.

Stubbe, 2005 Something is wrong People are going missing right in front of your eyes One minute they are staring back at you from their favorite pew the next Sunday you are looking at an empty spot in that pew Is there a way to determine ahead of time which members are the likely religious dropouts Often the clues are clearly visible but can you recognize them What's more do you know what you can do now to keep your missing members from drifting away The secret lies in knowing and understanding the attitudes and belief systems that people hold because certain sets of attitudes are linked to inactivity A detailed examination of this distressingly common experience Solving The Missing Member Puzzle can help you spot potential dropouts in advance learn the reasons why they become inactive and counteract the process with a proactive strategy for reaching them while they are still within your grasp Based on blind interviews with individuals from ten different congregations it reveals the underlying attitudes and belief systems that encourage or discourage dropping out of church Solving The Missing Member Puzzle is a valuable tool for leaders of any church or organization it shows how you can develop more faithful members and assists in their growth participation and retention Don't wait until people drop out before you take action Learn ways to anticipate which members of your congregation might become inactive and the preventive measures that you can take to help keep them in the pews Arlon K Stubbe is the pastor of Christ Lutheran Church in Sharon Pennsylvania He previously served parishes in Michigan He is also the author of Shaping the Word LPTC Publishing He is a graduate of Carthage College and the Lutheran School of Theology at Chicago The Glorious Salvation Machine Lee W. Time to Kill, a Time to Heal Roger Helle, 2019-01-04 Ron entered the long hospital corridor looking for his brother Roger. After searching the ward unsuccessfully he approached a doctor standing by the bed of a patient. I'm Sergeant Helle's brother, he said. How is he? The doctor looked at Ron and said I'm sorry son but your brother is going to die. There's nothing else we can do. Just a few beds away drifting in and out of consciousness Roger heard the doctor's death sentence. Not yet twenty-three years old he felt fear grip his heart in a way he had not even experienced on the battlefield. That fear caused him to do something he had never done before. Roger silently prayed God if there is a God if you let me live I'll do anything you want. Then he slipped mercifully back into a drug-induced sleep. That prayer would be answered in a way Roger could never have imagined but only after years of nightmares alcohol and tortured emotional battles. Peace did come at last as Roger not only made peace with Vietnam but the emotional pain of his past as well. Roger and Shirley Helle live in Chattanooga Tennessee. They retired from Teen Challenge in 2017 after 40 years of ministry. The Helle's continue to travel across the country speaking and ministering.
