God Who:

The God who Speaks Ben Campbell Johnson, 2004 This is a print on demand book and is therefore non returnable As Christians we believe that God speaks that God has spoken to people down through the centuries and still speaks to us today But just how does God speak to us Has his speech changed over time And how do we hear the voice of God In this insightful book Ben Campbell Johnson explores the subject of divine speech highlighting its importance to faith and leading Christian believers into the practice of listening for God's voice in daily life Johnson first explores the biblical foundations of divine communication tracing the ways that God has spoken to humankind from the calling of Abraham to the appearance of Jesus to the continuing work of the Spirit in the early church He then gleans important lessons about God's language from a wide range of Christian figures throughout history Polycarp Julian of Norwich Teresa of Avila Henri Nouwen and others As this historical record shows God communicates with us in a variety of ways In exploring these different modes of God's speech Johnson deftly guides readers into the practice of intensive listening a way of posing issues to God and discerning his response Numerous anecdotes illuminate Johnson's discussion and each chapter ends with questions for reflection and discussion as well as suggestions for journaling Johnson concludes the book by recounting a number of personal experiences that vividly illustrate the value of learning to listen to God's voice At a time when many Christians hunger for a more personal meaningful connection with God this book shows readers how to discern divine language and forge a closer richer relationship with the God who speaks

The God Who Risks John Sanders, 2010-07-09 If God is all knowing and all powerful can he in any way be vulnerable to his creation Can God be in control of anything at all if he is not constantly in control of everything John Sanders says yes to both of these questions In The God Who Risks he mounts a careful and challenging argument for positive answers to both of these profound theological questions In this thoroughly revised edition Sanders clarifies his position and responds to his critics His book will not only contribute to serious ongoing theological discussion but will enlighten pastors and laypersons who struggle with questions about suffering evil and human free will

The God Who Loves John F. MacArthur, 2008-07-06 God is love It's the most basic definition of God in Scriptures but so profound that it's often misunderstood In this probing book a brilliant Bible expositor brings us into the very heart of God by answering such questions as If God is love how could He send anyone to hell What's the difference between the loving God of the New Testament and the angry God of the Old Testament If God is love why did He require His Son to die such a cruel death on the Cross How can God be both loving and jealous The author argues against the two polar views of God as a sentimental grandfather whose doting love could not bring him to punishment of the disobedient and God as an angry tyrant who would rule by threats Both extremes paint a distorted picture of God and further confuse the issue of understanding God's love Dr MacArthur writes He insists that what God loves is actually defined by what He hates and that neither His love nor His wrath can be understood in isolation from the other Although the author is clearly aware of the way great men have grappled with these issues in the history of the Church his doctrinal presentations arise more from the biblical text than from dogmatic theology He examines in detail the way John the apostle of love treats love in his First Epistle then fleshes out the doctrine of God's love in vivid representations of real people interacting with divine love A God Who Speaks and Acts Malcolm I. Bartsch, 2013 This book contains the theological essentials for Lutheran educators and is written in a way which is not only understandable but can be applied in the daily challenges of school teaching learning and planning I strongly encourage chaplains teachers and principals to read and consider these theological essentials to enhance their understandings discussions and daily work

Discovering the God Who Is R. C. Sproul, 2008-02-01 The minister gently guided my mother away from the grave to a waiting car I moved behind them in a grim stupor I was confused I was hurt I was angry One question pierced my soul Who are you God And why do you do the things you do Thus began R C Sproul's search for ultimate truth and a personal encounter with the living God In Discovering the God Who Is readers will journey with Sproul to discover for themselves the magnificence of God's character and being his power and personality Sproul asks the questions many of us wonder about God Is the Bible the Word of God What is righteousness What is the difference between a moral and a legal right How does God create something from nothing Does God change his mind Sproul communicates deep truths in a fresh and easy to understand style Join R C Sproul as he shares his passion for God and excites the reader to dig deep and know the God who is alive who is real who relates to each one of us in our lives

The God Who Is with Us Benjamin H. Kim, 2022-10-21 Contemporary theologies of mission rely on the central concept of the missio Dei which states that mission properly belongs to the triune God over the church However present accounts fail to establish any corresponding link between God's trinitarian economy and ontology In other words the problem of the missio Dei is the problem of the break between the act and being of God Benjamin H Kim argues that a repair is needed for missio Dei theology and this repair is found in reexamining Barth's doctrine of revelation In doing so the locus of mission moves from God's trinitarian sending to his trinitarian revealing The repair is further advanced by Dietrich Bonhoeffer through his concept of person which functions as the unity of act and being This account returns mission to its original definition which was intended to describe the inner trinitarian being of God in relation to humanity The concept of person recovers this meaning of mission by locating it first in the person of Christ and second in the collective person of the church existing as the Christ community Thus Bonhoeffer's description of revelation in terms of personhood provides an account that is more faithful to the missio Dei's core insights

The God Who Trusts Wm. Curtis Holtzen, 2019-12-10 The Bible resounds with affirmations that God is faithful and trustworthy But might he also exhibit faith and trust Wm Curtis Holtzen contends that because God is a being of relational love and exists in relationship with humans then God is a God who trusts Holtzen argues that understanding the relationship between divine trust and human faith can give us a fuller truer picture of who God is and who we are

Warner M. Bailey,2013-06-10 Trust is at the heart of healthy relationships When trust is broken the victim is made to feel as nothing The Bible calls this experience of betrayal to be shamed When the victim names God as the betrayer those who exercise pastoral care in the church are faced with a spiritual crisis Pastors and those who exercise pastoral care are led through biblical study and theological reflection to insights that strengthen their role in the recovery of both the victims and the perpetrators of betrayal Central to this recovery is the solidarity of the self shaming God with both victim and perpetrator At the cross shame reaches its most intense expression as Jesus voices his abandonment by God Centering this pivotal experience in a doctrine of the Trinity makes clear how shame defines the very core of the redemptive work of God as Father Son and Spirit Through the resurrection of Jesus God triumphs over shame and this vindication of God s integrity is the basis for the evangelistic preaching of the early church The Self Shaming God Who Reconciles underscores how Scripture functions as a theological document when interpreted canonically Be Healed by the God Who Cares Sherif A.

Acts in History Craig G. Bartholomew, 2020-01-21 Did the decisive event in the history of Israel even happen? The Bible presents a living God who speaks and acts and whose speaking and acting is fundamental to his revelation of himself. God's action in history may seem obvious to many Christians but modern philosophy has problematized the idea. Today many theologians often use the Bible to speak of God while at best remaining agnostic about whether he has in fact acted in history. Historical revelation is central to both Jewish and Christian theology. Two major events in the Bible showcase divine agency: the revelation at Sinai in Exodus and the incarnation of Jesus in the gospels. Surprisingly there is a lack of serious theological reflection on Sinai by both Jewish and Christian scholars and those who do engage the subject often oscillate about the historicity of what occurred there. Craig Bartholomew explores how the early church understood divine action, looks at the philosophers who derided the idea and finally shows that the reasons for doubting the historicity of Sinai are not persuasive. The God Who Acts in History provides compelling reasons for affirming that God has acted and continues to act in history.

The God Who Makes Himself Known W. Ross Blackburn, 2012-05-24 Countering scholarly tendencies to fragment the text over theological difficulties, this New Studies in Biblical Theology volume contends that Exodus should be read as a unified whole and that an appreciation of its missionary theme in its canonical context is of great help in dealing with the difficulties that the book poses.

Now to God Who Is Able Neal D. Presa, Anne E. Zaki, 2023-12-11 The triune God of justice has a mission in the world which we are called to participate and partner in. The awesome nature of that mission and vision inspires and animates this volume. Now to God Who Is Able: An international array of Christian pastors, scholar-activists, parachurch ministry leaders and community organizers reflect critically on the theological, biblical, contextual and practical dimensions of what it means to bear witness of the gospel, orientated and anchored in God's justice. Using a trinitarian framework within the prophetic call to do justice, love mercy and walk humbly with God, this book speaks to the modern challenges and opportunities of the pastoral vocation, ecclesiology, hermeneutics, homiletics, ecumenism, theological education and missional theology. Each essay in this book honors the more than four decades of ministry of Mark Labberton, who retired as president of Fuller Theological Seminary in 2023.

you is walking beside you working to set you free Praying Thieves and the God Who Loves Them No Matter What Anne Marie Drew,2006-05-01 Based on the story of the two thieves who were crucified with Jesus Anne Marie Drew explores what it means to be a sinner and still say Jesus remember me when you enter upon your reign Jesus responds to the thief as if to us I assure you this day you will be with me in paradise Many people who are living in sin feel unworthy of God s attention but this is when prayer is more vital than ever Looking at the seven deadly sins Drew uses stories from the Bible from classic literature and from the saints to demonstrate that God never abandons us even when we are sinful Drew s voice is a refreshing change of pace in a culture that often makes sinners out to be hopeless offenders God Who Acts Thomas F. The God Who Plays Brian Edgar,2017-12-20 Many people would be surprised to hear that a playful attitude towards God and the world lies at the heart of Christian faith Traditionally Christians have focused on the serious responsibilities of service sacrifice and commitment But the prophets say that the future kingdom is full of people laughing and playing which has implications for Christians who are called to live out the future kingdom in the present Play is not trivial or secondary to work and service only a playful way of living does justice to the seriousness of life Play is the essential and ultimate form of relationship with God which is why Jesus told people to learn from children Indeed a playful attitude is an important part of all significant relationships This book explores grace faith love worship redemption and the kingdom from the perspective of a playful attitude It describes how to create a play ethic to match the work ethic and discusses play as a virtue Aquinas s warning against the sin of not playing enough and Bonhoeffer s claim that in a world of pain it is only the Christian who can truly play
