Trinity and Organism James Eglinton, 2012-03-29 This book explores the organic motif found throughout the writings of the Dutch Calvinist theologian Herman Bavinck 1854-1921 Noting that Bavinck uses this motif at key points in the most important loci of theology Christology general and special revelation ecclesiology and so forth it seems that one cannot read him carefully without particular attention to his motif of choice the organic By examining the sense in which Bavinck views all of reality as a beautiful balance of unity in diversity James Eglinton draws the reader to Bavinck's constant concern for the doctrine of God as Trinity If God is the Father the Son and the Holy Spirit Bavinck argues the creation must be more akin to an organism than a machine Trinity and organism are thus closely linked concepts Eglinton critiques and rejects the two Bavincks one orthodox and the other modern hermeneutic so commonplace in discussions of Bavinck's theology Instead this book argues for a reunited Herman Bavinck as a figure committed to the participation of historic orthodox theology in the modern world

Historical Theology Gregg Allison, 2011-04-19 Historical Theology presents the key pillars of the contemporary church and the development of those doctrines as they evolved from the history of Christian thought Most historical theology texts follow Christian beliefs in a strict chronological manner with the classic theological loci scattered throughout various time periods movements and controversies making for good history but confusing theology This companion to the classic bestseller Systematic Theology is unique among historical theologies Gregg Allison sets out the history of Christian doctrine according to a topical chronological arrangement one theological element at a time instead of committing to a discussion of theological thought according to its historical appearance alone This method allows you to Contemplate one tenet of Christianity at a time along with its formulation in the early church through the Middle Ages Reformation and post Reformation era and into the modern period Become familiar with the primary source material of Christian history's most important contributors such as Cyprian Augustine Aquinas Luther Calvin Barth and others Understand the development of evangelical doctrine with a focus on the centrality of the gospel Discern a sense of urgent need for greater doctrinal understanding in the whole church Historical Theology is an easy to read textbook for any Christian who wants to know how the church has come to believe what it believes today Gregg Allison's clear and concise structure make this resource an ideal introduction to Christian doctrine Instant Expert: The Bible Nick Page, 2013-03-07 What makes the Bible the world's best selling book year after year after year Where did it come from What's it all about And why does it continue to influence so many people around the world Instant Experts The Bible gives you everything you need to know about this ancient unique and powerful book This accessible informal introduction is for anyone who wants to find out what the Bible is where it came from and what it says It's the perfect starting point for anyone who wants to get to know the Bible but doesn't know where to start Evangelical Truth John Stott, 2012-07-14 John Stott's masterly distillation of sixty years reflection on Christian discipleship ranges over the history of the church and its formative teachings as well as the world wide church today He expounds the trinitarian character of the evangelical faith the gracious initiative of God the Father in revealing himself to us of Jesus Christ in redeeming us through the cross and of the indwelling Holy Spirit in transforming us This is why the three fold emphasis of evangelical faith is upon the Word of God the once for all nature of the work of Christ and the active continuing work of the Spirit This edition of Evangelical Truth contains The Cape Town Commitment a document produced by The Lausanne Movement faithfully reflecting the proceedings of The Third Lausanne Congress on World Evangelization The Christian Counselors's Manual Jay E. Adams, 1986 A companion and sequel volume to Competent to Counsel this volume includes indexes a detailed table of contents and many diagrams and forms all of which make this one of the best reference books for Christian counselors God's Word Alone---The Authority of Scripture Matthew Barrett, 2016-09-20 Scholar and pastor Matthew Barrett retraces the historical and biblical roots of the doctrine that Scripture alone is the final and decisive authority for God's people God's Word Alone is a decisive defense of the Bible as the inspired and inerrant Word of God Revitalizing one of the five great declarations of the Reformation sola Scriptura Barrett Analyzes what the idea of sola Scriptura is and what it entails clarifying why the doctrine is truth and why it's so essential to Christianity Surveys the development of this theme in the Reformation and traces the crisis that followed resulting in a shift away from the authority of Scripture Shows that we need to recover a robust doctrine of Scripture's authority in the face of today's challenges and why a solid doctrinal foundation built on God's Word is the best hope for the future of the church This book is an exploration of the past in order to better understand our present and the importance of reviving this indispensable doctrine for the Christian faith and church today THE FIVE SOLAS Historians and theologians have long recognized that at the heart of the sixteenth century Protestant Reformation were five declarations often referred to as the solas These five statements summarize much of what the Reformation was about and they distinguish Protestantism from other expressions of the Christian faith that they place ultimate and final authority in the Scriptures acknowledge the work of Christ alone as sufficient for redemption recognize that salvation is by grace alone through faith alone and seek to do all things for God's glory The Five Solas Series is more than a simple rehashing of these statements but instead expounds upon the biblical reasoning behind them leading to a more profound theological vision of our lives and callings as Christians and churches
