In the End, God . . . John A. T.

Robinson, 2011-01-01 Eschatology is the explication of what must be true of the end both of history and of the individual if God is to be the God of the biblical faith All eschatological statements can finally be reduced to and their validity tested by sentences beginning In the end God J A T Robinson The God revealed in Israel's story is the Lord of history a God with good purposes for his creation and a God capable of bringing those purposes to pass All biblical eschatology arises from this fundamental theological insight If God is this God then what shape must the future have John A T Robinson explores biblical eschatology with an eye both to the text and to contemporary culture Revealing the foundation of eschatology to be the experience of God by the community of faith he calls readers to embrace the eschatological vision of the Bible but to do so in a way that is alert to its mythic character In the course of these explorations Robinson also lays bare his own theology of universal salvation But contrary to what one may expect this universalism is one that seeks to take both human freedom and the reality of hell with the utmost seriousness This special edition of John A T Robinson s classic text also includes a debate between Robinson and Thomas F Torrance played out across three articles from the Scottish Journal of Theology in 1949 an extended introduction by Professor Trevor Hart University of St Andrews Scotland and a foreword by Gregory MacDonald author of The Evangelical Universalist
