questions about the nature of this beautiful odd comforting disturbing book the church calls its Holy Scripture Charlotte Vaughan Coyle shares her own journey to make sense of the Bible in this read through the Bible in a year project She discovered that the crucial work of asking hard questions and even arguing with the Bible revealed the Scriptures to be a symphony of polyphonic voices a work of art that paints an alternative vision of reality a complex novel like story unavoidably embedded in its own culture and time and yet able to give witness to the God beyond history who has acted and continues to act within history With the heart of a pastor and the passion of a preacher Rev Coyle invites seekers and students both church and un church to strap on their scuba gear and join her for a deeper dive beneath the surface of this immense colorful mysterious world of the Bible

Cultivating Gardens of God Ananta Kumar Giri, 2024-11-12 In self society religion and politics we are used to the language and discourse of Kingdom of God But in this God is presented as an omnipotent king who is also angry at slight deviation We get glimpses of such powerful and angry God in Old Testament as well as in many other religious traditions of the world In such a discourse and portrayal of God we fail to realize that God is mercy rahim karuna and compassion God is our ever awakened nurturer and He and She is continuously walking and meditating with us with mercy as well as firm challenges for self development mutual realizations and responsible cosmic engagement and participation The vision and discourse of Kingdom of God has many a time been confined within a logic of power where we are prone to valorize God's power in order to valorize our own power on Earth especially the logic of sovereignty at the level of self and society rather than realize God's mercy This book strives to transform this to Gardens of God
