Schwartz,Shimon Gesundheit,2015-01-01 The Biblical View of Man argues cogently that the Bible is more about human beings than about God and insists that in the biblical view what human beings need is not so much wisdom or grace but rather their own free will to fulfill the obligations that a loving God has bestowed upon them in order to allow them to prove and improve themselves According to Rabbi Leo Adler the exercise of such free will rather than implying a lack of need for God actually requires a firm commitment to God First published in German in 1965 this engaging interpretation of the Bible appears in English for the first time      An Inquiry Into the Nature, Symptoms, and Effects of Religious Declension Andrew Fuller,1859      Little Bottle in the Sea Stephen Westlund,2017-02-06 There is a Creator He made you and He loves you He desires to know you and for you to know Him He desires to be your friend He desires to walk with you and He desires for you to walk with Him in an ever increasing and deeper way But how does one walk with the invisible Creator How is one a friend to Him that is unseen It is through His love for you that He has made a way He has made a way for you to be near to Him In Him there is healing and hope There is courage and victory There is peace and joy In Him there is love and life and there is everything you need to truly live So what are you waiting for As deep calls to deep in the depths of your soul He is calling you to Himself Listen He is calling Come Walk with Me      The Holy Bible ...
