

Words from

ROMOLA

by George Eliot

an English Dictionary

A quill pen with a dark, feathery base and a light-colored, tapered shaft is positioned diagonally across the center of the image. It rests on a piece of aged, yellowish parchment. The parchment is covered in handwritten text in a cursive script, which is slightly blurred. The text appears to be in Spanish or Portuguese, with words like 'original', 'querido libro', and 'numero' visible. The background is a warm, reddish-brown color, possibly a book cover or endpaper.
