George Sand And Idealism:

George Sand and Idealism Naomi Schor, 1993 A reanalysis of Sand's major writing ranging from her early short stories to her later fiction which identifies her writing as an example of an aesthetic mode often associated with femininity The study compares Sand's place in the history of the realist novel to that of her male counterparts Gender in the Fiction of George Sand Françoise Massardier-Kenney, 2000 In Gender in the Fiction of George Sand Françoise Massardier-Kenney argues that the major nineteenth century French writer George Sand articulates in her novels a complex and extremely modern conception of gender questioning prevalent patriarchal modes of discourse and redefining masculinity and femininity Through the analysis of a representative sample of Sand's works Indiana Jacques La dernière Aldini Jeanne Horace Valvire Melle la Quintinie Gabriel Lucrezia Floriana and Nanon Massardier-Kenney uncovers the themes and strategies used by Sand to challenge essentializing and negative representations of women Gender in the Fiction of George Sand demonstrates the centrality of Sand's pioneering exploration of the construction of gender This original study will be of interest to scholars of nineteenth century French literature and culture women's literature and gender studies Method in Madness Jutta Emma Fortin, 2005 The language of the fantastic left its mark upon many different thinkers in 19th century Europe Marx's comparison of consumer goods to fetish objects works by Villiers de l'Isle Adam or other novelists about machines that assume lives of their own or the diagnoses of psychological illness offered by doctors in Maupassant's tales all blur the lines between scientific description and beliefs in the magical Building upon a wealth of critical studies devoted to the fantastic and upon Freud's theory of the unconscious Jutta Fortin proposes that many classic stories of the fantastic undermine basic psychological mechanisms that are designed to help their users cope with shocking or disturbing events By defining five of these defence mechanisms and analyzing stories by eight writers that both illustrate and subvert such mechanisms Dr Fortin offers reasons why fantastic stories appealed to those readers who wished to better understand human motivations BOOK JACKET George Sand and Autobiography J.A. Hiddleston, 2017-12-02 This book discusses George Sand's autobiography Histoire de ma Vie from a variety of perspectives thematic structural and stylistic and examines the often contradictory images of the author narrator that emerge in particular from Sand's confused and ambivalent attitude to her gender At each point Sand's intriguing work is placed in the context of modern autobiographical and feminist theory and measured against the conventions of traditional male autobiography What emerges is a hybrid androgynous text that combines different modes and voices giving a unique access to the person of the author herself both as she wished to appear and as she appears in spite of herself Idealism and Realism in Rustic Novels of George Sand Marguerite C. Bancroft, 1936 Disguise in George Sand's Novels Françoise Ghillebaert, 2009 Sandian heroines swirl around men in their sororal and sartorial disguises like moths around candle flames However as Disguise in George Sand's Novels illustrates the disguise is not an instrument to seduce men but rather to assert the heroines true selves The portrayal of female and androgynous protagonists in Rose et

Blanche 1831 Indiana 1832 Lia 1833 39 Gabriel 1839 Consuelo 1842 and La Comtesse de Rudolstadt 1844 is a metaphor to demonstrate the continuity of identities before and after the disguise as George Sand stipulates in her theory of the metamorphose. Disguise in George Sand's Novels explores the maturation process of Romantic and artistically inclined heroines and highlights the spiritual meaning of the disguise as a rite of passage for the birth of a new type of protagonist: spiritual, self-assertive and dedicated to erasing gender inequality and helping the poor. Gender and Citizenship Claudia

Moscovici, 2000-05-10 Moscovici proposes a new understanding of how gender relations were reformulated by both male and female writers in nineteenth century France. She analyzes the different versions of gendered citizenship elaborated by Friedrich Hegel, George Sand, Honoré de Balzac, Auguste Comte and Hercule Barbin, revealing a shift from a single dialectical or male-centered definition of citizenship to a double dialectical or bi-gendered one in which each sex plays an important role in subject citizenship and is defined as the negation of the other sex. Moscovici further argues that a double dialectical pattern of androgyny endows women with a relational cultural identity that secures their paradoxical roles as both representatives and outsiders to subject citizenship in nineteenth century French society and culture. Ecocritical

Approaches to Literature in French Douglas L. Boudreau, Marnie M. Sullivan, 2015-12-24 Ecocriticism is a critical approach that focuses on the representation in literature of the non-human elements of the natural world, a method of inquiry that has been largely limited to literature written in English. The aim of Ecocritical Approaches to Literature in French is twofold: to introduce ecocriticism to scholars of French language literature and to open ecocriticism to the vision and voices of French literature. The chapters look at work not only from France but also from North America, the Caribbean and Africa. The discussions include fiction, poetry, film and pedagogy. The goal of the collection is to demonstrate not only the applicability of ecocritical inquiry to literature in French but to demonstrate the possibilities of ecocritical theory on the study of French literature and also for ecocriticism itself. This collection will be a useful resource both for scholars of French language literature and also for ecocritics who may have had only limited contact with literatures in languages other than English.

The Literary Channel Margaret Cohen, Carolyn Dever, 2002-01-15 In the Channel zone the novel developed through interactions among texts, readers, writers and translators that inextricably linked national literary cultures. It served as a forum to promote and critique nationalist clichés, whether from the standpoint of Enlightenment cosmopolitanism, the insurgent nationalism of colonized spaces or the non-nationalized culture of consumption. In the process the Channel zone promoted codes that became the genre's hallmarks, including the sentimental poetics that would shape fiction through the nineteenth century. Approaches to Teaching Sand's Indiana David A. Powell, Pratima Prasad, 2015-12-01 Offers techniques for teaching Sand's novel, including bringing gender, class, slavery, postcolonial theory, geography of empire and literary and historical contexts such as Romanticism, Enlightenment melodrama and the tragic mulatta into college classrooms. Includes information on editions, reference works and online resources. Gives syllabus suggestions for undergraduate and graduate
