Catalogue of the Library of George Perkins Marsh University of Vermont,1892      George Washington's Revenge Arthur S. Lefkowitz,2022-11-15 In late August 1776 a badly defeated Continental Army retreated from Long Island to Manhattan By early November George Washington s inexperienced army withdrew further into New Jersey and by the end of the year into Pennsylvania During this dark night of the American Revolution the times that try men s souls Washington began developing the strategy that would win the war In this illuminating account Arthur Lefkowitz reveals how George Washington turned defeat into victory During his retreat across New Jersey Washington reconceived the war keep the army mobile target isolated detachments of the British Army rely on surprise and deception form partisan units and avoid large scale battles This new strategy first bore fruit in the crossing of the Delaware on Christmas night 1776 and the attack on the British at Trenton and Princeton From there Washington took up winter quarters at Morristown New Jersey and moved into the mountains an ideal position from which to check British movements toward Philadelphia or north up the Hudson The British tried and failed several times to coax Washington into a decisive battle Stymied the British were forced to attack Philadelphia by sea and they would not be able to seize Philadelphia in time to support the British invasion of upstate New York which ended in defeat at Saratoga Lefkowitz relies on a lifetime of deep research on the Revolutionary War and close knowledge of New Jersey to tell this exciting important story whose impact rippled throughout the rest of the war      Index of Patents Issued from the United States Patent Office United States.
