in the 1960s into such stylistic labels as Earth Art Systems Art Body Art and Performance Art During this critical period artists around the world began testing the limits of what art could be how it might be produced and who the artist is Collaboration emerged as a prime way to reframe these questions Green looks at three distinct types of collaboration the highly bureaucratic identities created by Joseph Kosuth Ian Burn Mel Ramsden and other members of Art the close knit relationships based on marriage or lifetime partnership as practiced by the Boyle Family Anne and Patrick Poirier Helen Mayer Harrison and Newton Harrison and couples like Christo and Jeanne Claude Gilbert George or Marina Abramovic and Ulay who developed third identities effacing the individual artists almost entirely These collaborations Green contends resulted in new and at times extreme authorial models that continue to inform current thinking about artistic identity and to illuminate the origins of postmodern art suggesting in the process a new genealogy for art in the twenty first century The Glory of Van Gogh Nathalie Heinich,1997-11-16 The author explores how and why the impoverished and mentally tormented Van Gogh came to be glorified shortly after his suicide at the age of 37 Apart from describing his life she also explores the economics of the art market In an appendix attention is given to Van Gogh and art criticism in France 1888 1901
