I think God has a sense of humor, and the way my lessons come from God is very funny. I have to laugh at myself even if it's a tough lesson.

Living the Dream Allen Wellenstein, 2020-11-24 My first book was The Life and Times of the Rich Hobo. This book Living the Dream is an extension of the last book. I picked the name Living the Dream. In all of my books, I say that all the time. Some days I feel like I am living the dream. I wrote the book because I had so many stories to tell everyone so many things I have done, places I have seen, and people I have met over the years. I am hoping and praying that my book will help people get closer to God. I get to share my experiences, strengths, and hope with my readers. I get to write about my Christian walk with God. One day at a time, how I have been in recovery for thirty-two years. There are some crazy stories I want to tell people about God and how He has changed my life. How God takes care of me so much. I get to write about His love and grace in my life. A lot of stories of the wacky things I have done. The miracles I have seen on the streets. Also the miracles I have seen in Church. My traveling stories, freight train, hoping street living. I want to let people know the stories of street living. Living with so much pain off and on the streets. My mental and physical problems I deal with daily. The things that haunt me. In my book, I want to let people know about my business and my daily struggles. How I get treated selling my wares. I also write about how many nice people have blessed me. Writing about me being a hobo at heart. I put a God story in each chapter or I write it at the end of the chapter. I really enjoy telling and writing stories. That is what living the dream is all about. Loving what I do for a living. Getting to do what I want when I want to. Life is a vacation. I get to tell stories of the angels that are watching over me. How a man can live off of God's blessing and his wits. Telling stories of how much I love trains even when I lived on the streets. I told people I was living the dream. God bless you. Enjoy. See you down the road. Has Anyone Ever Seen God?

Carolyn Larsen, 2016-11-28 No one has ever seen the face of God, but we can be sure He is near. Cheerful artwork with a modern whimsical style wraps around honest, easy-to-understand answers to your toughest questions about God, the creation, and the Bible. Has Anyone Ever Seen God? will inspire and offer comfort as you grow closer to God and gain a better understanding of His character, the world He created, and His Holy Bible. Also serves as a heartfelt gift of love and promise to those who are considering faith or are new believers. Set Apart Maggie Casola, 2023-02-20 In Set Apart, Magdalene Casola lays out her spiritual journey to Jesus Christ. It was a long journey with a lot of twists and turns, successes, and setbacks, but it led directly to the throne of God. As the saying goes, hindsight is twenty-twenty, and looking back, Ms. Casola can now recognize how God had always had His hand on her life.
