Great Stories from the Prairies Birk Sproxtton,2000 As expansive as a prairie sky as refreshing as a cool breeze on a hot summer day Great Stories from the Prairies collects the best prairie stories of the last one hundred years From Frederick Phillip Grove s classic Snow to the contemporary delights of Sandra Birdsell and Carol Shields prairie writers have existed always in relation to landscape and a strong sense of place Tracing the development of prairie writing over one hundred years Great Stories from the Prairies reveals how broad the influence of landscape but also provides refreshing insight into its many nuances You will find for instance traditional cultural icons of wind dust and the vast expanse of land and sky But nestling against them you will discover the rich circuitry of city life as in the stories of Guy Vanderhaeghe Carol Shields and Meeka Walsh Playing off that nuance are the parklands and boreal forests of Kristjana Gunnars and W D Valgardson s great inland sea of Lake Winnipeg But perhaps Great Stories from the the Prairies is best characterized by Margaret Laurence who speculates about how prairie dwellers with their horizon accustomed eyes see the world differently from other Canadians This unique collection celebrates that distinct view Education Manitoba ,1988

Stories Plus John Metcalf,1979 Flaming Embers Nela Bureu Ramos,2010 Desire in the broadest sense as a form of generous self assertion should ideally increase with the passage of time as we gradually acquire deeper insight into ourselves and others Prescriptive cultural stereotypes however put obstacles on our path to progress as individuation Yet growing older should not entail renunciation of the singularity of personal fulfilment This volume is a collection of literary testimonies to the power of art to challenge and resist the social constraints on desire in the context of aging In the essays men and women claim their right to age in desire and imaginative vigour Canadian Literature ,1976 Contemporary Authors remarkable ethnic Canadian literature in close textual and contextual terms for the first time It lays a groundwork for future comparative research in the field of ethnic Canadian studies and challenges assumptions about cultural identity and human experience of the new A History of Canadian Literature William H. New,William Herbert New,2003 New offers an unconventionally structured overview of Canadian literature from Native American mythologies to contemporary texts Publishers Weekly A History of Canadian Literature looks at the work of writers and the social and cultural contexts that helped shape their preoccupations and direct their choice of literary form W H New explains how from early records of oral tales to the writing strategies of the early twenty first century writer reader literature and society are interrelated New discusses both Aboriginal and European mythologies looking at pre Contact narratives and also at the way Contact experience altered hierarchies of literary value He then considers representations of the real whether in documentary fantasy or satire historical romance and the social construction of Nature and State and ironic subversions of power the politics of cultural form and the relevance of the media to a representation of community standard and individual voice New suggests some ways in which writers of the later twentieth century codified such issues as history gender ethnicity and literary technique itself In this second edition he adds a lengthy chapter that considers how writers at the turn of the twenty first century have reimagined their society and their roles within it and an expanded chronology and bibliography Some of these writers have spoken from and about various social margins dealing with issues of race status ethnicity and sexuality some have sought emotional understanding through strategies of history and memory some have addressed environmental concerns and some have reconstructed the world by writing across genres and across different media All genres are represented with examples chosen primarily but not exclusively from anglophone and francophone texts A chronology plates and a series of tables supplement the commentary
