Jean Charbonnier, 2010-05-05 Christianity first came to China by way of the Silk Road in the seventh century and ever since this great and enduring civilization in the heart of Asia has been home to brothers and sisters of Christ Christians in China A D 600 to 2000 chronicles the lives of the Chinese faithful who through the centuries have been both accepted and rejected by their own countrymen It explores the unique religious and political situations in which Chinese Christians Catholic and Protestant have struggled to live their faith and give witness to Christ This major work covers each of the historic periods in China with a focus on the development of Christianity and its cultural interaction in each period It shows the evolution of Christianity as it occurred within the People's Republic of China. While telling the stories of various Christians throughout Chinese history, the author addresses a few key questions: How did the Church develop over many centuries in a culture so different from the West? How do Christians in China give witness to their faith? How do they contribute to the life of the universal Church? The answer to such questions provides a meaningful historical background to the broad approach of Pope Benedict XVI in His Letter to the Catholics in China issued on June 30, 2007. Illustrated. Fujian Paul Hattaway, 2025-03-31

Many people are aware of the extraordinary explosion of Christianity throughout China in recent decades, but few know how it has occurred. In The China Chronicles, Paul Hattaway draws on 35 years of experience in China and numerous first-hand interviews with church leaders to provide insight into how the Living God has brought about the largest revival in the history of Christianity. Presented in a style that is exciting, relevant, and transformative, Hattaway documents the acts of the Holy Spirit throughout China, preferring to focus on the wonderful things God has done for men rather than on what men have done for God. Fujian, a province in southeast China with more than 40 million people, was considered an obscure region in the past, but the gospel has blazed such a pathway that by the 1920s Fujian contained more Christians than any other province of China. The home of key Chinese church leaders, including John Sung, Watchman Nee, and Leland Wang, the church in Fujian has impacted millions of people in Southeast Asia and throughout the world. New Wineskins for Global Mission: Sharon J. Stockdale, Helen Camlin, 1996-06-01. New Wineskins for Global Mission captures the essence of a groundbreaking conference in 1994 where Episcopalians from all over the United States gathered to embrace their role in global missions. Filled with powerful testimonies and a passionate call to action, this book reveals the urgent need to invite unreached people groups to the Lord's Table. The conference's impact was profound, leading participants to engage in prayer, generous giving, and active involvement in missions. Now, this collection of plenary speeches and workshops serves as a valuable resource, equipping churches and individuals with tools to fulfill the Great Commission and share the gospel in a changing world.

Pray Differently Prasad Abraham, 2007-08. Abraham brings out 23 mysteries from the parable of prayer mentioned in Luke 11, which may change the way believers pray. In addition to discussing the four qualities of Jabez's prayer, the book presents other challenging prayers of the Bible by which people of God became history makers. Practical Life. The Palgrave Handbook of Religion and State Volume II Shannon Holzer, 2023-10-19. The Palgrave Handbook of Religion and State Volume II: Global Perspectives addresses issues of Religion and State from a multitude of disciplines. The volume begins with the philosophical discussion of perennial issues that have to do with the origin and nature of rights. One question centers on the right to use one's religious beliefs to enact laws. This discussion alone sets this handbook apart from other handbooks of its type. While addressing these perennial questions, this volume includes authors who interact with the work of John Rawls, Hobbes, Rousseau, and a host of contemporary philosophers. The subsequent sections address the American Constitutional Experiment, religion, state, and law in the Americas. Red Dagger Dan Wooding, 2010-05. A gripping novel about terror.
