Gods Beliefs And Ceremonies Through The Ages:

Gods and Beliefs John Haywood, 2003 Step back into the fascinating worlds of Mesopotamia Egypt Greece and Rome with this reference guide to the beliefs rituals and spiritual life of our ancestors Delve into the heart of the native American lands and journey into the exotic Far East With interactive practical projects you can bring colourful sights and rhythmic sounds of the religions of the ancient worlds to life make your own Chinese lantern or build your own pyramid temple The Progress of Religious Ideas, Through Successive Ages Lydia Maria Child, 1855 Gods, Beliefs and Ceremonies Fiona MacDonald, John Haywood, 2001 Spanning over 120 000 years this absorbing book explores the history of religion in the ancient world Learn through interactive projects Celibacy and Religious Traditions Carl Olson, 2008 For an educated general readership and for use in college courses this text introduces the role of celibacy or a lack of it in various religious traditions and the contributors present the rationale for its observance or not within the context of each tradition Poverty and the Poor in the World's Religious Traditions William H. Brackney, Rupen Das, 2018-12-01 This detailed book is a resource for students practitioners and leaders interested in how the major world religions have understood poverty and responded to the poor Poverty is a universal phenomenon across history regardless of country or culture Today the demographics of the poor are on the rise globally it is a critical issue Religious traditions are another universal aspect of human societies and nearly all religions include directives on how to respond to the poor and systemic poverty How do the various religious traditions conceptualize poverty and what do they view as the proper response to the poor Poverty and the Poor in the World's Religious Traditions Religious Responses to the Problem of Poverty brings together specialists on the religions of the world and their diverse viewpoints to identify how different religious traditions interact with poverty and being poor It also contains excerpts of religious texts that readers can use as primary documents to illustrate themes such as identifying the poor religious reasons for being poor and responses like charity and development to the existence of poverty This book serves as a powerful resource for students of subjects like international development missiology comparative religion theology social ethics economics and organizational leadership as well as for any socially concerned clergy of various faiths

Constructing Moral Concepts of God in a Global Age Myriam Renaud, 2022-07-29 Constructing Moral Concepts of God in a Global Age focuses on what people say and think about God rather than on arguments about God's existence It advances a theological method or step by step approach to explore and reframe personal convictions about God and the worldviews shaped by those convictions Since a moral God is more likely to foster a moral life this method integrates an ethical check to ensure that understandings of God and their associated worldviews are validly moral The proposed method builds on the work of twentieth century theologian Gordon Kaufman during the Kantian phase of his work It anticipates a person like God who hears prayers loves without end and comforts in times of hardship To accommodate today's pluralistic and globalized world the ethical check integrated in the method is a widely collaborative and vetted global ethic the Parliament of the World's Religions Declaration Towards a Global Ethic This volume of constructive philosophical theology is written for seminary students educators clergy study groups and anyone interested in delving more deeply and systematically into understandings of God whether their own or those of others      Religious Evolution and the Axial Age Stephen K. Sanderson, 2018-01-25 Religious Evolution and the Axial Age describes and explains the evolution of religion over the past ten millennia It shows that an overall evolutionary sequence can be observed running from the spirit and shaman dominated religions of small scale societies to the archaic religions of the ancient civilizations and then to the salvation religions of the Axial Age Stephen K Sanderson draws on ideas from new cognitive and evolutionary psychological theories as well as comparative religion anthropology history and sociology He argues that religion is a biological adaptation that evolved in order to solve a number of human problems especially those concerned with existential anxiety and ontological insecurity Much of the focus of the book is on the Axial Age the period in the second half of the first millennium BCE that marked the greatest religious transformation in world history The book demonstrates that as a result of massive increases in the scale and scope of war and large scale urbanization the problems of existential anxiety and ontological insecurity became particularly acute These changes evoked new religious needs especially for salvation and release from suffering As a result entirely new religions Zoroastrianism Judaism Christianity Hinduism Buddhism Confucianism and Daoism arose to help people cope with the demands of the new historical era      Religion and the Conduct of War, C. 300-1215 David S. Bachrach, 2003 An analysis of the dynamic interpenetration of religion and war in the West from the fourth to the 13th centuries      Religious Traditions of the World James F. Lewis, William G. Travis, 1999-03-10 Originally published Grand Rapids Mich Zondervan Publishing House c1991      Jewish Beliefs, Customs, and Contributions Walter Hazen, 2002-09-01 In addition to valuable historical and practical information this packet teaches students about the contributions of the Jewish people to society and about what Jews believe and how they have developed certain customs Review questions questions for discussion key word lists a test and an answer key are included These features facilitate student assimilation of the fundamentals of a religion practiced by an estimated 13 million people around the globe You will be delighted to observe your students growing understanding of the enormous cultural and historical contributions of the world's first major monotheistic religion      The Growth of Religious Diversity: Traditions Gerald Parsons, 1993 These two volumes consider the significance of religion in post war Britain concentrating on the decline of the specifically Christian Society and the emergence of a culturally and religiously plural society      Ageing, Ritual and Social Change Assoc Prof Daniela Koleva, Ms Joanna Bornat, Professor Peter Coleman, 2013-10-28 Exploring European changes in religious and secular beliefs and practices related to life passages this book provides a deeper understanding of the impacts of social change on personal identity and adjustment across the life course According to latest research Europeans who consider religious services appropriate to mark life passages significantly outnumber those who declare themselves as believers Drawing on fascinating oral histories of older people's memories in both Eastern and Western Europe this book presents illuminating views on people's quests for existential meaning in later life Ageing Ritual and Social Change presents an invaluable resource for all those exploring issues of ageing including those looking from perspectives of sociology and psychology of religion social and oral history and East Central European studies      Praxis of Retelling Parables and Miracles Beschi

Jeyaraj, 2023-02-09 A bible theological didactic is not principally reduced to learning and teaching Bible alone but rather extended to understanding and interpreting Bible in one's own religious and pedagogical context Bible didactic moreover does not circumscribe itself only to biblical knowledge in virtue of deducing some abstract and moral principles but it rather prospects to strengthen and reconstruct one's identity within the choices offered by culture and context This book aims to engage in an intercultural interpretation of the parables and the miracles of Jesus by dialoging with the culture of Tamils This comparative study subsequently proposes an alternative synchronic hermeneutic in biblical didactics replacing a deep seated diachronic model in Tamil land It also develops a model of synculturation superseding fossilised model of inculturation This book capitalises Tamils texts and narratives of masses reflected in the archives of Tamil literatures and legends in the process of theologisation Bearing on the aesthetics of parables and miracles and contextual reading of them this study brings forward the world in front of the text leaving behind the conventional exegesis of the world behind the text      The
