Goethe's Literary Essays. A Selection in English Arranged by J.E. Spingarn, Etc Johann Wolfgang von Goethe, Joel Elias SPINGARN, 1921 Goethe's Literary Essays Johann Wolfgang von Goethe, 1964 Literary Essays Johann Wolfgang von Goethe, 1921 Goethe's Literary Essays Johann Wolfgang von Goethe, 2020-09-28

When I went for the first time to the Minster my head was full of the common cant of good taste From hearsay I was an admirer of the harmony of mass the purity of form and was a sworn enemy to the confused arbitrariness of Gothic adornment Under the term Gothic like the article in a dictionary I piled all the misconceptions which had ever come into my head of the indefinite the unregulated the unnatural the patched up the strung together the superfluous in art No wiser than a people which calls the whole foreign world barbarous everything was Gothic to me that did not fit into my system from the turned wooden dolls and pictures of gay colors with which the bourgeois nobility decorate their houses to the dignified relics of the older German architecture my opinion of which because of some bizarre scrollwork had been that of everybody Quite buried in ornamentation consequently I had an aversion to seeing it such as I would have before a malformed bristling monster With what unexpected emotions did the sight surprise me when I actually saw it An impression of grandeur and unity filled my soul which because it consisted of a thousand harmonizing details I could taste and enjoy but by no means understand and explain They say it is thus with the rapture of heaven How often I returned to enjoy this heavenly earthly rapture to embrace the stupendous genius of our older brothers in their works How often I returned to view from every side at every distance in every light of the day its dignity and splendor Hard it is for the mind of man when his brother s work is so elevated that he can only bow down and pray How often has the evening twilight refreshed with its friendly calm my eyes wearied by too much gazing it made countless details melt together into a complete whole and mass and now simple and grand it stood before my eyes and full of rapture my power unfolded itself both to enjoy and to understand it at once There was revealed to me in soft intimations the genius of the great builder Why are you astonished He whispered to me All these masses were necessary and do you not see them in all the older churches of my city Only I have given harmonious proportion to their arbitrary vastnesses See how over the principal entrance which commands two smaller ones on either side the wide circle of the window opens which corresponds to the nave of the church and was formerly merely a hole to let the light in see how the bell tower demands the smaller windows All this was necessary and I designed it with beauty But what of these dark and lofty apertures here at the side which seem to stand so empty and meaningless In their bold slender forms I have hidden the mysterious strength which was to raise both of those towers high in the air of which alas only one stands there sadly without the crown of five towers which I had planned for it so that to it and its royal brother the country about would do homage And so he parted from me and I fell into a sympathetic mood of melancholy until the birds of morning which dwelt in its thousand orifices greeted the sun joyously and waked me out of my slumber How freshly it shone in the morning rays how joyfully I stretched my arms towards it surveying its vast harmonious masses animated by countless delicate details of structure as in the works of eternal Nature every form down to the smallest fibril alive and everything contributing to the purpose of the whole How lightly the monstrous solidly grounded building soared into the air how free and delicate everything about it and yet solid for eternity To your teaching noble genius I owe thanks that I did not faint and sink before your heights and depths but that into my soul flowed a drop of that calm rapture of the mighty soul which could look on this creation and like God say It is good Goethe in English

Derek Glass, Martin H.
