Frederick Edwin Smith Earl of Birkenhead, 1926 Famous Trials: Lucky Escapes Alex McBride, 2012-11-01 From the legendary Famous Trials series of real life courtroom dramas two classic murder trials abridged and refreshed as Penguin Specials for modern readers selected and introduced by Alex McBride author of Defending the Guilty Nineteen year old Madeleine Smith may have been charged in 1857 with poisoning her lover Emile L Angelier but her real sin was having sex a lot of sex out of wedlock Her mistake was to write him frank and passionate letters described by the trial judge as without any sense of decency which L Angelier threatened to send to her father when she cooled on the idea of marriage having secretly engaged herself to someone else Some fifty years later the trial of Robert Wood a respectable hard working illustrator by day who frolicked with prostitutes by night including the unfortunate Emily Dimmock also hinged on a dangerous correspondence Dimmock s murderer had evidently ransacked her rooms for a postcard written by Wood Was there something he was desperate to hide The author of his trial is certain he was guilty But both escaped conviction in Wood s case thanks to the defence of the best defence barrister in the land In Madeleine Smith s the three judges ruled two to one to exclude from evidence L Angelier s pocket book which recorded her meetings with him on the day of the murder These two salacious and controversial trials demonstrate how the dramatic difference between guilty and not guilty can sometimes be decided by a mere scrap of paper The legendary Famous Trials series set the benchmark for historical crime writing with its accounts of the most notorious and intriguing criminal trials of the nineteenth and twentieth centuries Expertly reconstructed from court transcripts these often sensational narratives have gripped generations of readers since they first appeared in 1941 In this digital edition two of the very best Famous Trials have been selected introduced and further abridged by criminal barrister and author Alex McBride to provide modern readers with the most compelling versions yet of these court room classics Alex McBride is a criminal barrister His book Defending the Guilty Truth and Lies in the Criminal Courtroom was shortlisted for the 2010 Crime Writers Association Gold Dagger for Non Fiction and is available in Penguin He has written for the Guardian Independent Prospect and New Statesman and has contributed to various BBC programmes including From Our Own Correspondent Expert authoritative hilarious an insider s fearless account of life at the criminal bar Times Literary Supplement Books of the Year on Defending the Guilty The Law Journal ,1912 Reader, I Buried Them & Other Stories Peter Lovesey,2022-02-01 Mystery Writers of America Grand Master Peter Lovesey presents a collection of short fiction spanning fifty years including the first story he ever published and three brand new stories More than fifty years ago Peter Lovesey published a short story in an anthology That short story caught the eye of the great Ruth Rendell whose praise ignited Lovesey s lifelong passion for short form crime fiction On the occasion of his hundredth short story Peter Lovesey has assembled this devilishly clever collection eighteen yarns of mystery melancholy and mischief inhabiting such deadly settings as a theater a monastery and the book publishing industry The collection includes the career launching story as well as three never before published works And surprising the author himself the irascible Bath detective Peter Diamond bulldozed his way into this volume Conan Doyle, Detective Peter Costello,2012-10-25 This fascinating book is based on a remarkable discovery Sherlock Holmes s methods of deduction were actually those of his creator and used in order to solve real crimes for Scotland Yard Holmes really did exist in the form of Conan Doyle Author Peter Costello draws on new research to follow the tracks Conan Doyle left as he entered the real word of Sherlock Holmes his fictional outpourings were the direct result of their author s hidden career as an amateur detective and criminologist Famous Canadian Trials Albert Richard Hassard,1924 Famous Trials ,1954 Famous Cases Brian P. Block,John Hostettler,2002 A collection of some of the most famous cases in English law with an explanation of how they changed things by two leading commentators Every UK lawyer knows of Woolmington v Director of Public Prosecutions the ruling which established the golden thread of English law whereby the burden of proof lies with the prosecutor in a criminal trial even in the case of murder But who was Woolmington and how many people know that he escaped the death penalty at the eleventh hour or that he was twice tried for murder Lords give man back his life as the Western Gazette put it Likewise in the civil law how and why did a Mrs Donoghue come to be drinking a bottle of ginger beer containing the remnants of a snail an event which would ultimately determine at the highest level that the categories of negligence are never closed And how did the tranquil market town of Wednesbury come to be legal shorthand for unreasonableness In Famous Cases Nine Trials that Changed the Law the authors have painstakingly assembled the background to a selection of leading cases in English law From the Mareva case synonymous with a type of injunction to Lord Denning s classic ruling in the High Trees House case the turning point for equitable estoppel to that of the former Chilean head of state General Pinochet in which the House of Lords heard the facts a second time the authors offer a refreshing perspective to whet the appetite of every law student general reader or seasoned practitioner interested in how English law evolves
