MacDonald, 2013-05-02 Beginning with the era of synchronized sound in the 1920s music has been an integral part of motion pictures Whether used to heighten the tension of a scene or evoke a subtle emotional response scores have played a significant if often unrealized role in the viewer's enjoyment In The Invisible Art of Film Music Laurence MacDonald provides a comprehensive introduction for the general student film historian and aspiring cinematographer Arranged chronologically from the silent era to the present day this volume provides insight into the evolution of music in cinema and analyzes the vital contributions of scores to hundreds of films MacDonald reviews key developments in film music and discusses many of the most important and influential scores of the last nine decades including those from Modern Times Gone with the Wind Citizen Kane Laura A Streetcar Named Desire Ben Hur Lawrence of Arabia The Godfather Jaws Ragtime The Mission Titanic Gladiator The Lord of the Rings Brokeback Mountain and Slumdog Millionaire MacDonald also provides biographical sketches of such great composers as Max Steiner Alfred Newman Franz Waxman Bernard Herrmann Elmer Bernstein Henry Mancini Maurice Jarre John Barry John Williams Jerry Goldsmith Dave Grusin Ennio Morricone Randy Newman Hans Zimmer and Danny Elfman Updated and expanded to include scores produced well into the twenty first century this new edition of The Invisible Art of Film Music will appeal not only to scholars of cinema and musicologists but also any fan of film scores

William Alwyn Ian Johnson, 2005 Ian Johnson's evaluation of Alwyn's film music places his achievement in the context of wider movements within the film industry William Alwyn was a leading composer of British film music in the 1940s and 50s a time when the British film industry was at its peak His scores ranged from documentaries to almost 80 full length feature films including classics such as Fires Were Started Desert Victory Odd Man Out The Fallen Idol and The History of Mr Polly he was adept at any musical genre from classical to cartoon slapstick and in the process worked with legendary directors including Carol Reed David Lean Humphrey Jennings and Anthony Asquith Alone with Vaughan Williams he was granted the distinction of a separate title credit columnists mentioned him alongside Bliss Bax and Walton However as the reputation of the British film industry declined in the 1950s so musical snobbery against those who were its leading lights became unpleasantly raw In recent years however with sensitive performances of his film and concert music available on CD this most appealing of composers has enjoyed something of a renaissance In this long overdue reassessment Alwyn's films are analysed and put into the context of his biography the film industry and of society at large the author shows in particular this remarkably versatile composer developed a hitherto unrecognised grammar of film music which enhanced every film on which he worked He also examines his work for war propaganda radio and the concert hall The volume is enhanced by the most complete filmography discography and bibliography of the composer's works yet published as well as listings of his concert and radio music

Musical Topics and Musical Performance Julian Hellaby, 2023-01-31 The principal purpose of topics in musicology has been to identify meaning bearing units within a musical composition that would have been understood by contemporary audiences and therefore also by later receivers albeit in a different context and with a need for historically aware listening Since Leonard Ratner 1980 introduced the idea of topics his relatively simple ideas have been expanded and developed by a number of distinguished authors Topic theory has now become a well established branch of musicology often embracing semiotics but its relationship to performance has received less attention Musical Topics and Musical Performance thus focuses on the interface of theory and practice and investigates how an appreciation of topical presence in a work may prompt interpretative thoughts for a potential performer as well as how performers have responded to such a presence in practice The chapters focus on music from the nineteenth twentieth and twenty first centuries with case studies drawn from composers as diverse as Beethoven Scriabin and P ter E tv s Using both scores and recordings the book presents a variety of original and innovative perspectives on the subject from a range of distinguished authors and addresses a neglected area of musicology and musical performance
