Women Artists at the Millennium Carol Armstrong, Catherine De Zegher, 2011-02-25 Artists art historians and critics look at the legacies of feminism and critical theory in the work of women artists more than thirty years after the beginning of the modern women's movement and Linda Nochlin's landmark essay Why Have There Been No Great Women Artists More than thirty years after the birth of the modern women's movement and the beginnings of feminist art making and art history the time is ripe to examine the legacies of those revolutions In Women Artists at the Millennium artists art historians and critics examine the differences that feminist art practice and critical theory have made in late twentieth century art and the discourses surrounding it In 1971 when Linda Nochlin published her essay Why Have There Been No Great Women Artists in a special issue of Art News there were no women's studies no feminist theory no such thing as feminist art criticism there was instead a focus on the mythic figure of the great male artist through history Since then the woman artist has not simply been assimilated into the canon of greatness but has expanded art making into a multiplicity of practices with new parameters and perspectives In Women Artists at the Millennium artists including Martha Rosler and Yvonne Rainer reflect upon their own varied practices and art historians discuss the innovative work of such figures as Louise Bourgeois Lygia Clark Mona Hatoum and Carrie Mae Weems And Linda Nochlin considers changes since her landmark essay and looks to the future writing We will need all our wit and courage to make sure that women's voices are heard their work seen and written about Artist Pages By Ellen Gallagher Ann Hamilton Mary Kelly Yvonne Rainer Martha Rosler Contributing Writers Emily Apter Carol Armstrong Catherine de Zegher Maria DiBattista Brigid Doherty Briony Fer Tamar Garb Anne Higonnet Ewa Lajer Burcharth Molly Nesbit Mignon Nixon Linda Nochlin Griselda Pollock Abigail Solomon Godeau Lisa Tickner Anne Wagner

Sculpture and Psychoanalysis Brandon Taylor, 2017-07-05 Just what do psychoanalysis and modern sculpture have to do with one another The present collection of essays unique in its field shows how key metaphors of Freudian and Kleinian psychoanalysis splitting projection sublimation identification the schizoid and reparative mechanisms as well as Lacan's concepts of the stade du miroir and the objet petit a can be fruitfully applied to a range of modern three dimensional art from Surrealism to the present day As these essays show figures such as Barbara Hepworth Eva Hesse Jean Jacques Lebel Robert Morris Donald Judd Gilbert and George Rebecca Horn and others have often approached the material of sculpture with something like these mechanisms in mind The need to unlock the levels of psychoanalytic connection between artist object and viewer in recent debate has fuelled the diverse proposals of this original and important book

After the Revolution Eleanor Heartney, Helaine Posner, Nancy Princenthal, Sue Scott, 2013-11-04 Why Have There Been No Great Women Artists asked the prominent art historian Linda Nochlin in a provocative 1971 essay Today her insightful critique serves as a benchmark against which the progress of women artists may be measured In this book four prominent critics and curators describe the impact of women artists on contemporary art since the advent of the feminist movement

Feminist Subjectivities in Fiber Art and Craft John Corso-Esquivel, 2019-07-09 This book interprets the fiber art and craft inspired sculpture by eight US and Latin American women artists whose works incite embodied affective experience Grounded in the work of Gilles Deleuze and Félix Guattari John Corso-Esquivel posits craft as a material act of intuition The book provocatively asserts that fiber art long disparaged in the wake of the high low dichotomy of late Modernism is in fact well positioned to lead art at the vanguard of affect theory and twenty first century feminist subjectivities

Between Art Practice and Psychoanalysis Mid-Twentieth Century Beth Williamson, 2017-07-05 The work of mid twentieth century art theorist Anton Ehrenzweig is explored in this original and timely study An analysis of the dynamic and invigorating intellectual influences institutional framework and legacy of his work Between Art Practice and Psychoanalysis reveals the context within which Ehrenzweig worked how that influenced him and those artists with whom he worked closely Beth Williamson looks to the writing of Melanie Klein Marion Milner Adrian Stokes and others to elaborate Ehrenzweig's theory of art a theory that extends beyond the visual arts to music In this first full length study on his work including an inventory of his library previously unexamined archival material and unseen artworks sit at the heart of a book that examines Ehrenzweig's working relationships with important British artists such as Bridget Riley Eduardo Paolozzi and other members of the Independent Group in London in the 1950s and 1960s In Ehrenzweig's second book The Hidden Order of Art 1967 his thinking on Jackson Pollock is important too It was this book that inspired American artists Robert Rauschenberg and Robert Morris when they deployed his concept of dedifferentiation Here Williamson offers new readings of process art c 1970 showing how Ehrenzweig's aesthetic retains relevance beyond the immediate post war era

The Inhabitable Flesh of Architecture Marcos Cruz, 2017-03-02 Today's architecture has failed the body with its long heritage of purity of form and aesthetic of cleanliness A resurgence of interest in flesh especially in art has led to a politics of abjection completely changing traditional aesthetics and is now giving light to an alternative discussion about the body in architecture This book is dedicated to a future vision of the body in architecture questioning the contemporary relationship between our Human Flesh and the changing Architectural Flesh Through the analysis and design of a variety of buildings and projects Flesh is proposed as a concept that extends the meaning of skin one of architecture's most fundamental metaphors It seeks to challenge a common misunderstanding of skin as a flat and thin surface In a time when a pervasive discourse about the impact of digital technologies risks turning the architectural skin ever more disembodied this book argues for a thick embodied flesh by exploring architectural interfaces that are truly inhabitable Different concepts of Flesh are investigated not only concerning the architectural and aesthetic but also the biological aspects The latter is materialised in form of Synthetic Neoplasms which are proposed as new semi living entities rather than more commonly derived from scaled up analogies between biological systems and larger scale architectural constructs These neoplastic creations are identified as partly designed object and partly living material in which the line between the natural and the artificial is progressively blurred Hybrid technologies and interdisciplinary work methodologies are thus required and lead to a revision of our current architectural practice

Inside the Freud Museums Joanne Morra, 2017-12-11 Sigmund Freud spent the final year of his life at 20 Maresfield Gardens London surrounded by all his possessions in exile from the Nazis The long term home and workspace he left behind in Berggasse 19 Vienna is a seemingly empty space devoid of the great psychoanalyst's objects and artefacts. Now museums both of these spaces resonate powerfully. Since 1989 the Freud Museum London has held over 70 exhibitions by a distinctive range of artists including Louise Bourgeois, Sophie Calle, Mat Collishaw, Susan Hiller, Sarah Lucas and Tim Noble and Sue Webster. The Sigmund Freud Museum Vienna houses a small but impressive contemporary art collection with work by John Baldessari, Joseph Kosuth, Jenny Holzer, Franz West and Ilya Kabakov. In this remarkable book Joanne Morra offers a nuanced analysis of these historical museums and their unique relationships to contemporary art. Taking us on a journey through the site-responsive artworks, exhibitions and curatorial practices that intervene in the objects, spaces and memories of these museums, Joanne Morra offers a fresh experience of the history and practice of psychoanalysis of museums and contemporary art.

Photography and the Optical Unconscious

Shawn Michelle Smith, Sharon Sliwinski, 2017-05-04. Photography is one of the principal filters through which we engage the world. The contributors to this volume focus on Walter Benjamin's concept of the optical unconscious to investigate how photography has shaped history, modernity, perception, lived experience, politics, race and human agency. In essays that range from examinations of Benjamin's and Sigmund Freud's writings to the work of Kara Walker and Roland Barthes's famous Winter Garden photograph, the contributors explore what photography can teach us about the nature of the unconscious. They attend to side perceptions, develop latent images, discover things hidden in plain sight, focus on the disavowed and perceive the slow. Of particular note are the ways race and colonialism have informed photography from its beginning. The volume also contains photographic portfolios by Zoe Leonard, Kelly Wood and Kristan Horton whose work speaks to the optical unconscious while demonstrating how photographs communicate on their own terms. The essays and portfolios in Photography and the Optical Unconscious create a collective and sustained assessment of Benjamin's influential concept, opening up new avenues for thinking about photography and the human psyche. Contributors: Mary Bergstein, Jonathan Fardy, Kristan Horton, Terri Kapsalis, Sarah Kofman, Elisabeth Lebovici, Zoe Leonard, Gabrielle Moser, Mignon Nixon, Thy Phu, Mark Reinhardt, Shawn Michelle Smith, Sharon Sliwinski, Laura Wexler, Kelly Wood, Andr s Mario Zervig n.

Art and Psychoanalysis Maria Walsh, 2012-11-20. Often derided as unscientific and self-indulgent, psychoanalysis has been an invaluable resource for artists, art critics and historians throughout the twentieth century. Art and Psychoanalysis investigates these encounters. The shared relationship to the unconscious, severed from Romantic inspiration by Freud, is traced from the Surrealist engagement with psychoanalytic imagery to the contemporary critic's use of psychoanalytic concepts as tools to understand how meaning operates. Following the theme of the object with its varying materiality, Walsh develops her argument that psychoanalysis like art is a cultural discourse about the mind in which the authority of discourse itself can be undermined, provoking ambiguity and uncertainty and destabilising identity. The dynamics of the dream, work, Freud's familiar/unfamiliar, fetishism, visual mastery, abjection, repetition and the death drive are explored through detailed analysis of artists ranging from Max Ernst to Louise Bourgeois, including 1980s postmodernists such as Cindy Sherman, the performance art of

Marina Abramovic and post minimalist sculpture Innovative and disturbing Art and Psychoanalysis investigates key psychoanalytic concepts to reveal a dynamic relationship between art and psychoanalysis which goes far beyond interpretation There is no cure for the artist but art can reconcile us to the traumatic nature of human experience converting the sadistic impulses of the ego towards domination and war into a masochistic ethics of responsibility and desire Art Jonathan Vickery, Diarmuid Costello, 2007-01-01 The last few decades have witnessed an explosion in ideas and theories on art Art itself has never been so topical but much recent thinking remains inaccessible and difficult to use This book assesses the work of those thinkers including artists who have had a major impact on making criticizing and interpreting art since the 1960s With entries by leading international experts this book presents a concise critical appraisal of thinkers and their ideas about art and its place in the wider cultural context A guide to the key thinkers who shape today's world of art this book is a vital reference for anyone interested in modern and contemporary art its history philosophy and practice Theodor ADORNO Roland BARTHES Georges BATAILLE Jean BAUDRILLARD Walter BENJAMIN JM BERNSTEIN Pierre BOURDIEU Nicolas BOURRIAUD Benjamin BUCHLOH Daniel BUREN Judith BUTLER No l CARROLL Stanley CAVELL TJ CLARK Arthur C DANTO Gilles DELEUZE Jacques DERRIDA George DICKIE Thierry DE DUVE James ELKINS Hal FOSTER Michel FOUCAULT Michael FRIED Dan GRAHAM Clement GREENBERG Fredric JAMESON Mike KELLEY Mary KELLY Melanie KLEIN Joseph KOSUTH Rosalind KRAUSS Julia KRISTEVA Barbara KRUGER Niklas LUHMANN Jean François LYOTARD Maurice MERLEAU PONTY WJT MITCHELL Robert MORRIS Linda NOCHLIN Adrian PIPER Griselda POLLOCK Robert SMITHSON Jeff WALL Albrecht WELLMER Richard WOLLHEIM The Filming of Modern Life Malcolm Turvey, 2013-09-13 In the 1920s the European avant garde embraced the cinema experimenting with the medium in radical ways Painters including Hans Richter and Fernand Leger as well as filmmakers belonging to such avant garde movements as Dada and surrealism made some of the most enduring and fascinating films in the history of cinema In The Filming of Modern Life Malcolm Turvey examines five films from the avant garde canon and the complex sometimes contradictory attitudes toward modernity they express Rhythm 21 Hans Richter 1921 Ballet mecanique Dudley Murphy and Fernand Leger 1924 Entr'acte Francis Picabia and Ren Clair 1924 Un chien Andalou Salvador Dali and Luis Buñuel 1929 and Man with a Movie Camera Dziga Vertov 1929 All exemplify major trends within European avant garde cinema of the time from abstract animation to cinema pur Women Poets and Myth in the 20th and 21st Centuries Rosa Burillo, María Porras Sánchez, Esther Sánchez-Pardo, 2018-10-29 This book rereads and re-examines the important tradition of women poets and theorists who have both critically and creatively engaged with the study and reconsideration of the role played by myths in our Western society assessing their impact in different eras Such poets and theorists as H D Laura Riding Denise Levertov Margaret Atwood Anne Carson and Natalie Diaz have responded to myths either by recreating rewriting and interrogating the power of myths to articulate our reality or by creating and begetting new myths for the present In order to interrogate

Transsexuality and the Art of Transitioning

Oren Gozlan, 2014-08-13 Winner of The American Board and Academy of Psychoanalysis ABAPsa Book Prize for 2015

Transsexuality and the Art of Transitioning A Lacanian approach presents a startling new way to consider psychoanalytic dilemmas of sexual difference and gender through the meeting of arts and the clinic Informed by a Lacanian perspective that locates transsexuality in the intermediate space between the clinic and culture Oren Gozlan joins current conversations around the question of sexual difference with the insistence that identity never fully expresses sexuality and as such cannot be replaced by gender The book goes beyond the idea of gender as an experience that gives rise to multiple identities and instead considers identity as split from the outset This view transforms transsexuality into a particular psychic position able to encounter the paradoxes of transitional experience and the valence of phantasy and affect that accompany aesthetic conflicts over the nature of beauty and being Gozlan brings readers into the enigmatic qualities of representation as desire for completion and transformation through notions of tension difference and aesthetics through examining the artwork of Anish Kapoor and Louise Bourgeois and the role played by confusion in the aesthetics of transformation in literature and memoir Each chapter of the book presents a productive take on understanding the psychoanalytic demand to sustain and consider the dilemma that the unconscious presents to the knowledge and recognition of gender Fundamentally this work understands transsexuality as a creative act rich with desire and danger in which thinking of the transsexual body as both an analytic and a subjective object helps us to reveal the creativity of sexuality Ideal for psychoanalysts psychologists psychiatrists and social workers as well as students of psychoanalysis cultural studies literature studies and philosophy Transsexuality and the Art of Transitioning offers a unique insight into psychoanalytic approaches to transsexuality and the question of assuming a position in gender

Heritage and Debt

David Joselit, 2020-03-10 How global contemporary art reanimates the past as a resource for the present combating modern art s legacy of Eurocentrism If European modernism was premised on the new on surpassing the past often by assigning it to the traditional societies of the Global South global contemporary art reanimates the past as a resource for the present In this account of what globalization means for contemporary art David Joselit argues that the creative use of tradition by artists from around the world serves as a means of combatting modern art s legacy of Eurocentrism Modernism claimed to live in the future and relegated the rest of the world to the past Global contemporary art shatters this myth by reactivating various forms of heritage from literati ink painting in China to Aboriginal painting in Australia in order to propose new and different futures Joselit analyzes not only how heritage becomes contemporary through the practice of individual artists but also how a cultural infrastructure of museums biennials and art fairs worldwide has emerged as a means of generating economic value attracting capital and tourist dollars Joselit traces three distinct forms of modernism that developed outside the West in opposition to Euro American modernism postcolonial socialist realism and the underground He argues that these modern genealogies are synchronized with one another and with Western modernism to produce global contemporary art Joselit discusses curation and what he terms the curatorial episteme which through its acts of framing or curating can become a means of recalibrating hierarchies of knowledge and can contribute to the dual projects of decolonization and deimperialization The Barbarian Invasions Eric Michaud, 2019-12-03 How the history of art begins with the myth of the barbarian invasion the romantic fragmentation of classical eternity The history of art argues ric Michaud begins with the romantic myth of the barbarian invasions Viewed from the nineteenth century the Germanic led invasions of the Roman Empire in the fifth century became the gateway to modernity seen not as a catastrophe but as a release from a period of stagnation renewing Roman culture with fresh northern blood and with new art that was anti Roman and anticlassical Artifacts of art from then on would be considered as the natural product of races and peoples rather than the creation of individuals The myth of the barbarian invasions achieved the fragmentation of classical eternity This narrative Michaud explains inseparable from the formation of nation states and the rise of nationalism in Europe was based on the dual premise of the homogeneity and continuity of peoples Local and historical particularities became weapons aimed at classicism s universalism The history of art linked its objects with racial groups denouncing or praising certain qualities as Latin or Germanic Thus the predominance of linear elements was thought to betray a southern origin and the painterly a Germanic or northern source Even today Michaud points out it is said that art best embodies the genius of peoples In the globalized contemporary art market the ethnic provenance of works categorized for example as African American Latino or Native American creates added value The market displays the same competition among races that was present at the foundation of art history as a discipline
