Far Beyond The Field:

Far Beyond the Field Makoto Ueda, 2003-03-17 Far Beyond the Field is a first of its kind anthology of haiku by Japanese women collecting translations of four hundred haiku written by twenty poets from the seventeenth century to the present By arranging the poems chronologically Makoto Ueda has created an overview of the way in which this enigmatic seventeen syllable form has been used and experimented with during different eras At the same time the reader is admitted to the often marginalized world of female experience in Japan revealing voices every bit as rich and colorful and perhaps even more lyrical and erotic than those found in male haiku Listen for instance to Chiyojo who worked in what has been long thought of as the dark age of haiku during the eighteenth century but who composed exquisitely fine poems tracing the smallest workings of nature Or Katsuro Nobuko who wrote powerfully erotic poems when she was widowed after only two years of marriage And here too is a voice from today Mayuzumi Madoka whose meditations on romantic love represent a fresh new approach to haiku Foreign Field Research Program, 1965
