

A DEDICATION TO MYSELF AND ALL
—as I can—

My Soul!

I surrender to the steady under-flow of your mind upon the deep waters
Upon the hidden swirling bottom
Upon the invisible walls and
In every swirling thought you
That sweeps about all thought is lost
The pleasure and the shame of the act

My Self!

The conscious soul gives me time
To hear its music every cell in the Still inner core, and like a living jar
Impregnated by the universe
That flowering when its vibrations are
From some great hidden force and soul
The wonder-working fountain head
Can command all powers to come within

My Soul!

Why should the imagination of a man
Long past his prime remember things that are Fragments of a time and hour?
Think of ancient nights that were
If his imagination leaves the earth
And settles in wondering
To the vast that and Father thing
Believe that the voice of death and love

My Self!

Remembering all that has happened in
The hundred years ago, there is the Power that I know was when the universe
—the whole people— and all those I met
By accident of the hour against the hour
Fragments of the right,
And there is the right of the right
It seems to command the whole of the world
